The Cal Experience

The Tedford Factor

Under the direction of the dean of Pac-12 head coaches Jeff Tedford, the Golden Bears have become a consistent winner while showing the talent and attitude to battle – and defeat – America's top programs. Cal has been ranked in the nation's top 10 at some point in five of the last seven seasons.

Cal is 72-42 overall and an impressive 44-33 against conference competition in nine campaigns under Tedford. The Bears have set two school records (seven consecutive bowl appearances, four straight bowl victories) and tied another (eight straight winning campaigns). The Bears have also been fantastic at Memorial Stadium with a 43-14 record and three undefeated home seasons under Tedford after having last accomplished the feat in 1950.

Long known as perhaps America's most picturesque football playground, Memorial Stadium now is home to large crowds, national television audiences, and a blue and gold clad fan base that is turning out in record numbers.

Cal will play its 2011 home games at San Francisco's AT&T Park while Memorial Stadium goes through an extensive renovation and retrofit before reopening for 2012.

TURNSTILE TURNAROUND

California football fans have been flocking to Strawberry Canyon in record numbers over the past seven seasons as the Golden Bears have climbed into the upper echelon of college football. As recently as 2002, California was averaging just 37,000 fans per home game. In four of the last seven seasons, Cal has averaged over 60,000 fans, including a school-record 64,318 per contest in 2006. Cal has also sold more than 33,000 season tickets each of the last seven years, with a record 41,336 in 2007.

Great Coaching Staff

Cal head coach Jeff Tedford has built one of the nation's finest coaching staffs with a group of coaches that develop quality student-athletes both on and off the field.

JIM MICHALCZIK

Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line

Michalczik returns for his second stint and eighth season overall at Cal in 2011. He coached Cal's offensive line from 2002-08 before serving in the same role for the Oakland Raiders the last two seasons (2009-10).

CLANCY PENDERGAST

Defensive Coordinator

Returning for his second season in 2011, Pendergast has 20 seasons of NFL and collegiate coaching experience having spent six years as an NFL defensive coordinator, including for Arizona's 2008 Super Bowl squad.

ASHLEY AMBROSE

Defensive Backs

Ambrose begins his first season at Cal in 2011. The 13-year NFL veteran and 1996 AFC Defensive Back of the Year spent the last three seasons at Colorado, including last season as the defensive backs coach.

MARCUS ARROYO

Quarterbacks

Arroyo is in his first season at Cal in 2011. The former San Jose State quarterback has spent the last eight seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He has been an offensive coordinator or co-offensive coordinator for the past four campaigns.

JEFF GENYK

Special Teams Coord./TE

Genyk is in his second season at Cal and his 20th as a collegiate coach in 2011. Cal improved in all assets of special teams during his first season with the Bears in 2010 and Bryan Anger broke a 23-year-old record for yards per punt.

RON GOULD

Assoc. HC/Run Game Coord.

Gould, in his 15th season at Cal in 2011, is the veteran of the coaching staff. He has coached the rushing leader in the Pac-10 three times in the last seven years. His most recent protege, Shane Vereen, was a second-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft.

ERIC KIESAU

Passing Game Coord./WR

Kiesau is in his first season of his second stint at Cal. He was previously the Bears' wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator for four seasons (2002-05) before spending the past five campaigns at Colorado (2006-10).

TOSH LUPOI

Defensive Line

The Cal grad is in his 12th season with the program as either a player or a coach in 2011. At only 30 years of age, he is considered one of the brightest young coaches in the game. In 2010, he was named the Rivals National Recruiter of the Year.

KENWICK THOMPSON

Recruiting Coord./LBs

Thompson is in his fifth season at Cal in 2011 and helped develop 2010 grad Mike Mohamed into the school's fourth all-time leading tackler. He also has experience as a defensive coordinator, serving in the role from 1996-2000 at Texas Southern.

MIKE BLASQUEZ

Strength and Conditioning

Blasquez is in his 20th year as a strength and conditioning coach and his ninth season at Cal. The 2011 campaign will mark his first serving primarily the football team. Blasquez worked directly with the Cal men's basketball program from 2003-10.

MIKE McHUGH

Dir. of Football Operations

McHugh is in his ninth season in his current role at Cal in 2011 and his 29th working in football at the professional, collegiate and high school levels. He has served as both an administrator and coach during his professional career that began in 1983.

Bowl Experience

During Jeff Tedford's tenure in Berkeley, Cal has become a postseason fixture. The Golden Bears put together a school-record string of seven consecutive bowl games (2003-09) and is 5-2 in the postseason under Tedford, including a four-game win streak from 2005-08 that is also a school mark. During the span, Cal played in the Holiday Bowl twice. The Bears have also made appearances in the Armed Forces Bowl, Emerald Bowl, Insight Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl and Poinsettia Bowl, where the Bears were defeated by Utah, 37-27, in their most recent bowl outing.

In all Cal has played in 20 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls, and has posted a 10-9-1 record (8-3 since 1990).

In addition to leaving Berkeley with one of the most valuable college diplomas in the country, University of California football players often find themselves heading for the National Football League.

In Jeff Tedford's nine seasons as head coach, Cal has had 36 players have been selected in the NFL Draft, including a school-record six in 2008. Cal has also had eight first-round picks since Tedford arrived prior to the 2002 season, including four in the past three drafts.

California's current 38 active NFL players, which included 14 that were part of the league's playoffs following the 2010 season, is second only to USC among Pac-12 schools, as of July 20, 2010, according to ESPN.com.

A total of 214 student-athletes from Cal have been selected in the NFL Draft since 1936, with 26 in the first round.

A complete list of the 210 former Cal professional football players and their draft position can be found on pages 219-224.

National Attention

Mychal Kendricks has been Cal's most distinguished player in the 2011 preseason. The honorable mention preseason All-American is on watch lists for six national honors – the Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Butkus Award, College Football Performance Awards Linebacker Trophy, Lott IMPACT Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. He begins the 2011 season as Cal's active career leader in tackles, tackles for loss, sacks, fumble recoveries and blocked kicks.

Mychal Kendricks

Mike Mohamed

Mike Mohamed racked up the national recognition at Cal as a senior in 2010. He was the recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award, one of 16 national finalists for the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy and a quarterfinalist The Lott IMPACT Trophy.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

Cal center Alex Mack won the 2008 William V. Campbell Trophy, then known as the Draddy Trophy. The honor is a prestigious award given to the nation's top football scholar-athlete during a black tie ceremony at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Also referred to as the "Academic Heisman," it is one of college football's most sought-after honors, recognizing an individual as the absolute best in the country for combined academic success, football performance and community leadership. The award comes with a 24-inch, 25-pound bronze trophy and a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship. Mack, a two-time recipient of the Morris Trophy as the best offensive lineman in the Pac-10, also earned Cal's Neufeld Scholar-Athlete Award as the Golden Bears' male senior student-athlete with the highest cumulative GPA.

Alex Mack

RANDY MOSS AWARD

Cal's DeSean Jackson was presented with the Randy Moss Return Man Award for the top kick and punt returner in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) of college football in 2006 during a presentation at a luncheon in Houston. As a sophomore, Jackson led the country with an average of 18.2 yards per punt return. He also paced the nation with four punts returned for touchdowns, including a modern-era school-record 95-yarder against Arizona. As a member of the Philadelphia Eagles, Jackson has been one of the top players in the NFL since the 2009 season.

DeSean Jackson

THE LOTT IMPACT TROPHY

Cal cornerback Daymeion Hughes was recognized as the 2006 winner of The Lott IMPACT Trophy. Named after Pro Football Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott, the award is presented annually to college football's Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. Hughes' honor was announced at a gala black tie banquet at the Pacific Club in Newport Beach. The trophy is awarded to a player who exhibits the same characteristics Lott embodied during his distinguished career: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. Cal linebackers Zack Follett and Mike Mohamed were quarterfinalists for the award in 2008 and 2010, respectively. Cal cornerback Syd'Quan Thompson (2009) and linebacker Mychal Kendricks (2011) have been watch lists.

Ronnie Lott And Daymeion Hughes With The Lott Trophy

A blossoming football program located in America's sixth-largest television market means a big stage for the Cal football program.

Cal has been featured on television in 50 of its last 51 games over the past four seasons. Cal has risen to No. 2 in the Pac-12 in television exposure, a dramatic increase from the years prior to head coach Jeff Tedford's arrival in 2002. A total of 97 games have been televised in nine seasons under Tedford and the number of national telecasts have more than doubled in that time. The Golden Bears were televised nationally eight times in 2010 and are already scheduled for three national ESPN telecasts prior to the beginning of the 2011 season, with seven other contests still possibilities for a national telecast. Cal's flagship KGO AM 810 has also been the Bay Area's top-rated radio station for most of the period since beginning to broadcast Golden Bear games in 1974.

Included within the borders of the Pac-12 Conference are seven of America's top 35 television markets, some of the largest daily media outlets in the United States and a fan base that continues to grow every season.

With recent announcements by the Pac-12 regarding a landmark agreement for a broadcast and national cable television package with ESPN and FOX Sports, as well as the creation of the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network, media exposure is certain to expand.

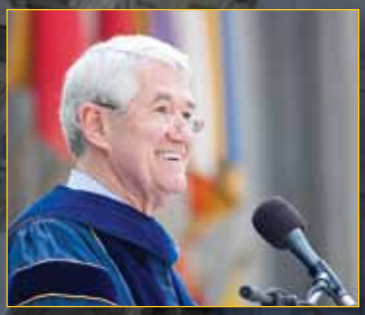
The University of California



SIMPLY THE BEST

There is no other way to aptly describe America's top public university. There is no other way to describe one of the elite academic settings in the world – especially one that also includes one of America's most successful athletic departments.

The University of California blends the best of all worlds. Overlooking the scenic San Francisco Bay and ranked as the nation's top public university by U.S. News and World Report, the flagship campus of the state of California also features an athletic program that annually finishes among the leaders in the Directors' Cup standings, which rates the overall success of America's collegiate athletic departments. Cal earned its highest ranking ever in the Directors' Cup standings for the 2010-11 season at No. 3.

Cal attracts what many believe to be the finest applicant pool in the United States featuring a diverse student body population. The University of California is divided into 14 colleges and schools offering 351 degree programs and over 7,000 courses, with 48 of the school's 52 graduate programs ranked among America's Top 10. Cal's 52 programs among the Top 10 is No. 1 among all universities in the country, as is its 32 "distinguished" programs, as rated by the National Research Council.

University Library is ranked as the No. 1 public research library in the country by the Association of Research Libraries with over 10 million volumes in 32 campus libraries.

The current faculty features eight Nobel Laureates, 135 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 32 MacArthur Fellows, 74 Fulbright Scholars, four Pulitzer Prize winners and 359 Guggenheim Fellows, more than any other university in America.

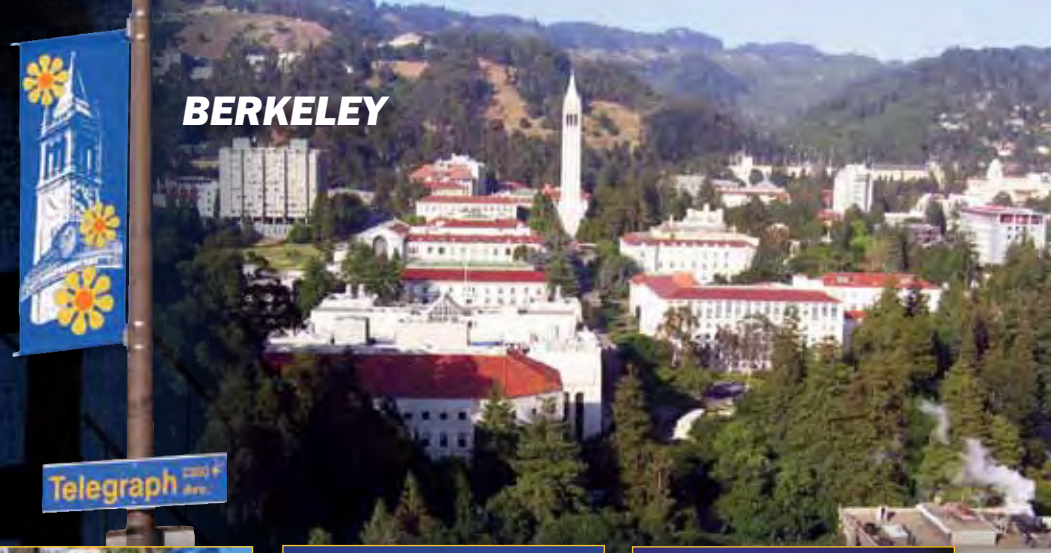
Berkeley and the Bay Area



Berkeley is a part of the San Francisco Bay Area major metropolitan area of approximately 7.5 million people. The region is considered one of the most beautiful in the world and includes the major cities of San Francisco and Oakland, as well as Berkeley, home of the world-renowned University of California. Just south are San Jose and the Silicon Valley, home to many of the world's most famous high-tech companies. The Bay Area also lies within easy driving distance of the high Sierra resorts of Lake Tahoe and Yosemite, the Monterey Peninsula and the world famous Napa wine country.

Everyone knows San Francisco, a.k.a. "The City," from the numerous photographs, movies and television shows that capture its magic and beauty. It is a city built on a series of more than 40 hills, offering panoramic views of every kind. The hub of a nine-county region and the financial and insurance capital of the world, San Francisco has a resident population of just over 800,000 and is situated on a 46.9-square mile peninsula bounded by water on three sides – to the west by the Pacific Ocean, the north by the Golden Gate strait, and from north to east by the San Francisco Bay. San Francisco has been named the world's top city twice and the top city in the U.S. in 20 of the last 21 years by Condé Nast Traveler. Cal will play its home football games at San Francisco's AT&T Park in 2011 while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley undergoes an extensive renovation and retrofit.

The San Francisco Bay is spanned by two landmarks, the Golden Gate and San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridges, the latter which is currently undergoing a spectacular renovation of the east span, and graced by four islands: Alcatraz, Angel, Treasure and Yerba Buena. The area is easily navigated by car, BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit), bus or ferry, making it easily accessible to all.

Located across the Bay Bridge from San Francisco and a bordering neighbor of Berkeley is Oakland, a city of just under 400,000 people, jam-packed with exciting attractions, stimulating arts and an ideal climate. Oakland's charm exceeds its man-made wonders – tumbling hills rising east above the city, vast forests, hiking and riding trails, beautiful lakes and numerous parks provide a natural escape for those who prefer nature over an urban environment.

Just a 12-mile trip from San Francisco, Berkeley is situated on 17.7 square miles with a population of just over 110,000 people. A study in contrasts, Berkeley is a small town with a big city character. With its world-renowned university, global population and rich diversity of cultural arts, Berkeley reflects and affects the rest of the country.

Six major pro sports teams – the NFL's San Francisco 49ers and Oakland Raiders, the NBA's Golden State Warriors, MLB's 2010 world champion San Francisco Giants and Oakland Athletics, and the NHL's San Jose Sharks – as well as six NCAA Division I schools call the Bay Area home.

Gameday Spirit

The setting for University of California football games features the best of all worlds. Memorial Stadium rests comfortably in a glorious natural setting, with the Berkeley Hills as a backdrop and a stadium perched above the San Francisco Bay. The foreground is complete with landmark bridges, islands and the San Francisco city skyline. The background features Strawberry Canyon and is complimented by dazzling gameday colors, a rousing student section, and a marching band all nestled in and surrounded by one of America's most picturesque gameday settings. For the 2011 season, Cal will play its home games at AT&T Park in San Francisco while Memorial Stadium undergoes an extensive renovation and retrofit.

GAMEDAY

The football team's March To Victory is the official kick-off of gameday. From the moment the Bears enter Memorial Stadium, the activity increases throughout fall Saturdays. Oski roams the stadium, the Rally Committee mans the flags, the student body, the traditional stunt card section, all in a stadium that has been around since the 1920s.

ROTH'S NO. 12 JERSEY RETIRED

The only jersey ever retired by the Cal football program is the No. 12 worn by quarterback Joe Roth, who played for the Golden Bears in 1975 and '76.

Roth, who seemed destined to become one of the greatest passers ever produced by Cal, had his career ended by cancer shortly after the '76 season, and he passed away on Feb. 19, 1977. His ability on the football field, friendly openness and humble manner, combined with the courage he showed in facing his illness, made him one of the most popular players ever to wear the Blue and Gold.

Roth still holds the Cal record for longest pass, an 88-yard hookup with Wesley Walker for a TD against Georgia in 1976. Roth's No. 12 jersey was retired during a ceremony on Oct. 29, 1977, prior to the USC game, which Cal won, 17-14. Cal host the annual Joe Roth Memorial Game to honor his legacy.

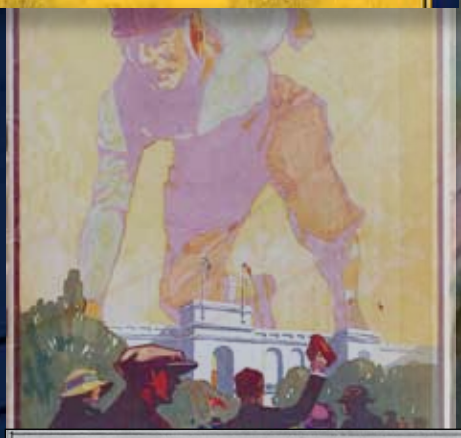
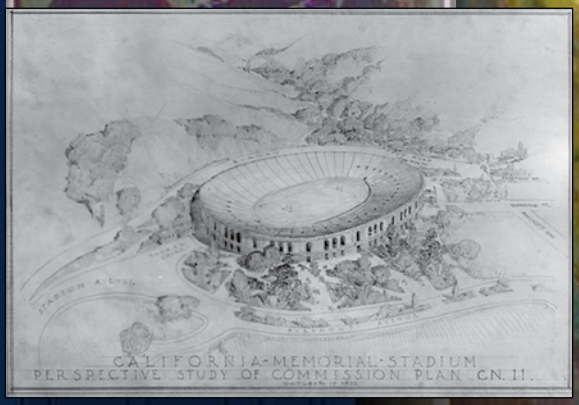
The Big Game between California and Stanford began in 1892 and is among the nation's most storied rivalries, tying for the country's 10th-longest active consecutively running series. At stake for the winner of the game is The Axe, a coveted trophy that represents a history of competitive matchups that include such memorable moments as "The Play" in 1982. Cal has won seven of the last nine years.

Memorial Stadium





The Past...

For California fans and alumni, there truly is no place like Memorial Stadium. For the last 88 seasons since its opening in 1923, Memorial Stadium has been one of the most breathtaking sites in all of college athletics.

The plush wall of pine trees in the Berkeley Hills to the east is contrasted by a panoramic view of the San Francisco Bay and three bridges to the west.

Designed by world-renowned architect John Galen Howard, and codesigners G.F. Buckingham and E.E. Carpenter, the stadium is a tribute to their architectural talents, skills that were years ahead of their time. Fans have marveled over the years at the beauty of the structure, modeled after the Roman Colosseum, and commented about the easy viewing for spectators from all angles within the stadium.

The stadium was completed in time for the 1923 Big Game at a total cost of $1,437,982. It was constructed in sections with expansion joints to withstand earth movement. Included in the initial construction were 12,000 barrels of cement, 1.1 million feet of lumber for concrete forms, 8,000 cubic yards of rock, 4,000 cubic yards of sand, 600 tons of steel, 800,000 feet of premium lumber used for seating, and 2,500 pine trees, which today serve as the backdrop for the stadium.

Original plans for the stadium called for a capacity of 60,000, but they were altered in favor of a capacity closer to 80,000. The seating capacity has fluctuated due to renovation and other changes, but in 1947, a school-record-tying crowd of 83,000 watched Cal defeat Navy, 14-7, a feat which may have prompted Cal officials to establish an official capacity for the stadium. In the 1960s, temporary bleachers on the east side were removed and additional wheelchair seating and aluminum bleachers followed in the 1980s. For 2001, the press box was rebuilt, giving the stadium an official capacity of 71,799.

Cal football teams have played before crowds of 70,000 or more on 64 occasions and there have been 21 games that attracted in excess of 80,000 spectators.

There are bigger stadiums, newer stadiums and stadiums with grander reputations.

But there is no finer place to watch a college football game than Memorial Stadium on the campus of the University of California at Berkeley.

...AND FUTURE...

MEMORIAL STADIUM RETROFIT AND RENOVATION

Since it opened in the fall of 1923, California Memorial Stadium has generated scores of unforgettable memories for generations of Golden Bears. From the Wonder Teams of the 1920s to the Pappy Waldorf years mid-century to the current success attained under head coach Jeff Tedford, the venerable facility has treated fans of all ages to many of the greatest games in the history of Cal football.

Now, work is underway to retrofit and renovate the historic building, bringing it up to modern standards and creating a facility that will significantly reduce seismic risk and create a more enjoyable environment for the hundreds of thousands of fans who attend games every year – all while maintaining the architecture and character of the celebrated structure.

Construction on the $321 million project began in earnest in early June 2010 and is expected to be completed in time for the 2012 season opener. After playing in the current configuration of Memorial Stadium one last time in 2010, the Golden Bears will move to temporary quarters at San Francisco's AT&T Park in 2011 before returning to campus for the following campaign and providing new generations of Cal fans the opportunity to treasure the venue for years to come.

Fans can view construction progress through a webcam set high above the eastern rim at calbears.com/stadiumcam. More information about the overall project can be found at stadium.berkeley.edu.

STUDENT-ATHLETE HIGH PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Student-Athlete High Performance Center, scheduled to open this fall, is a revolutionary training, coaching, and applied sports science and sports medicine center. The SAHPC embodies the High Performance Initiative, Cal's innovative performance philosophy designed to build competitive advantage, maximize efficiency and enhance the student-athlete experience.

A 142,000 square-foot facility, the SAHPC is a state-of-the-art complex with year-round access for over 450 student-athletes. The SAHPC is home to the locker rooms, meeting rooms and offices for Cal football and 12 Olympic sports. Importantly, the academic center gives student-athletes access to the resources they need — from computers to tutors — to meet the high standards that have always been the hallmark of our great university.

The building is the physical manifestation of the High Performance Initiative, a nontraditional approach to excellence that challenges conventional ways of thinking about and delivering high performance in an intercollegiate setting. In an effort to take Cal to the highest level, the HPI applies worldwide best practices in sport and human performance to all aspects of the athletic department. This commitment creates and sustains high performance across Cal Athletics and maximizes the potential of our student-athletes, coaches and support staff.

Academic Achievement

ACADEMIC GAME PLAN

COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM FOCUSES ON GOLDEN BEAR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

On the field the California football program has produced 72 victories, a school-record seven straight bowl appearances (2003-09) and a school-record-tying eight consecutive winning seasons (2002-09) over the last nine years, but the primary mission for Cal football is to EDUCATE and GRADUATE all football student-athletes with a meaningful degree that will support their future successes in whatever field they choose.

Cal's unique "Academic Game Plan" (AGP) is a program established by head coach Jeff Tedford to ensure success in the classroom as well as on the field. AGP, under the direction of Cal's director of student-athlete development, consists of players meeting regularly with coaches and counselors to review coursework and assignments. Players are given an "Academic Game Planner," which they are required to keep up to date. The point of AGP is to approach academics just like a game, with a plan. The players would never go into a game situation without studying film, having a plan, practicing and preparation. Tedford and the Cal staff want student-athletes to approach academics the same way.

Of the 18 players signed in 2002 in coach Tedford's first class, 15 (83%) graduated within five years. A total of 20 players over the past 10 years have earned graduate degrees while playing and 10 of those who earned graduate degrees have gone on to play in the NFL.

Athletic Study Center Staff

For the 2005-06 academic year, the Cal football team achieved the highest score possible (1000) in the Academic Progress Rate (APR). In addition, 94 student-athletes on the football team have earned Pac-10 All-Academic honors in the Tedford era, with 11 achieving the feat in 2010.

ATHLETIC STUDY CENTER

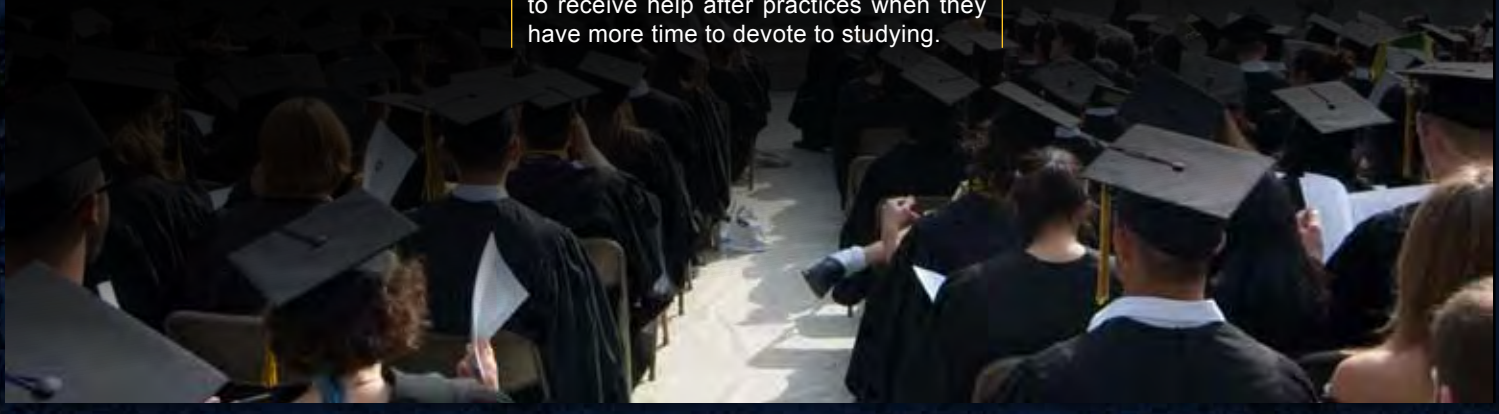
The Athletic Study Center, which is housed within the Division of Undergraduate Education, is the tutorial and academic support program for over 900 student-athletes at Cal. Centrally located in the Cesár Chavéz Student Center, the program provides a spacious and comfortable area for quiet study, individual classrooms for tutorials and a computer lab.

TUTORIAL PROGRAM

The tutorial program promotes and enhances students' academic skills and progress by providing individual tutoring, group workshops, study groups, credit courses and intensive special programs. The Athletic Study Center has between 50-60 tutors on staff per semester to guarantee that students receive the best possible support. Tutorial sessions are offered in the evenings to enable student-athletes to receive help after practices when they have more time to devote to studying.

ADVISING PROGRAM

The advising program offers a broad range of services to meet the unique needs of Cal's student-athletes, which include assistance in understanding and complying with university, college and NCAA requirements, the development of time management skills and the resolution of personal issues unique to student-athletes.



Community Service

In addition to pursuing success on the football field and in the classroom, head coach Jeff Tedford puts a high priority on Golden Bear football players being involved in the community. Most recently, one of the team's primary focuses has been The Sage Mentorship Project, helping Sage carry out its mission of providing youth with a one-on-one mentoring program to build authentic and powerful relationships between these students and UC Berkeley student mentors. The team also participates in a variety of community service activities and is always eager to support area youth and let them know the value of education through various reading and recess programs as well as its annual Fan Appreciation Day. The Golden Bears truly enjoy the opportunity to give back to the community.

"The passionate commitment that we have received from these esteemed individuals has been a vital key to our continued growth. Most importantly, the positive influence, which they impart unto the youth of our communities, has been simply amazing and impactful beyond belief."

Michael Okinczyc, Former President of The Sage Mentorship Project

MEDIA INFORMATION

WELCOME TO CAL FOOTBALL

The 2011 University of California Information Guide is produced to provide information on the Golden Bears for anyone interested in finding out more about the program. Media covering Cal football should review this section in detail to learn more about Cal's policies and services. Additional information can be found online by visiting CalBears.com. Please contact a member of the Cal Athletics Media Relations staff if you have any questions or concerns.

AT&T PARK DIRECTIONS

Attending a Cal football game at AT&T Park is a unique and exciting entertainment experience Perfectly situated and centrally located in Sa Francisco at 24 Willie Mays Plaza (Second & King Streets), AT&T Park is one of the most unique venues in the world. The best way to get to AT&T Park is to plan ahead and consider all transportation options available to you.

BY AUTOMOBILE

From The Peninsula/South Bay

Take I-280 north (or US-101 north to I-280 north) to the Mariposa Street exit. Turn right on Mariposa Street, then left on Third Street to get to the parking lots.

From the East Bay

Take I-80/Bay Bridge to the Fifth Street exit. Bear right onto Fifth Street. Turn right onto Folsom and right onto Fourth Street. Continue on Fourth Street to parking lots.

These directions provide the most direct routes to the AT&T Park parking lots, but other city streets and freeway exits provide alternate routes that fans are encouraged to use to avoid congestion. Please call 511, or go to 511.org, for real-time traffic conditions.

POSTGAME ROUTES

Avoid postgame traffic congestion by exiting the ballpark area to the south. For example, fans can reach I-80/Bay Bridge by going south on either Third or Fourth Streets, turning right on 16th Street and turning right on Seventh Street. From southbound Terry Francois Boulevard, turn left onto Illinois Street, turn right on 18th Street then take the northbound I-280 freeway to the Sixth Street exit.

BY PUBLIC TRANSIT

There are many public transportation options available for getting to AT&T Park. For more information, please visit 511.org.

CALBEARS.COM

Visit CalBears.com for the most recent, frequent, relevant and accurate information on Cal Athletics. CalBears.com covers the Golden Bears inside and out.

CANDLESTICK PARK

The Sept. 3 Cal-Fresno State game at Candlestick Park is considered a neutral-site contest and is being managed by Russ Potts Productions, Inc., out of Washington, D.C., a company that has staged other college football games around the country. However, Cal is handling all media relations responsibilities for the game.

If credentials do not arrive in time for mailing, they will be available at Media Will Call (Gate B), which will open four hours prior to kickoff. Photo passes must be picked up at Media Will Call. Please contact Herb Benenson if you have additional needs or concerns.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

The Pac-12 Conference and each of its members will be using Collegepressbox.com. The site contains a large amount of information available for download by media members. Contact Kyle McRae for more details, a user name and password.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all requests/questions for media, photo and parking credentials for 2011 Cal football home games to Herb Benenson (benenson@berkeley.edu, 510-642-0515) through Football Media Relations at 349 Haas Pavilion, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720. Only media who cover the Bears on a regular basis will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will result in that member of the media being moved to the single-game list.

All single-game requests should be made in writing at least one week prior to the game for which the credential is requested. No credential requests will be considered after 5 p.m. Thursday of game week (for Saturday games, two days in advance for all others). Requests for media covering a visiting team for a Cal home game should be made through the opposing school's football media relations contact. Credentials will be held at Media Will Call located in the Giants Executive Offices Lobby along Third Street adjacent to Giants Dugout Store and the O'Doul Gate the day of the game unless other arrangements are made.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking for Cal's 2011 home games at AT&T Park is at Pier 30-32 along The Embarcadero at the intersection with Bryant Street. The lot is about a 10-minute walk to AT&T Park. Pregame media shuttles will be provided starting two hours before kickoff and will travel in the reverse direction to the lot after eam game.

Media needing to drop off heavy equipment or pick up parking permits from Media Will Call may utitlize the pull-out area along 3rd Street adjacent to the O'Doul gate entrance to AT&T Park.

For media covering Cal football on campus during non-gamedays, paid parking is available adjacent to the team's practice facility at Witter Rugby Field in the Strawberry Canyon Surge Area parking lot just east of the venue on Centennial Boulevard on a first-come, first-served basis. The payment machine accepts only $1 and $5 bills. Additional two-hour free parking can often be found on the streets located south of Memorial Stadium. In addition, the Underhill Parking Garage located on College Avenue between Channing and Haste Street has paid parking available.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call, which will open four hours before kickoff, is located in the Giants Executive Offices Lobby along Third Street adjacent to the Giants Dugout Store and the O'Doul Gate. Identification is required to pick up credentials or tickets. Parking passes cannot be left at will call.

PHOTO REQUESTS

PHOTOGRAPHERS

PHOTOGRAPHER WORK AREA

A photographer work area will be set up just outside the visiting team locker room (visitor's clubhouse), complete with desk space, power and wireless internet access, as well as statistics, flip cards, a boxed lunch and drinks.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS

All player and coach interviews, either in person, by phone or via email, must be coordinated through Kyle McRae in the Cal Athletics Media Relations Office (510-219-9340, mcrae@berkeley.edu), preferably with a 24-hour advance notice. During the season, brief interviews can be conducted with players and coaches on the field immediately after practice on Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Only coaches are also available for interviews following Thursday's workout, while players and coaches are also available following each game (see details below). Players are generally unavailable for interviews on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays, while coaches are generally unavailable for interviews on Fridays. Requests for interviews outside normal interview times may be made via special arrangement through Kyle McRae.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Cal football will use the Media Interview Room on the lower level of AT&T Park. Cal head coach Jeff Tedford will be present to answer questions, followed by players requested by media members, in the Media Interview Room. Visiting team interviews will be in the "swing area" just inside the first-base dugout (accessible from the field or stadium lower level). Contact the visiting team media relations office for visiting team postgame policies.

POSTGAME MEDIA WORK AREA

Media may work in the press box following games, but are encouraged to use the media workroom located adjacent to the Cal locker room behind section CC for filing purposes. The media workroom is an enclosed area with desk space, electrical outlets and wireless internet access. Final statistical game books, as well as postgame notes, quotes and other relevant media materials will be available in the media workroom.

PRACTICE MEDIA COVERAGE

Cal is scheduled to practice on Sunday and Tuesday-Friday during the 2011 football season. Media may normally attend the first 20 minutes of each session other than the Friday walkthroughs and come back immediately following the conclusion of practice to conduct interviews unless noted otherwise. The entrance to the team's practice facility at Witter Rugby Field is located on the south side of Centennial Drive between the team's locker room and training room. Video and photography by media outlets are allowed under the supervision of a member of the Cal Athletics media relations staff for the first 20 minutes of all practices only. Upon arrival at the practice location, please contact Kyle McRae at (510) 219-9340 before you start photographing or filming practice. The only media members allowed on the field during practice are photographers and videographers for the first 20 minutes only. It is strongly suggested that media wishing to conduct post-practice interviews with head coach Jeff Tedford, as well as requested assistant coaches and players, return to the front of the team's locker room on Centennial Boulevard at least 30 minutes prior to the scheduled end of practice. When practice is over, a member of the media relations staff will escort media members onto the field to conduct post-practice interviews.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Professional teams wanting to scout games at AT&T Park may purchase game tickets through the Cal Athletics Media Relations Office by contacting Herb Benenson.

TELEPHONE LINES

VIDEO FEEDS

Video highlights of Cal football games are available throughout the season via the Pac-12 Conference satellite feed. For more information, contact the Pac-12 office at (925) 932-4411.

VISITING RADIO PHONE LINES

One MB line and one ISDN line, along with two dry lines in the visitor's locker room, are available for complimentary use by visiting radio.

WIRELESS ACCESS

Contact a member of the Cal Media Relations office on gameday to obtain a username and password. A local wireless network is also available in the photographer work area.

UPDATED INFO

Contact Kyle McRae to be placed on the Cal football media email list and receive relevant updated information regarding Cal football, including media schedules and policies, throughout the season.

TELEVISION/RADIO

THE FLAGSHIP STATION

KGO Newstalk AM 810 is entering its 38th season as the flagship station of University of California Golden Bears football. KGO Radio's 50,000 watts has been carrying Cal football since 1974. Led by play-by-play announcer Joe Starkey, KGO's signal, along with the other affiliates within the Cal IMG Radio Network, provides statewide coverage of Cal football. Each KGO broadcast begins 60 minutes before kickoff (live from Willie Mays Plaza at AT&T Park for home games). Then after all the action, the 60-minute postgame show hosted by Lee Grosscup and Kate Scott from The Decks at Mission Rock (home games) and Paragon inside the Claremont Hotel Club & Spa in Berkeley (away games) includes reaction from the Bears' locker room followed by a breakdown of the game live.

IN THE BOOTH

Joe Starkey, the legendary voice of the Bears, is in his 37th season with the Cal football broadcast team in 2011.

Joe Starkey

Cal's play-by-play man is perhaps best known for his legendary call of "The Play." The famous five-lateral kickoff return for a touchdown against Stanford in 1982 is part of college football lore with Starkey's emotional "the band is on the field" part of gridiron vernacular.

Starkey has had an array of NFL and NHL positions during his career, including a 20-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers he fulfilled in conjunction with his Cal duties from 1979-2008.

Troy Taylor

He is joined in the booth by former Cal quarterback Troy Taylor, in his seventh season as the Golden Bears' color analyst in 2011. Taylor, who played at Cal from 1986-89, still holds school records for career passing yards (8,126) and total offense (8,236), completing 58 percent of his passes with 51 career touchdown tosses. He was a member of the Cal coaching staff from 1996-99, working with the Bears' receivers, tight ends and quarterbacks.

Also in his seventh season on the broadcast team in 2011 is sideline reporter Todd McKim, who in addition serves as host of the weekly Cal Sports Report television program and Cal Coaches' Corner radio show. Before joining Cal, McKim was a long-time media member as a television anchor and sports director in Eugene, and was the 2000 Oregon broadcaster of the year.

XM SATELLITE RADIO

Fans can tune in to Cal football games on XM Satellite Radio, a corporate partner of the Pac-12 Conference. Visit CalBears.com for detailed broadcast information.

Todd McKim interviews head coach Jeff Tedford during a 2010 home contest.

CAL SPORTS REPORT

The Cal Sports Report is a weekly television show aired on Comcast SportsNet California. Host Todd McKim and reporter Francesca Weems will produce feature stories on Cal student-athletes and coaches, take a look at upcoming events, recap the previous week's action and introduce fans to other stories and events unique to Cal.

Each new edition of the show will air originally on Wednesdays at 5 p.m. (unless preempted by a live sports event) and be repeated several times each week throughout the football and basketball seasons. Visit CalBears.com for detailed broadcast information.

CAL COACHES' CORNER

The Cal Coaches' Corner will take to the air every Monday from the last week of August through March. The one-hour live program will be hosted by Todd McKim and broadcast from Paragon inside the Claremont Hotel Club & Spa Mondays from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. on KNEW (910 AM), beginning August 29 and continuing through the Monday following the end of men's basketball season. Head coach Jeff Tedford will be interviewed regularly throughout the football season, while men's basketball head coach Mike Montgomery and women's hoops head coach Lindsay Gottlieb will be interviewed during their respective seasons. Additional guests will include other Cal coaches and student-athletes, as well as regular appearances by Director of Athletics Sandy Barbour.

TELEVISION

Comcast SportsNet California is the local television home of Cal Athletics. The weekly Cal Sports Report and a minimum of eight live events will air annually on CSN California.

Cal Athletics events are also televised on a wide array of other networks. Visit CalBears.com for updated television information.

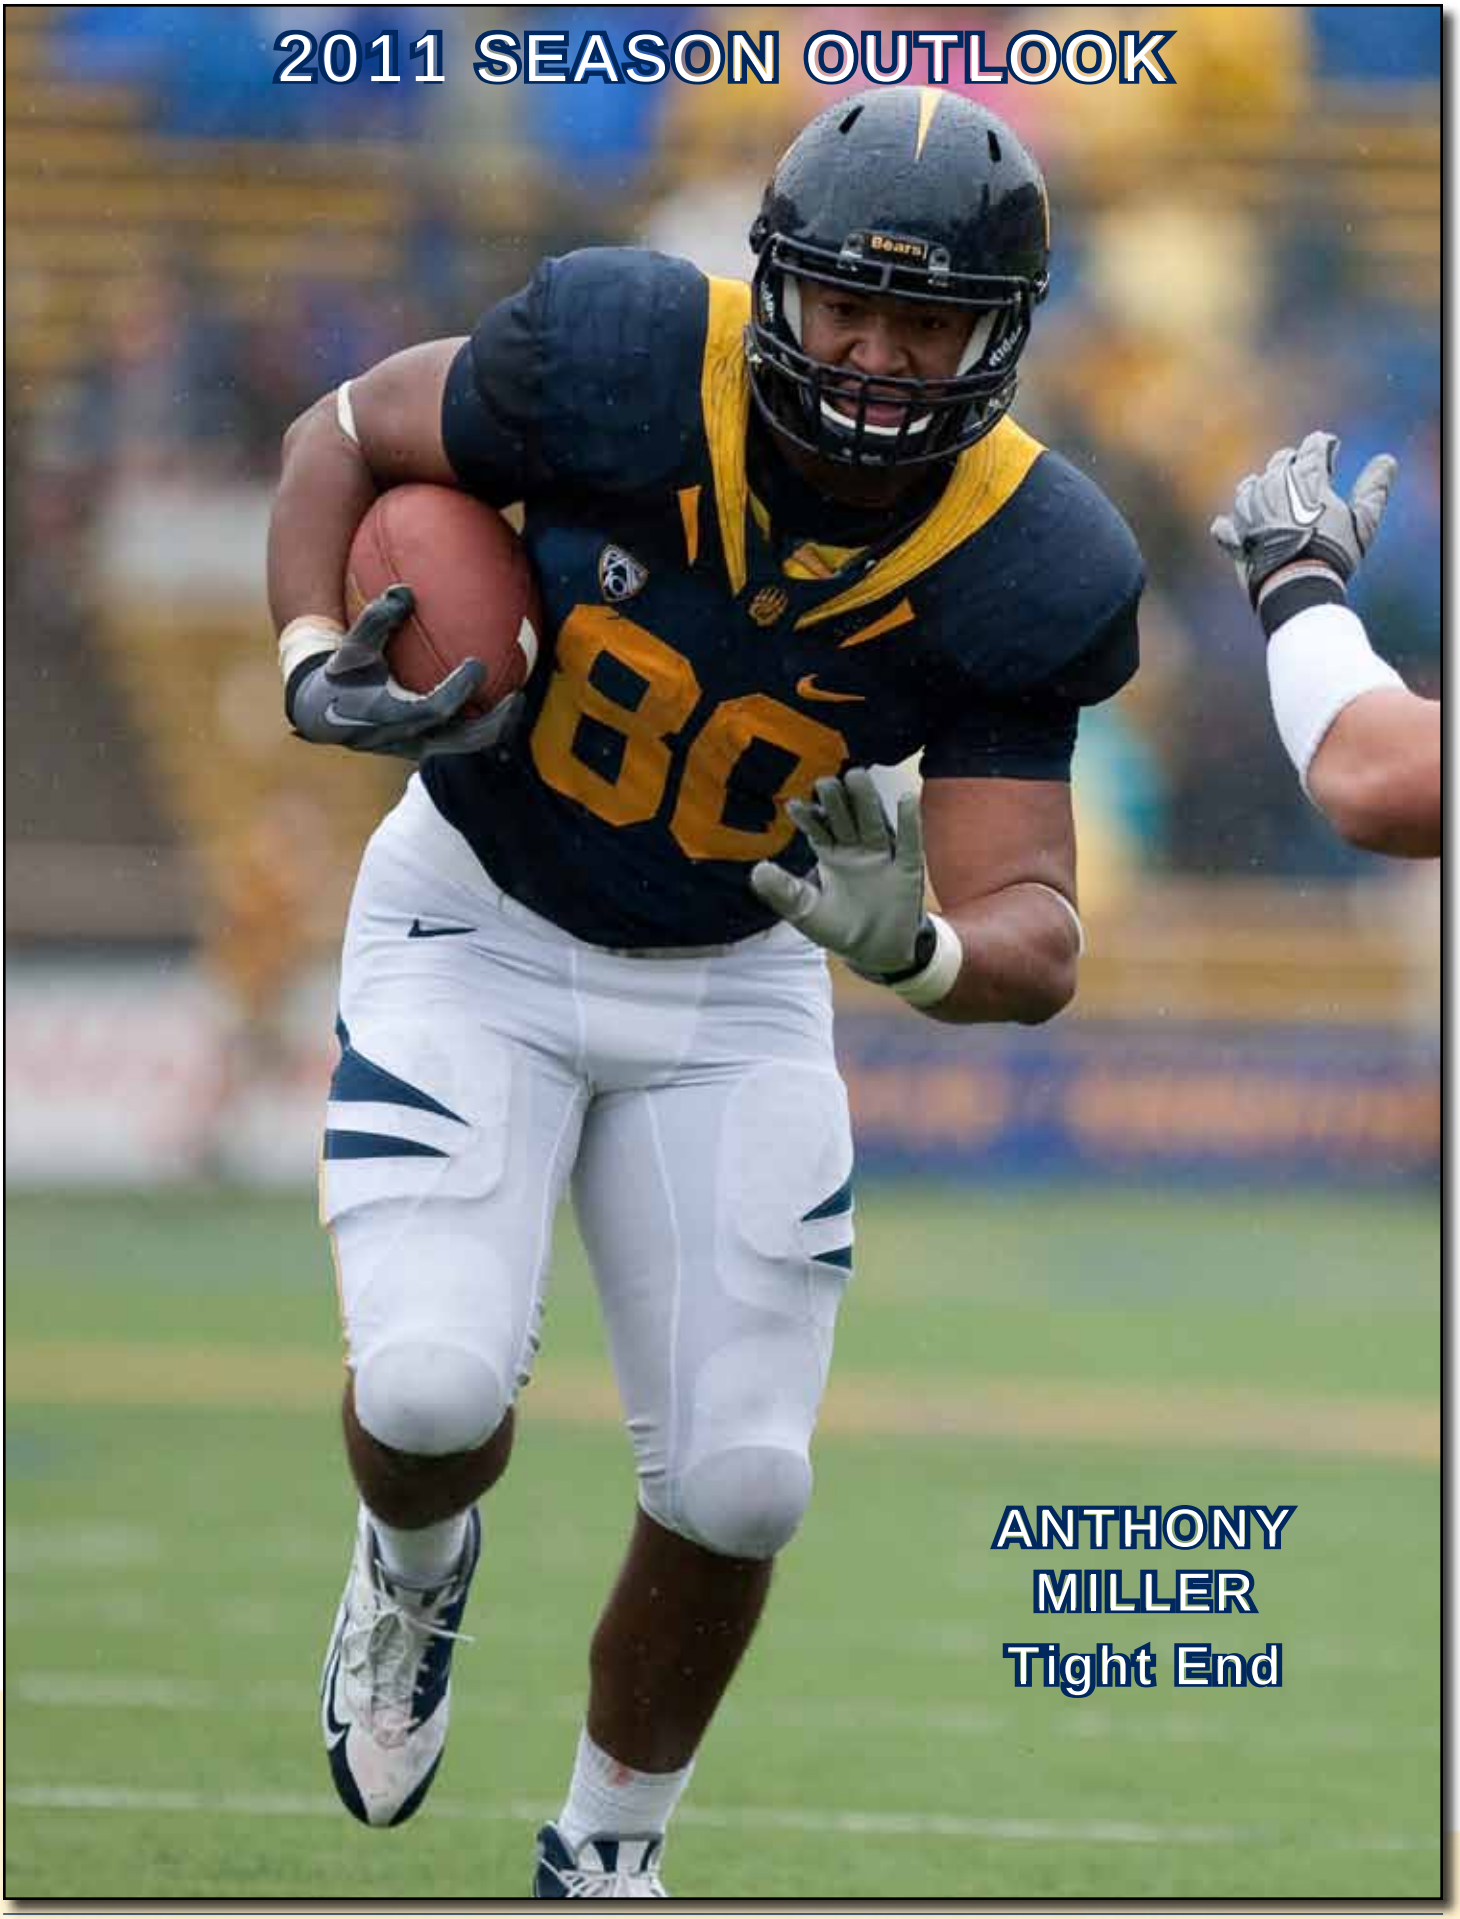
2011 SEASON OUTLOOK



ANTHONY MILLER
Tight End

2011 SEASON OUTLOOK

Sean Cattouse, Mychal Kendricks, Bryan Anger and Mitchell Schwartz have all earned preseason All-American honors in 2011.

Head coach Jeff Tedford emphasizes that the key for his 2011 California football team is to play together. If the Golden Bears accomplish that, Tedford believes everything else will fall into place for a program that over the past decade has established itself as one of the best in the Pac-12 and often times the nation. During that period, Cal has played in a school-record seven consecutive bowl games (2003-09) and compiled a school-record-tying eight consecutive winning campaigns (2002-09) before missing both marks in 2010.

"I think that if we play together, we will have a very good football team, and I underline team," Tedford said. "If we believe in each other, play hard and play disciplined, we have a chance to win every game that we're in."

The Bears' 2011 roster features 20 players with significant experience as a collegiate starter, including four that have earned at least one 2011 preseason All-American honor in Bryan Anger (Sr., P), Sean Cattouse (Sr., DB), Mychal Kendricks (Sr., LB) and Mitchell Schwartz (Sr., OL).

A total of nine Bears have been bestowed with preseason All-Pac-12 honors, with the All-American foursome being joined by Keenan Allen (So., WR), Trevor Guyton (Sr., DL), D.J. Holt (Sr., LB), Marvin Jones (Sr., WR) and Giorgio Tavecchio (Sr., PK).

Cal will be an experienced group with 14 of the 26 positions on the team's preseason two-deep occupied by seniors and another eight manned by juniors.

Buffalo transfer Zach Maynard and Isi Sofele, both juniors, moved into the starting quarterback and tailback roles last spring. Tedford also learned a tremendous amount about a solid core of younger players during spring workouts that were members of back-to-back recruiting classes the last two years that have been ranked as high as No. 11 and No. 14 nationally, including early entrees from 2011 class. Many are expected to challenge the veterans for playing time in 2011.

"There were a lot of new players in spring ball," acknowledged Tedford, who was named the Pac-12's top recruiter prior to the 2011 season by Sporting News. "Spring ball is a time you try to evaluate a lot of different players. I think we found out about a lot of people, and really got some of the young guys incorporated into what we're doing."

"In recruiting, we really focus on the whole person, not just a great athlete, but also a quality student and person to be a part of our team and family here at Cal," Tedford added. "Recruiting is a team effort and our philosophy is to saturate the Northern California market and try to keep as many local kids as we can home, then really to search for the right fit of person that's going to fit into our program and be successful here."

The mix of veterans and young players will be coached by an experienced staff that is led by the longest-tenured head coach in the Pac-12 in Tedford, who begins his 10th season at the helm of the Bears, two victories shy of the school's all-time record for wins.

His 2011 staff on the offensive side of the ball features two coaches returning for their second stints at Cal that were part of the team's successful run during much of the last decade in Jim Michalczik (offensive coordinator/offensive line) and Eric Kiesau (passing game coordinator/wide receivers). Veteran running backs coach Ron Gould was promoted to run game coordinator in the offseason and is in his 15th campaign at Cal in 2011. He is also the associate head coach. Second-year tight ends coach Jeff Genyk and first-year quarterbacks coach Marcus Arroyo will join the veteran group in preparing the team's offensive game plan.

"It kind of feels like the band is back together," Tedford said with a laugh. "It's a real luxury to have the knowledge and experience of the guys that have been here a long time on the offensive staff. It makes the preparation and the planning enjoyable because they understand the foundation of what we're trying to accomplish on offense. We're not in a situation where we have to explain terminology. We all have a comfort level with the things that have been successful here. We speak the same language and have a lot of experience together to draw from."

The defensive coaching staff is led by former NFL and Super Bowl coordinator Clancy Pendergast, now in his second season in the role at Cal. Tosh Lupoi (defensive line) and Kenwick Thompson (linebackers) also return to a group that coached the Bears' 2010 defense to Pac-10-leading numbers in total defense, pass defense and sacks. Ashley Ambrose (defensive backs) is in his first season as part of the team's defensive staff.

Genyk is also Cal's special teams coordinator, where in his first season in 2010 the Bears improved in all three phases of special teams to No. 19 nationally in net punting (38.51 avg.), No. 23 in punt returns (12.16 ypr) and No. 72 in kick returns (21.3 ypr). Anger broke a 23-year-old single-season school record by averaging 45.6 yards per punt and Tavecchio had by far his best collegiate campaign as he emerged as the team's full-time starting placekicker.

The Bears will play in the North Division in the first season of the Pac-12, newly aligned with six teams in each of the league's two divisions. Cal will be joined in the North by Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and Washington State. The South Division will feature Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, UCLA, USC and Utah. The winners of each division will meet in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game to be played at the home of the team with the league's best record on Friday, Dec. 2.

"It's obviously something new," Tedford said. "It will be exciting as we go down the stretch to see how the conference championship format plays out in the first year. I think it is going to be something everyone is looking forward to."

The team will also partake in something new by playing its 2011 home schedule outside of Berkeley for the first time in school history as the club's five home games will be contested at San Francisco's AT&T Park while Memorial Stadium undergoes an extensive renovation and retrofit before reopening in 2012.

"Playing at AT&T Park will be a little bit new to us, but it will definitely be new to our opponents," Tedford offered. "Our fans enjoyed the experience a great deal when we won the bowl game there in 2008. Every fan that I've talked to that attended that bowl game really enjoyed the experience. I believe our fans will fill the seats and create a lot of positive energy in that stadium. Everybody's going to enjoy the experience there and we're looking forward to playing there for a year."

Cal's schedule at AT&T Park includes the Sept. 17 home-opener vs. Presbyterian, a highly anticipated Thursday night ESPN national telecast against USC (Oct. 13), and games against new Pac-12 foe Utah (Oct. 22), Washington State (Nov. 5) and Oregon State (Nov. 12).

Cal will open the 2011 season on Sept. 3 in the TicketCity Battle by the Bay against Fresno State in a neutral-site game at San Francisco's Candlestick Park to be televised by Comcast SportsNet California.

The Bears will play seven road games, starting with a non-conference contest at incoming Pac-12 member Colorado on Sept. 10. After their home opener, the Bears travel to Washington (Sept. 24). After a bye week. Cal will head back north to face Oregon (Oct. 6) in Eugene, where they will play the first of two back-to-back Thursday night nationally televised ESPN games. Only one more road game will be on the Bears' schedule over the next month and a half at UCLA on Oct. 29. The Bears conclude their regular season with a pair of road contests in the 114th Big Game at Stanford (Nov. 19) and another ESPN national telecast at Arizona State on Friday, Nov. 25.

"Every game you play in our conference is going to be competitive," Tedford said. "There's no question that you have to bring your 'A' game every week if you're going to be successful. We also have a challenging non-conference schedule, with a road game at Colorado and the neutral-site contest against Fresno State, which has a great program and has always proven to be a strong competitor no matter who it plays."

Additional television broadcast dates are expected to be announced at a later date.

The following is a position-by-position look at the Bears heading into the 2011 campaign.

OFFENSE

Cal may have new starters at both the quarterback and tailback positions, but a host of veteran players return at all several other offensive positions with seven starters returning.

"The strength of our offense should be in the playmakers we have on the outside, plus I think our offensive line will be very good," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "They will be athletic and physical enough to both protect the passer and allow us to run the football. We are eager to see the production we will get from the quarterback and tailback positions. There may be a lack of gameday experience at those spots, but I feel comfortable and confident that the ability is there. Now, it's just a matter of them performing on gameday."

The offensive coaching staff has been revamped in 2011, including a vow by Tedford to return to a more prominent role in the day-to-day planning as well as play-calling, and the return to the staff of Jim Michalczik (offensive coordinator/offensive line) and Eric Kiesau (passing game coordinator/wide receivers) after stints as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator with the Oakland Raiders and Colorado, respectively.

Zach Maynard

Much of the focus in the offseason has been on the team's quarterback position. Head coach Jeff Tedford gave his answer a couple of weeks after the end of spring football practice when he named Zach Maynard the starter heading into the training camp. Maynard, who transferred to Cal from Buffalo, entered the team's 2011 spring practice sessions in a five-way battle for the starting job that was quickly pared down to a three-way competition with Brock Mansion and Allan Bridgford. Maynard, who sat out the 2010 season due to the NCAA's transfer rule, took most of the first-team snaps in spring ball and showed the skills that made him Buffalo's starter as a sophomore in 2009 when he completed 218-of-379 (57.5%) passes for 2,694 yards and 15 touchdowns. He also is a threat to run as evidenced by the 300 yards and one touchdown he rushed for on 87 carries during his single season as Buffalo's starter. Athlon listed him among the nation's top transfers, while Lindy's called him Cal's top newcomer in their respective preseason publications.

"I was very pleased with what Zach did in the spring in both his knowledge of the game and his understanding of the offense," Tedford said. "He's a very good passer and can throw all of the balls on the field, plus he brings an added dimension with his athleticism and ability to run."

Although Maynard will begin camp as the starter, Mansion and Bridgford are both listed at No. 2 on the team's preseason depth chart and will continue to compete with him for the starting role. Mansion has the most collegiate experience, having started four games when third-year starter Kevin Riley suffered a season-ending injury with a month to go in the 2010 campaign. Bridgford has not played a down in his first two seasons at Cal but led the nation with 3,158 passing yards as a high school senior in 2008.

"There will continue to be a very strong competition with all three of them," Tedford noted.

Whoever ends up as the team's top quarterback will be Cal's first new starter since 2008, replacing Riley after he posted career totals of 468-of-844 (55.5%) passing for 6,182 yards, with 50 touchdowns in 36 games played and 31 starts, ranking among the school's all-time passing leaders in nearly every category.

Tedford, who has developed six quarterbacks selected in the first round of the NFL Draft during his collegiate coaching career, also plans a return to working with the quarterbacks on a daily basis along with first-year quarterbacks coach Marcus Arroyo.

"Coach Arroyo does a great job of communicating with our players," Tedford said. "He understands what he's doing and what it takes to be a productive quarterback. He's very detailed and prepared, and I have confidence that we will work great together in preparing our quarterbacks. He's young and enthusiastic, but also has more than a decade of experience coaching and playing the position at the collegiate level."

Cal is in a scenario it has not been in for a long time at the tailback position without a veteran with extensive playing time returning for the 2011 campaign. The Bears have successfully employed a two-tailback rotation in recent years and 2010 backup Isi Sofele is expected to step into the starting role, but was more limited last year than most of the team's No. 2 tailbacks have been in recent history, rushing for 338 yards on 69 carries as the backup to workhorse Shane Vereen.

Sofele's contribution to the team's rushing total managed to extend the Bears' string of having two running backs combine for 1,500 yards or more to eight consecutive years. But in most seasons the yardage between the top two backs has been more balanced than it was in 2010 when Vereen provided the bulk of it with his career-high 1,167 yards.

"Isi Sofele will go into camp as the No. 1 tailback," Tedford said. "But there's a host of people behind him that will be pushing for significant playing time. Training camp is going to dictate just who those guys are."

Some might be true freshmen.

The Bears incoming class of running backs led by Brendan Bigelow and Daniel Lasco has been ranked as high as No. 3 nationally by Lindy's in the preseason.

Bigelow sat out his senior prep campaign in 2010 with an injury after a dynamic season as a junior when he rushed for 1,000 yards and 14 touchdowns on only 87 carries. He has been rated as high as No. 11 nationally among freshman tailbacks and is considered Cal's No. 2 recruit overall by Sporting News.

Lasco rushed for 3,821 yards and 43 touchdowns over three prep campaigns. He was rated the No. 13 tailback nationally in the 2011 class by Tom Lemming.

"We're going to count on some of the young guys coming in to contribute at that position," Tedford said.

The top returnee after Sofele is Covaughn DeBoskie-Johnson, who heads into the 2011 campaign listed second on the depth chart after contributing a combined 281 rushing yards and one touchdown over the last two seasons at Cal.

Junior college transfer Mike Manuel enrolled at Cal in January of 2011 and made a strong impression during the team's spring workouts.

The group of inexperienced backs will have the advantage of learning from the team's most experienced coach in Ron Gould, who is in his 15th season working with the Bears' running backs in 2011.

"Coach Gould has been here a long time and has done a great job of producing big-time running backs, not just with their talent but with their knowledge and fundamentals of the game," Tedford said. "He always does a really nice job of developing the whole player, not just a runner but a pass protector and a receiver. It will be a challenge for him this year because we are going in with people that don't have a lot of experience, but if anyone's up to that challenge it is coach Gould. I have tremendous confidence in his ability to prepare the players that are on the field."

Gould will have a veteran group of fullbacks to work with in projected junior starter Eric Stevens and senior backups Will Kapp and John Tyndall.

"The fullback position is one of experience for us," Tedford said. "We have three guys that we can rotate in that have all done a nice job. They can block and catch, that's really what they do."

The group of Bears' wide receivers is expected to be led by returning starters and national honors candidates Keenan Allen and Marvin Jones.

Marvin Jones

"I feel like the receivers are one of the strengths of our offense," Tedford said.

In addition to his play on the field, Jones is expected to provide veteran leadership in his final season at Cal. He has been the team's leader in both receptions and receiving yards the last two seasons and has career totals of 94 receptions for 1,424 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns in his first three campaigns. Jones has an opportunity to finish his career on Cal's career top-10 list in all three categories.

Allen, a fourth-team freshman All-American in 2010 according to Phil Steele, is coming off a record-setting rookie collegiate campaign in which he broke DeSean Jackson's single-season Cal freshman record with 46 receptions for 490 yards and a team-high five touchdowns. He made quite an impression in his first collegiate contest against UC Davis when he caught four passes for 120 yards, including a 48-yard touchdown, and also ran for another score.

Michael Calvin, Kaelin Clay and Coleman Edmond all are also expected to see significant action at the position.

Keenan Allen

Maurice Harris, who is listed as high as the nation's No. 25 wide receiver recruit by Athlon, is the team's top newcomer at wide receiver. He put together back-to-back seasons of over 1,000 yards receiving in his final two prep campaigns.

The group will be coached by passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach Eric Kiesau, who returns for his second stint on the Bears' staff after a successful four-year run from 2002-05 in which he coached the likes of some of the top receivers in Cal history in Jackson, Lavelle Hawkins, Robert Jordan and Geoff McArthur.

"We're excited to have Eric rejoin the Cal football family," Tedford said. "He did a tremendous job in all aspects of coaching our wide receivers during his first stint at Cal, and he understands what we expect of both our coaches and players. Eric has a strong work ethic, and is an excellent teacher of the wide receiver position and all aspects of the game of football. He is someone that will do a great job with the receivers, both conceptually and with technique."

Cal's tight end group has the luxury of being led by one of the best players at the position in the Pac-12 and arguably the nation in Anthony Miller, a threat both as a receiver and an outstanding blocker in the run game. The John Mackey Award Watch List candidate for the honor given annually to the nation's top tight end had his biggest statistical year as a sophomore in 2009 when he tallied 26 receptions for 357 yards to rank third on the team in both categories to pick up an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection.

"Anthony is a versatile tight end who is very physical at the point of attack in the run game and is also a big threat down the field with his receiving skills," Tedford said. "We look for him to be a leader in our offense this season."

Spencer Ladner is the top backup and will see plenty of action spelling Miller and on two-tight end sets. Richard Rodgers is the top newcomer and ranked No. 26 by Phil Steele among the nation's incoming tight ends.

Jeff Genyk is in his second season as the group's position coach.

"Coach Genyk does a good job of teaching the schematics of what we're trying to get done on offense as well as the fundamental play of the tight ends as well-rounded players at the line of scrimmage in the run game and the pass game," Tedford said.

Mitchell Schwartz

Brian Schwenke

The Bears' 2011 offensive line features several players with a significant amount of experience as five members of the group have combined to make 85 collegiate starts in Mitchell Schwartz (38), Justin Cheadle (22), Brian Schwenke (12), Matt Summers-Gavin (12) and Dominic Galas (1).

"The offensive line should be very solid," Tedford said. "We're fortunate to have several guys who have played quite a few snaps there. Mitchell Schwartz brings a wealth of experience and is the leader of that group. We also have some other guys that should push for playing time. Our goal is going to be to create the chemistry of the top eight to nine."

Schwartz, who has not missed a start in the last three seasons, is a 2011 third-team preseason All-American according to GoDaddy.com and a national honors candidate who was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection as a junior a year ago when he anchored a line that paved the way for 1,167-yard rusher Shane Vereen. He is expected to man the left tackle position.

Schwenke started all 12 games in 2010, playing the first eight at left guard before moving to right guard for the final four. He is slated to return to left guard in 2011.

Cheadle was a second-team midseason All-Pac-10 choice of Phil Steele in 2010 and started the first eight contests of the year at right guard, where he begins the 2011 campaign as the starter.

Summers-Gavin started the final four contests of 2010 at left guard, replacing Cheadle as a starter, after coming off the bench in his first seven contests following an injury suffered on the first day of training camp that forced him to miss the season opener and knocked him out of the starting lineup until late in the year. He also started eight times at left guard as a 2009 freshman, with Cal sporting a 7-1 record in those contests as he earned second-team Freshman All-American recognition from Rivals and a third-team nod by Steele.

Galas has seen action in all 25 games over his first two seasons, mostly on special teams, and is slated to replace the departed Chris Guarnero as the team's starting center. He started one game at the position in 2010 when he filled in for an injured Guarnero against UCLA.

Other players most likely to crack into the rotation include Alejandro Crosthwaite, Tyler Rigsbee and Bill Tyndall.

Jim Michalczik returns to coach the offensive linemen in addition to his role as offensive coordinator. Michalczik spent the last two seasons in the NFL with the Oakland Raiders after having been at Cal for seven seasons the first time around from 2002-08.

"Coach Michalczik does a great job not only with run schemes but is a very good technician," Tedford said. "He has always built toughness in an offensive line that is fundamentally sound. We welcome him back to continue where he left off when he was here before. He had a lot of success in previous years. We're relying on him to not only guide the guys with experience but to be a mentor to the young players and bring them along so they can contribute as well."

DEFENSE

Cal has plenty of reason to be optimistic on defense after the performance of a 2010 unit that led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21) in its first season under defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast.

The Bears were also first in the Pac-10 in 2010 in first downs allowed (217) and second in opponents' third-down conversion percentage (34.7%). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense, which held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games, were both third in the Pac-10 as well as 31st and 40th nationally. Cal was fifth in the Pac-10 and 35th nationally in rushing defense in 2010 and significantly better in nearly every major defensive team category compared to 2009 when the Bears were seventh in the Pac-10 and No. 72 nationally in total defense (378.85 ypg).

"Clancy will continue to gain a better and better feel for the college game and how each week you have different offensive approaches by your opponents," Tedford said. "He has done a great job of teaching the entire defense what we're trying to get done, keeping the terminology simple but still being very multiple. I think our guys have really gravitated towards his knowledge and leadership."

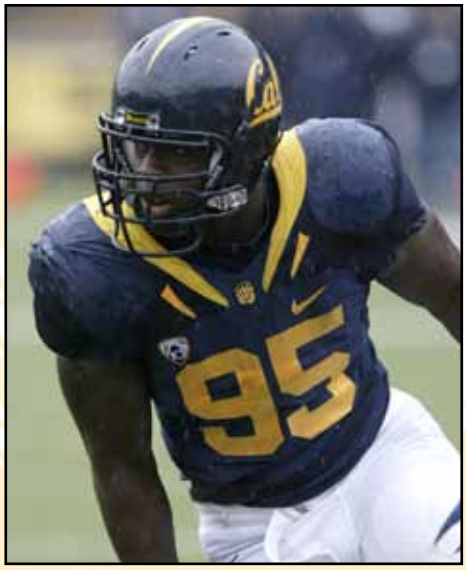
Cal will need to replace some key components from the defense of a year ago with the departure of 2011 NFL Draft picks Cameron Jordan, Chris Conte and Mike Mohamed.

Preseason All-American seniors Sean Cattouse (Sporting News, third team) and Mychal Kendricks (GoDaddy.com, honorable mention) are the leaders of that movement.

In addition to its returning veterans, Cal has recruited what should be an extraordinary freshman class on the defensive side of the ball including five members – Jason Gibson, Stefan McClure, Viliami Moala, Brennan Scarlett and Avery Walls – that were selected for the U.S. Army All-American Bowl and another – Todd Barr – that played in the equally prestigious Under Armour All-America Game.

Matt Summers-Gavin

Trevor Guyton



Ernest Owusu

"As of now, without having seen them on the field yet at this level, this is probably the most balanced group of guys who have the ability to contribute early," Tedford said. "They're going to have to make the transition from high school to college, but I think they all have the potential to do that."

Cal should be both strong and deep on the defensive line despite the departure of back-to-back NFL first-round draft picks in each of the last two years in Tyson Alualu and Cameron Jordan.

Seniors Trevor Guyton and Ernest Owusu step into the top spots on the depth chart at the two defensive end spots but are expected to be challenged for playing time quickly by a bevy of young players including Todd Barr, Deandre Coleman, Gabe King, Puka Lopa and Brennan Scarlett.

Coleman and King are currently the backups to Guyton and Owusu and certainly expect to see ample playing time, but true freshmen Barr, Lopa and Scarlett are all part of a group that ranks as high as second in the Pac-12 for incoming defensive linemen by Phil Steele.

Barr and Scarlett come to Cal ranking No. 16 and No. 23 according to Steele among the nation's incoming defensive ends, respectively, while Sporting News has Scarlett as Cal's top newcomer. Lopa is also expected to challenge for playing time.

At nose guard, the Bears feature a pair of veterans who have seen significant action in Aaron Tipoti and Kendrick Payne as well as five-star recruit and prep All-American Viliami Moala.

Tipoti and Payne have each started four games at the position over the last two years filling in for graduated starter Derrick Hill. Tipoti will head into 2011 training camp listed on top of the depth chart, but both players will seemingly have to share playing time with Moala, who is ranked as high as the nation's No. 8 defensive tackle according to Lindy's.

Austin Clark and Keni Kaufusi could also be factors at the nose after receiving ample playing time in the spring when both Payne and Tipoti missed significant time with injuries.

"It's important to have depth on the defensive line," Tedford said. "It's great to be able to substitute and keep people fresh and not have a great deal of falloff when you change personnel. I think this year's freshman class is one of the better groups as a whole that we've had on the defensive line. I'm really anxious to see how they perform. They all have the capability of making a strong impact this year."

The defensive line is coached by Tosh Lupoi, who begins his fourth season in the role and his 12th associated with Cal football as a player, coach or member of the team's football staff.

"Tosh has done a nice job of developing our defensive line," Tedford said. "He brings a lot of energy and passion to what we do on defense. I think he has become a very good schematic coach and has done a real nice job fundamentally with preparing these guys to play."

Mychal Kendricks

Cal looks to have two seniors in Mychal Kendricks and D.J. Holt step up and accept the challenge of replacing graduated linebacker Mike Mohamed, who has been the Bears' leading tackler the last two seasons and also paced the Pac-10 as a junior 2009. Kendricks will move from his previous spot on the outside to take Mohamed's inside position joining Holt in the middle.

Kendricks has been receiving significant national recognition in the preseason as an honorable mention All-America choice of GoDaddy.com, and as a member of watch lists for the Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, College Football Performance Awards Linebacker Trophy, Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Rotary Lombardi Award. He is a first-team preseason All-Pac-12 selection of Athlon, Lindy's and Phil Steele.

Kendricks is coming off a breakout junior year in which he earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors as one of the top big-play players in the league. He led Cal while ranking among the per-game conference and national leaders with 8.5 sacks (0.71 per game, No. 2 Pac-10, No. 26-T NCAA) and 15.0 tackles for loss (1.25 per game, No. 4 Pac-10, No. 28-T NCAA). He also tied for first in the conference with three fumble recoveries (0.25 per game), while his 66 tackles were fourth on the team.

Holt put up strong numbers in his first season as a full-time starter in 2010 after seeing part-time action as a starter in 2009. He ranked second on the club last year behind Mohamed with 85 tackles and paced the squad with three forced fumbles (0.25 per game, No. 4-T Pac-10).

"Mychal Kendricks and D.J. Holt have played a lot of games for us," Tedford said. "They understand the game and have a great feel for what we're doing as far as a defensive scheme is concerned. They are also very fast and physical players. I think we will be solid at that position."

Steven Fanua and Nick Forbes will start the season as the team's backups at the two inside spots.

The team's outside linebackers will be much less experienced, but certainly not short on talent.

Ryan Davis and David Wilkerson begin the campaign as starters after both received limited playing time in 2010. Greyshirt freshmen Cecil Whiteside and Chris McCain, both members of Cal's highly-touted linebacker group from the 2010 recruiting class, should also see action. Whiteside, who was ranked as high as the nation's No. 4 linebacker by both Rivals and Scout when he signed with Cal, was particularly impressive during spring workouts.

Incoming freshmen Jason Gibson and Jalen Jefferson could also contribute in their first collegiate seasons. Gibson, who is touted as the nation's No. 17 freshman linebacker by Steele, played in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl following his final prep season. Jefferson was a second-team All-State choice.

"Some of our young linebackers are very talented and should be strong contributors this year," Tedford said. "We have some gifted athletes at that position."

Kenwick Thompson is in his fifth season coaching the group that has featured at least the top two tacklers on the team in each of the past three seasons.

"A coach at that position needs to understand the front end of the defense as well as the back end," explained Tedford. "Kenwick does a great job of communicating with the players, and gets them to play hard and understand what they're doing. I have no doubt that this group of linebackers will play very well under his leadership. He always does a fine job of putting our linebackers in position to be successful and makes sure they understand what they're doing so they can play fast."

Third-team preseason All-American Sean Cattouse is expected to be the vocal leader of Cal's defensive backfield in 2011. Cattouse will move over to the free safety position from the strong safety spot he manned in 2010 following the departure to the NFL of Chris Conte. Cattouse is Cal's active leader in both career interceptions (5) and pass breakups (15) as well as third in tackles (109). He has been an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection the past two seasons. Last year, he had career highs of 59 tackles and seven pass breakups, with the latter also leading the team.

D.J. Campbell will look to take over the free safety spot previously occupied by Cattouse. He has played in 33 games over the last three seasons primarily on special teams and as a reserve safety, but did make his first collegiate start last season and also came up with career highs of 21 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and two pass breakups.

"We have two seniors that have played quite a bit at safety and both had a really good spring," Tedford said. "It's critical that the safeties understand what we're trying to get done on defense and I think they have both learned it."

Michael Coley, Alex Logan and C.J. Moncrease could also see playing time at safety.

The Bears have a pair of cornerbacks returning that saw significant action in 2010 in Marc Anthony and Steve Williams.

Anthony totaled 48 tackles and a pair of interceptions while starting 11 of 12 games in 2010, and is Phil Steele's No. 34 draft-eligible cornerback heading into the 2011 campaign.

Williams played in all 12 games and started three times in 2010. He had 26 tackles and an interception, and was named Cal's Most Valuable Freshman on defense.

"We have a couple of guys that gained quite a bit of experience playing corner last year and also did a nice job in the spring," Tedford said. "I think they're much more comfortable with their recent experience."

Josh Hill also figures to be in the mix both at cornerback and nickelback, and is arguably the team's most experienced defensive back other than Cattouse. Hill has played in 23 games with 14 starts over the last two seasons and posted 78 tackles along with a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, two interceptions and 10 pass breakups.

In addition to the returnees in the defensive backfield, Cal has several newcomers that could contribute early in their collegiate careers, with cornerbacks Kameron Jackson, Stefan McClure and Joel Willis, and safety Avery Walls high on that list. Walls and McClure are the most decorated, ranking as the nation's No. 17 and No. 18 defensive back recruits, respectively, by Athlon. Both played in the prestigious U.S. Army All-American Bowl following their senior season in high school.

"We are really going to rely on some of the young guys coming in," Tedford said. "We have some gifted players that I'm sure are going to play a significant role in the defensive backfield."

The defensive backs will work with first-year coach and former NFL standout Ashley Ambrose, who spent 13 seasons in the league and is in his fifth campaign in the coaching profession.

"Ashley brings a lot of credibility to the position being an NFL player himself," Tedford said. "When he talks to players about fundamentals, confidence and the way to play that position, they have a great deal of respect for him. He's brought a lot of energy to that position and I'm looking forward to our players learning a lot from him."

Bryan Anger

SPECIALISTS/ SPECIAL TEAMS

Cal looks to be experienced once again as all of the team's starting specialists return for a second consecutive season. Punter Bryan Anger, placekicker Giorgio Tavecchio and holder Brock Mansion provide senior leadership, while Matt Rios returns for his third season as the long snapper.

The Bears will look to continue the improvements they showed in 2010 under first-year special teams coordinator Jeff Geynk when Cal improved 11 spots to No. 19 nationally in net punting (38.51 avg.), a single position to No. 23 in punt returns (12.16 ypr) and 24 places to No. 72 in kick returns (21.3 ypr).

Camarillo, CA/Camarillo HS
45 – Jed Barnett, 6-2, 215, Fr.*, RS

Bryan Anger is one of the nation's best punters and is again expected to make a run for the coveted Ray Guy Award. He's been a semifinalist twice and is coming off a 2010 campaign in which he broke a 23-year-old single-season school record by averaging 45.6 yards per punt to rank second in the Pac-10 and sixth nationally. He is only the second Cal punter, along with Nick Harris, to have ever earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors in two consecutive seasons (2009, '10). Anger has a 43.3 career average that is second on the school's all-time list with an opportunity to make a run at Scott Tabor's school record of 44.0 (1996-97).

"Bryan Anger is deservedly a preseason candidate for a lot of awards," Tedford said. "He's a guy that can affect the game with field position. We're fortunate to have one of the best punters in America. He is always a great weapon, and I feel like he'll be even better this year as a senior."

PLACEKICKERS (3)

Lake Forest, CA/El Toro HS
40 – Giorgio Tavecchio, 5-10, 178, Sr., 3L
Moraga, CA/Campolindo HS

A fourth-team preseason All-Pac-10 choice of Phil Steele, Giorgio Tavecchio established himself as the team's full-time starter in 2010. He is Cal's active career leader in scoring with 160 points, making 28-of-41 (68.2%) field goal attempts and 76-of-78 (97.4%) extra-point tries.

Tavecchio had some excellent moments in 2010 when he was second on the club with a career-high 70 points (11-16 FG, 37-39 PAT), including a single-game career-high 14 points against Arizona State and a career-long 53-yard field goal vs. Washington. He also made a tremendous improvement in kickoffs, averaging 64.8 yards per kick (6.7 yards better than his 2009 average). But he also had some rough patches, including a false start penalty and subsequent missed 34-yard field goal in the fourth quarter of a 15-13 loss to No. 1 Oregon and a missed 33-yarder late in the game at Arizona that opened an opportunity for the Wildcats to steal a 10-9 victory by driving for a touchdown on the ensuing drive.

Vincenzo D'Amato shared the kicking duties with Tavecchio as a true freshman and could be back in the mix after playing in just one game in 2010. D'Amato scored 52 points in 2009, connecting on 7-of-12 field goals and all 31 of his extra-point tries. He booted a career-long 47-yarder for Cal's only points at Oregon.

"The kicking position is going to be competitive," Tedford stated. "Tavecchio will be the guy going into camp that will get the first shot. He's gained a lot of strength, knowledge and poise through the experience he's had over the last couple of years. He'll go in with a lot of mental toughness."

LONG SNAPPERS (4)

83 – Cary Kriegsman, 5-10, 198, Fr.*, RS
Pacific Palisades, CA/Loyola HS
86 – Brandon Madueño, 6-0, 225, So.*, SQ

Phoenix, AZ/North Canyon HS
69 – John Sheperdson, 6-3, 225, Fr., HS
Danville, CA/San Ramon Valley HS

Matt Rios has a clear cut track on the starting long snapper role after making all of the team's long snaps for the past two seasons without yet being tagged with a bad snap.

"Long snappers are generally overlooked until you don't have one," Tedford said. "Matt is a guy that has been very consistent for us and has allowed us to be successful in the kicking game. We can always count on a quality and consistent snap, whether it be with field goals, extra points or in the punt game."

Matt Rios

RETURNERS

The specific players in the team's return game have yet to be determined, but the Bears will need to find a way to replace their top returner from a year ago in Jeremy Ross, who led the club with an average of 12.7 yards per punt return and was third on the team with an average of 21.6 yards per kick return.

Keenan Allen could end up a major factor on both returns. Last year, Allen led the Bears with 18 kick returns for 406 yards and an average of 22.6 yards per return that was second on the club behind Coleman Edmond's mark of 24.8.

Edmond along with fellow wide receivers Marvin Jones and Kaelin Clay joined Allen in the return game during the spring. Tailbacks Mike Manuel and Isi Sofele, as well as defensive back Avery Walls are other possibilities. Sofele has the most experience returning kicks, bringing 22 back for 442 yards over his first two seasons, but would probably play a limited role at best if he remains the team's starting tailback.

"We have a lot of skill position players that can handle the return game," Tedford said. "We'll continue to incorporate them into those roles during training camp."

JEFF TEDFORD

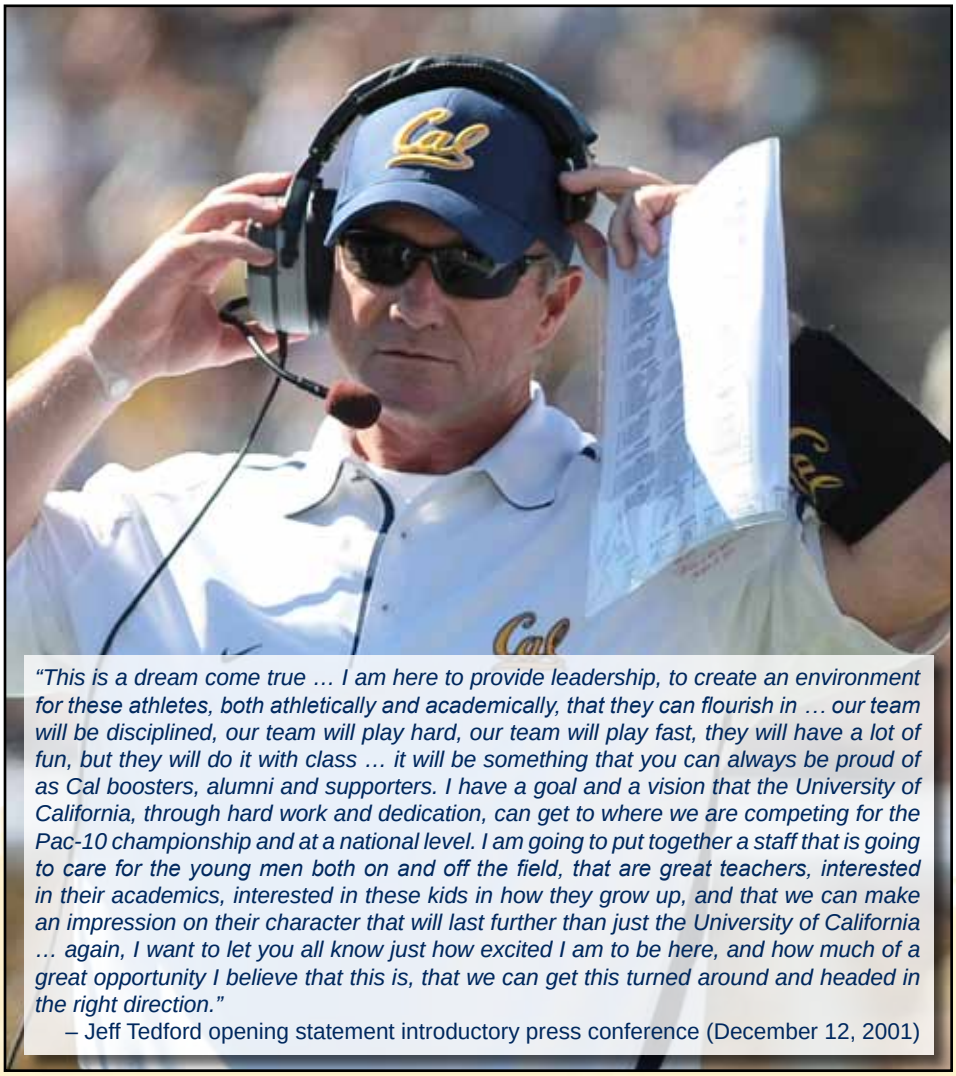
Head Coach • 10th Season at Cal

Jeff Tedford has established Cal as one of the elite football programs in the Pac-10 and lifted the Golden Bears into the national discussion on a consistent basis during his tenure as the school's head coach. The Bears have won the third-most games of any Pac-10 school during his first nine seasons on the job, have finished ranked among the nation's top 25 in four of the last seven seasons and been in the top 10 at some point in five of the last seven campaigns.

Cal posted a school-record run of seven straight bowl appearances from 2003-09 and is 5-2 in the postseason under Tedford, making him the only Cal mentor with more than two bowl victories, including a school-record string of four consecutive postseason wins from 2005-08. The Bears also strung together a school-record-tying eight consecutive winning campaigns from 2002-09. Cal has twice posted a school-record-tying 10 wins under Tedford, the sixth and seventh times in school history, in 2004 and 2006.

Tedford boasts Cal's modern-era record for victories with a 72-42 (.632) all-time mark at the school and will begin the 2011 season third on the school's all-time win list behind Andy Smith (74-16-7, 1916-25) and James Schaeffer (73-16-8, 1909-15), with the majority of Schaeffer's victories coming when Cal played rugby rather than football. Tedford has now coached 114 games at Cal, setting the school record for most games coached during the 2010 campaign. Only two others – Pappy Waldorf (103, 1947-56) and Stub Allison (102, 1935-44) – have coached 100 games at Cal. Tedford also already has the school record with 24 road wins and is an impressive 44-33 (.571) against Pac-10 teams. To top it off, he is 7-2 in the Big Game, equaling Waldorf's school record of seven wins against Stanford.

In his first nine seasons as Cal's head coach, the Bears have had 36 players selected in the NFL Draft including eight first-round picks. As of August 4, 2011, Cal's 42 active NFL players rank second



"This is a dream come true … I am here to provide leadership, to create an environment for these athletes, both athletically and academically, that they can flourish in … our team will be disciplined, our team will play hard, our team will play fast, they will have a lot of fun, but they will do it with class … it will be something that you can always be proud of as Cal boosters, alumni and supporters. I have a goal and a vision that the University of California, through hard work and dedication, can get to where we are competing for the Pac-10 championship and at a national level. I am going to put together a staff that is going to care for the young men both on and off the field, that are great teachers, interested in their academics, interested in these kids in how they grow up, and that we can make an impression on their character that will last further than just the University of California … again, I want to let you all know just how excited I am to be here, and how much of a great opportunity I believe that this is, that we can get this turned around and headed in the right direction."

– Jeff Tedford opening statement introductory press conference (December 12, 2001)

among Pac-10 schools according to ESPN.com.

All of this at the head of a program that won just one game in 2001, the year prior to his arrival. The Cal football renaissance over the past decade rates as one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history.

But Tedford's teams have not only got it done on the field, they've also got it done in the classroom. His players have been recognized as Pac-10 All-Academic honorees 94 times since his arrival. Of the 182 seniors who played for Tedford in his first nine seasons, 160 (88%) have earned their college degrees and/or gone on to NFL careers.

Tedford's success with the Cal program has resulted in local devotion and national attention. Cal has averaged more than 57,000 fans per contest in each of the past seven seasons, including a string of 43 consecutive games in front of at least 50,000 fans at Memorial Stadium (Sept. 11, 2004 – Nov. 20, 2010). In 2006, the Bears set school records for average fans per home game (64,318) and overall spectators (450,223). The following year in 2007 Cal established a school record with 41,366 season-ticket holders.

Nationally, the Bears have also had multiple Heisman Trophy candidates under Tedford's tutelage, with J.J. Arrington (2004), Marshawn Lynch (2006), DeSean Jackson (2007) and Jahvid Best (2009) among top candidates at some point in the season, and Arrington finishing eighth in the final voting.

Other national recognition has come the Bears way in recent years. Alex Mack was the winner of the 2008 Draddy Award (often referred to as the "Academic Heisman"), while Mike Mohamed was one of 16 players across the country in the 2010 National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Class of 2010 and a finalist for the prestigious honor won by Mack now known as the William V. Campbell Trophy. In 2006, the Bears had a pair of players collect national awards. Jackson was the recipient of the inaugural Randy Moss Award as the top returner in the country, while Daymeion Hughes earned The Lott IMPACT Trophy, given to a defensive player to equally recognize his athletic performance and personal character.

Despite his success and notoriety, Tedford remains devoted to being a mentor.

"Football is more than a game," he said. "I think it teaches so many values for young people as they move on into life – teamwork, sacrifice, dedication, hard work – all those things are very valuable to their futures. I'm going to be a person that they can trust and talk to while they're here. But I really hope that when they leave, they understand that they can come back to Cal and ask for anything and count on me and our entire staff in any situation."

His legendary work ethic, exemplified by the well-used air mattress in his office, shows the coach's drive, which is not geared towards individual success. His true goals are success as a team and success for his student-athletes.

"Jeff is the hardest worker I have ever encountered in this business," said Cal Director of Athletics Sandy Barbour. "He is not going to be outworked, because he believes he owes that to his student-athletes."

That relentless drive developed in Tedford as a young football player at Warren High School. After a solid prep career, the undersized quarterback went on to a standout two-year stint at Cerritos College (1979-80) before a record-setting two-year stay at Fresno State (1981-82). During his days as a Bulldog, he established several school passing records, including career marks for passing yardage (4,872) and touchdown passes (35), while earning honorable mention All-America notice in 1982 when he set single-season Fresno State standards for passing yardage (2,993) and TD passes (24).

88% percent of the seniors to play for Tedford have earned their degrees and/or gone on to NFL careers.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Fresno State in 1983, Tedford played professionally in the Canadian Football League for six seasons with Hamilton, Calgary, Saskatchewan and Winnipeg. He completed 54 percent of his passes during his career, appearing in the league's championship game (Grey Cup) with Hamilton in 1984.

Tedford has used his own signal-calling experience to build a reputation as a quarterback guru. During his 19-year collegiate coaching career at California (2002-present), Oregon (1998-2001) and Fresno State (1992-97), Tedford has been integral in the development of six quarterbacks that became first-round picks in the NFL Draft – Kyle Boller, David Carr, Trent Dilfer, Joey Harrington, Aaron Rodgers and Akili Smith.

Rodgers was an under-the-radar junior college transfer like Tedford, ranked No. 8 nationally in pass efficiency. In 2004, he completed 66.1 percent of his passes for 2,566 yards and 24 touchdowns with only eight interceptions for the Bears. He put up similar numbers the previous season when he completed 61.6 percent of his passes for 2,903

- Named Pac-10 Coach of the Year as voted by conference coaches, becoming the third Cal head coach to receive the honor since the award's inception in 1975.
- Enjoyed a six-win increase from the previous season, tying for the biggest one-year turnaround in the nation and the second-largest about-face in school history (the 1947 club went 9-1 after a 2-7 season in 1946).
- Led the Bears to victories over three nationally ranked teams (Michigan State, Washington and Arizona State) in the same season for the first time in 52 years.
- Scored three road wins over nationally ranked opponents in the same season for the first time in school history.
- Halted a 12-year victory drought in Sun Devil Stadium, mowing down Arizona State, 55-38.
- Set a modern-day school record by scoring 427 points (broken in 2003) with a 35.6 points per game scoring average that tied for 10th-best in the nation.
- Defeated Washington to snap a 19-game losing streak to the Huskies.
- Capped the season by registering Cal's first Big Game win over Stanford in eight years, a 30-7 throttling of the Cardinal.

- Established first back-to-back winning seasons at Cal in 12 years.
- Set single-season school marks for total offense (6,061) and first downs (321), as well as a modern-era record for scoring (457).
- Led the Pac-10 in rushing for the first time in 45 seasons with 2,356 yards and a 168.3 yard per game average.
- Posted first bowl win at Cal in 10 years, defeating Virginia Tech by a score of 52-49 in the Insight Bowl.
- Set single-game school bowl records for most points (52), total yards (530), passing yards (394), completion percentage (77.1, later broken), TDs (7) and rushing TDs (5, later tied).
- Beat a team ranked as high as No. 3 nationally for the first time in 52 years with a 34-31 victory in three overtimes over No. 3 USC at Memorial Stadium.
- Defeated Washington in Berkeley for the first time in 28 years, with the 54-7 win the widest margin of victory by a Cal team in a conference game in 81 years, setting Cal's single-game record for total offense with 729 yards in the contest.

- Named Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second time, something no other Cal football head coach has ever done.
- Reached Cal's highest national ranking (No. 4) in 52 years.
- Posted school's best regular-season record (10-1) since 1950 club was 9-0-1 in the regular season.
- First perfect home record (5-0) in 55 years since the 1949 team was 6-0 at Memorial Stadium.
- Most road wins (5) in school history.
- Earned first back-to-back bowl trips since 1990 and '91 seasons.
- Set single-season school record for total offense (492.4 ypg), ranking No. 1 in the Pac-10.
- Broke single-season school mark for yards per play (7.0), almost one yard better than old standard of 6.1 in 2003.
- Led Pac-10 in rushing (256.8 ypg) for second straight year, which were the first two times since 1958.
- Allowed fewest points per game by a Cal defense since 1968, ranking eighth nationally at 16.0 ppg.
- Recorded first back-to-back defensive shutouts in 36 years (38-0 at Arizona, 27-0 vs. Arizona State).

- Finished No. 25 in the AP and coaches' polls, marking the first time Cal had appeared in final polls in consecutive seasons since doing it five years in a row from 1947-51.
- Finished the season ranked ninth nationally with 235.3 rushing yards per game to mark the Bears' second straight season as one of the nation's top-10 rushing teams (sixth in 2004).
- Won fourth straight Big Game for the first time since the 1936-39 campaigns and again at Stanford, marking Cal's first two straight road victories in the series since winning six straight on The Farm from 1937-51.

- Guided Cal to a school-record-tying 10 wins, just the seventh time in school history the Bears had posted the total.
- Recorded a fourth straight season with at least eight victories.
- Named a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, which honors the coach who best exemplifies responsibility and excellence on and off the field of play.
- Led Cal to its fifth straight Big Game win for the first time since the club won five in a row from 1919-23.
- Led Bears to a perfect home record (7-0) for the second time in three years.
- Beat Washington for the fifth straight time after having previously dropped 19 straight in the series.

- Led Bears to a top-10 in-season ranking for the fourth straight campaign.
- Six players selected in the 2008 NFL Draft – a school-record for the seven-round version of the draft.
- Tailback Justin Forsett rushed for 1,546 yards – the third-most in school history.
- Opened the year with a thrilling 45-31 victory over No. 15 Tennessee on national television.
- Also defeated No. 11 Oregon on the road with the ESPN Gameday crew in attendance.
- Directed Bears to a No. 2 national ranking – their highest since 1951.
- All 13 of Cal's games were televised – the first time in program history that every contest was telecast.

2008

- Set a record with a fourth consecutive bowl victory while reaching a bowl game for the sixth consecutive year.
- Posted a winning record for the seventh straight campaign.
- Posted a 7-0 home record to mark the third time in five seasons Cal had been unbeaten at home.
- Finished No. 25 in coaches' poll to mark fourth top-25 finish in five years.
- Tailback Jahvid Best rushed for 1,580 yards – the second most in school history – to extend the school record of consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher to seven.
- Produced Draddy Trophy (now known as the William V. Campbell Trophy) winner Alex Mack.

- Recorded eighth consecutive winning season to equal a school record (1918-25), while also extending school-record string of bowl appearances to seven.
- Equaled Cal's modern-era record for victories (67) and the school's record for Big Game wins (7) with a victory at Stanford on Nov. 21 in his 100th game as head coach.
- Became one of only three Cal football coaches to reach the 100-game mark.
- Led Bears to back-to-back wins in consecutive weeks over nationally-ranked teams for the first time since 1950, beating Arizona at home and winning at Stanford.

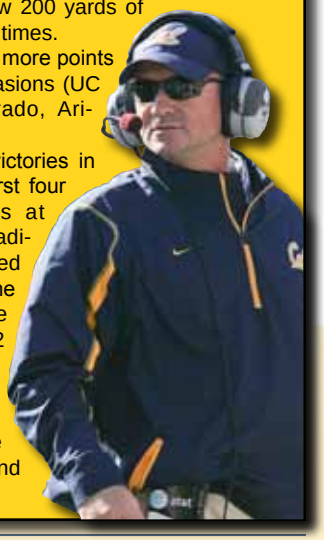
- Started the season 2-0 to rank No. 24 in the coaches' poll and make it each of the last seasons and eight of the past nine in which the Bears have been ranked among the nation's top 25 teams at some point in the season.
- Featured a defense that led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21), recorded five first-half shutouts, held its opponents to 10 or more total points on four occasions – highest total since the "Bear Minimum" defense limited seven opponents to 10 or fewer points in 1968 – and held opponents below 200 yards of offense three times.
- Scored 50 or more points on three occasions (UC Davis, Colorado, Arizona State).
- Led Cal to victories in each of its first four home games at Memorial Stadium and played the final game at the venue until 2012 when the stadium reopens following an extensive renovation and retrofit.



"Jeff is the hardest worker I have ever encountered in this business. He is not going to be outworked, because he believes he owes that to his student-athletes."

yards and 19 touchdowns with only five interceptions. After being drafted by Green Bay Packers in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft, Rodgers has become one of the top quarterbacks in the NFL and followed his first Pro Bowl selection in 2009 by earning Super Bowl XLV MVP after leading the Packers to a victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the contest.

Dilfer was selected sixth overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1994 NFL Draft and played for five teams over 14 NFL seasons in a career that was highlighted by leading the Baltimore Ravens to a win in Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 campaign.

In addition to his success with quarterbacks, Tedford's teams have featured balanced attacks and become notorious for their ferocity on the ground. In eight of his first nine years at Cal, Tedford has had at least one running back post a 1,000-yard rushing season, including a string of seven consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher from 2002-08 and then again in 2010. In 2004, Arrington broke Chuck Muncie's single-season school record with 2,018 yards, which led the country (168.2 ypg) as Arrington rushed for at least 100 yards in each of his 12 contests. In 2007, Justin Forsett's 1,546 rushing yards were briefly the second-best in Cal history, but Best's four-game flourish (814 yards) at the end of 2008 gave him 1,580 for the year to move past Forsett. Lynch had back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons in 2005 and 2006, while Adimchinobe Echemandu (1,195 yards in 2003) and Joe Igber (1,075 yards in 2002) have also reached the mark under Tedford, as did Shane Vereen, who established a career-high with 1,167 yards in 2010 to make him the latest Cal player to rush for 1,000 or more yards in a campaign.

While offense has been Tedford's forte, California's defense has toughened considerably during his reign as well, allowing an average of just 22.5 points per game during his nine seasons, second-best in the Pac-10 over that period. Highlights have included a 2004 team that ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.0 points per game. In 2005, the Bears led the Pac-10 in scoring defense, giving up only 21.2 points per game. In 2008, Cal led the Pac-10 in the two key categories of red zone defense (68.2%) and takeaways (34). The Bears were second in the conference in rush defense (112.0 ypg) in 2009 and then had a stellar season on defense in 2010, leading the league and ranking among the top 25 nationally in sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13 NCAA), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18 NCAA) and pass defense (187.0 ypg, No. 21 NCAA).

He has also earned a reputation as a strong recruiter, with his last two classes in 2010 and 2011 being ranked as high as No. 11 and No. 14 nationally. Prior to the 2011 campaign, Sporting News bestowed the honor of the Pac-12's best recruiter on Tedford.

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Tedford was a highly-regarded offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oregon, serving in that role for four seasons, including the 2001 campaign when the Ducks earned a No. 2 final national ranking.

Tedford played an integral role in the rise of the Oregon program during his tenure in Eugene – a period in which the Ducks posted the Pac-10's best record (38-10) while finishing progressively better each year (8-4 in '98, 9-3 in '99, 10-2 in '00 and 11-1 in '01). During his first season as offensive coordinator in 1998, the Ducks set school records in passing yards, total offense and points scored. Tedford's passing acumen was clearly evident in the rapid development of Smith, who earned Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year accolades as he finished second in the nation in pass efficiency and was later chosen third overall in the 1999 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Duck quarterbacks A.J. Feeley and Harrington combined to pass for 3,131 yards and 24 TDs on the Sun Bowl champion team that ranked 13th nationally in scoring in 1999, while the 2000 club tied for the Pac-10 crown and defeated Texas in the Holiday Bowl. Tedford's last Oregon squad in 2001 showcased one of the nation's premier quarterbacks in Harrington, who won Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year honors and finished fourth in Heisman balloting.

> "Along with the expectations, which we embrace, it's really important to always stay hungry. I don't think we've attained our full potential yet. It's something we always strive to do. We never want to be satisfied with where we've been. We always want to look forward to where we're going."

> Cal head coach Jeff Tedford

In 1992 as the quarterbacks coach at Fresno State, Tedford began honing the skills of Dilfer. Under Tedford's guidance, the Bulldogs' quarterback earned first-team All-WAC honors for an offense that led the nation in scoring (44.2 ppg), ranked second nationally in total offense (541.9 ypg) and beat USC in the Freedom Bowl. A season later, Tedford became the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator, and Fresno State ranked third nationally in scoring and total offense while earning an Aloha Bowl invitation. Dilfer ranked first nationally in passing efficiency (173.1 rating) and won the WAC Offensive Player of the Year award. He was later chosen by Tampa Bay with the sixth overall selection of the 1994 NFL Draft.

"I believe Jeff's one of the finest minds in all of football," said Dilfer, who currently serves as a football analyst for ESPN after a 14-year NFL playing career from 1994-2007. "He's certainly the finest coach I've ever been around. He's a great leader and great teacher. He has very high expectations for himself and the people around him. And he will work tirelessly to meet those expectations. Jeff taught me more about toughness and the game of football than any coach I've ever played for, and I've had some awfully good coaches."

Tedford's coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at Fresno State in 1987, as he spent two years there before joining Calgary of the CFL in 1989 for three seasons, including the 1991 team that advanced to the Grey Cup title game.

Despite his success as a coach and mentor, Tedford still follows a basic philosophy.

"We try to focus on one game at a time and try to reach our full potential," he said emphatically.

And he still values each and every member of his football team.

"Whether it is the guys who are suited up, the guys who are going to play 50-60 plays or the guys who aren't going to play at all, I want them all to understand that they are very important to the success of the program," he said. "Their contributions are invaluable."

Tedford's hard work and dedication not only inspire his players, it has also made him a role model to the young men in the Cal program.

"Coach Tedford wasn't just a coach, I think of him as more like a father figure," said All-Pac-10 linebacker and current NFL player Desmond Bishop, who was a key player on the Packers' Super Bowl XLV winning squad. "He taught us lessons about life. He taught us to have integrity, to have character. He prepared us to be men."

Offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Jim Michalczik returns for his second stint and eighth season overall on the Cal coaching staff in 2011. Michalczik spent seven winning seasons coaching the Golden Bears' offensive line from 2002-08 before serving as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders the last two seasons (2009-10). He has a combined 21 campaigns of experience in the collegiate and professional coaching ranks.

"Jim is a fantastic coach with a proven track record of success," said head coach Jeff Tedford. "He understands our program and what it takes to win games at the highest level of football. We had a tremendous amount of success in our offensive line play during Jim's previous tenure at Cal and we plan to resume and surpass that level of success in the future."

The play of Cal's offensive line under Michalczik's direction from 2002-08 was a key factor in the Bears' 59-30 (.663) record during the period. Cal produced bowl bids in each of Michalczik's last six seasons during his first stint at Cal and bowl victories in five of those campaigns, including each of the final four. The 2004 and 2006 squads both tied single-season school records with 10 victories, with the latter sharing the regular-season Pac-10 title.

The Bears put a lot of points on the scoreboard with Michalczik as their offensive line coach, ranking among the nation's top 30 in scoring offense in six of his first seven seasons in Berkeley. Cal averaged at least 30.0 points per game six times during the period, including a 36.8 mark in 2004 that ranked second in the Pac-10 and seventh nationally as well as a single-season school-record 457 total points over a 14-game schedule in 2003.

Cal also chewed up the yardage both in the air and on the ground from 2002-08, averaging at least 350.0 yards per game of total offense in each of Michalczik's first seven seasons, including a school-record 492.4 yards per contest in 2004 as part of a five-year run from 2003-07 when the Bears averaged at least 400.0 yards per game every season.

Cal's rushing attack that produced 1,000-yard rushers in each of Michalczik's first seven seasons keyed much of the offensive production. In 2004, J.J. Arrington set a single-season school record with 2,018 rushing yards and ranked second in the nation in rushing yards per game (168.2 ypg), with Michalczik's offensive line clearing the way. Arrington was also the eighth-leading vote getter in the Heisman Trophy race that year. The Bears were ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense in both 2004 (sixth) and 2005 (ninth), while leading the Pac-10 in both 2003 and 2004.

Cal's offensive line also had a great deal of success protecting the quarterback under Michalczik, including a pair of back-to-back seasons in 2006 and 2007 when the Bears allowed only a combined 24 sacks in 26 games – fewest in the Pac-10 and third-best in the nation during that period. The protection helped Cal quarterbacks produce five of the six highest single-season TD passing totals in school history during his seven-year run. The Bears averaged at least 240.0 yards per game in passing four times in seven of those seasons, including an average of 264.6 yards per game in 2003 that is the fourth-best in school history.

Michalczik was instrumental in the development of two-time first-team All-American and three-time first-team All-Pac-10 center Alex Mack, who was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the first round (21st pick overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft and has started all 32 games possible in his first two NFL seasons (2009, '10). Mack, who was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in 2010, was a two-time finalist for the Rimington Trophy awarded to the nation's top center and twice earned the Morris Trophy on the offensive side of the ball in 2007 and 2008. The honor is annually awarded to the Pac-10's top offensive and defensive linemen. In 2008, Mack also won the Draddy Trophy (often referred to as the Academic Heisman). The award has since been renamed the Campbell Trophy.

There were other significant success stories on the offensive line under Michalczik, with a total of eight first-team All-Pac-10 selections occurring during his seven previous seasons at Cal. In addition to Mack's three consecutive selections (2006, '07, '08), Mark Wilson (2003), Ryan O'Callaghan (2004, '05) and Marvin Philip (2004, '05) were also first-team choices, with O'Callaghan a Morris Trophy winner as a senior in 2005 while Philip was a two-time finalist for the Rimington Trophy in 2004 and '05. All told, Cal offensive linemen earned 21 first-team, second-team or honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors under Michalczik, including all five starters in 2004.

Mack, along with current NFL players Brian De La Puente (New Orleans Saints), Mike Gibson (Seattle Seahawks), O'Callaghan (Kansas City Chiefs) and Mike Tepper (Indianapolis Colts) are five of the 10 former Cal offensive linemen that played for Michalczik to move on to the NFL. Aaron Merz (2006-07), Philip (2006-09), Erik Robertson (2007-08), Scott Tercero (2003-04) and Wilson (2004-09) have also spent time in the league.

Michalczik played a key role in the Oakland turnaround in 2010, as the Raiders went undefeated in the AFC West. The Oakland offensive ranked second in the NFL in rushing (155.9 ypg), sixth in scoring (25.6 ppg) and 10th in total offense (354.6 ypg). Tackle Jared Veldheer was chosen to several All-Rookie teams.

Prior to joining Cal in 2002, Michalczik spent three seasons at Oregon State coaching the tight ends, while also serving as special teams coordinator and an assistant coach on the offensive line. The Beavers posted their first winning season in 29 years in his first campaign in Corvallis in 1999. The following season OSU posted a final No. 4 national ranking after going 11-1 and tying for the Pac-10 title.

Michalczik was also the offensive line coach for seven seasons at Montana State from 1992-98 after beginning his coaching career with two campaigns (1990-91) as a defensive line coach at Miami, Fla. The Hurricanes won the 1991 national title after posting an unbeaten 12-0 season. In 1990, Miami was ranked fourth nationally and finished with a 9-2 mark.

After a standout prep career at Port Angeles High School, Michalczik earned three letters as an offensive guard at Washington State. He was an honorable mention All-American selection by Sporting News as a senior in 1988. Michalczik earned a bachelor's degree in Education from Washington State in 1988 and signed as a free agent with the Arizona Cardinals the following year.

The native of Port Angeles, Wash. and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Max and Chase.

Clancy Pendergast returns for his second season as the defensive coordinator at Cal in 2011 after an outstanding debut in 2010. The 20-year NFL and collegiate coaching veteran is a candidate for the 2011 Frank Broyles Award given to the nation's top assistant coach. Pendergast took over as the Golden Bears' defensive coordinator in February of 2010 after six previous campaigns as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs (2009) and Arizona Cardinals (2004-08). He was the defensive coordinator in Arizona when the Cardinals captured the 2008 NFC title to earn a berth in Super Bowl XLIII. Only five current NFL defensive coordinators have been a defensive coordinator in the Super Bowl.

In his first season, Pendergast was a tremendous asset to Cal football.

Cal's 2010 defense led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21). Cal was also first in the Pac-10 in first downs allowed (217) and second in opponents' third-down conversion percentage (34.7%). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense, which held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games, were both third in the Pac-10, as well as 31st and 40th nationally. Cal was significantly better in all the above categories compared to 2009 when the Bears were seventh in the Pac-10 and No. 72 nationally in total defense (378.85 ypg). Cal was fifth in the Pac-10 and 35th nationally in rushing defense in 2010.

Individually, players such as Cameron Jordan and Chris Conte thrived under Pendergast's aggressive system before being taken by the New Orleans Saints and Chicago Bears in the first and third rounds of the 2011 NFL Draft, respectively. Both players earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors for the first time in their collegiate careers, with Jordan adding honorable mention All-American honors from Pro Football Weekly. Jordan started all 12 games and recorded career highs of 62 tackles and 12.5 tackles for loss (No. 4 Pac-10), to go with 5.5 sacks (No. 11 Pac-10). Conte had by far the biggest season of his collegiate career and ranked third on the team with a career-high 72 tackles in his first campaign as a full-time starter. Mike Mohamed also continued his consistent and strong play from previous seasons, leading the Bears in tackles for the second consecutive campaign with 95 stops and earning second-team All-Pac-10 honors. Mohamed was selected in the sixth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

The Bears' 2010 defensive unit was also spectacular at times, recording five first-half shutouts and holding its opponents to 10 or fewer total points on four occasions – the highest number in a single season since the "Bear Minimum" defense limited seven opponents to 10 or fewer points in 1968. Cal also held its opponents below 200 yards of total offense three times. In one of its most significant performances of the season, Cal held top-ranked Oregon nearly four times below its season average in a 15-13 defeat and Pendergast was named the National Coordinator of the Week by Rivals for the Bears' effort. The Ducks came into the game averaging 54.7 points per contest.

Cal scored four defensive touchdowns in 2010, with fumble returns for scores by Darian Hagan, Derrick Hill and Jordan, and an interception return from Mohamed. After two games, Cal had actually put up more points (12) than it had allowed (10), with a pair of the defensive touchdowns coming against Colorado on a 41-yard interception return by Mohamed and an 82-yard fumble return from Hagan. Cal either scored on a turnover or after forcing a turnover in eight of its 12 games. The team's total of 72 points scored after forcing turnovers included 31 against Colorado, seven against Nevada, Oregon, UC Davis, UCLA and Washington, and three at Arizona and vs. Arizona State.

"Clancy will continue to gain a better and better feel for the college game and how each week you have different offensive approaches by your opponents," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He has done a great job of teaching a whole defense what we're trying to get done, keeping the terminology simple but still being very multiple. I think our guys have really gravitated towards his knowledge and leadership."

During his six-year stint as an NFL defensive coordinator, the signature of Pendergast's defenses was the ability to force turnovers, with his squads racking up a combined 176 total takeaways (92 interceptions, 84 fumble recoveries).

In his one season with Kansas City in 2009, a Chiefs' defense that was among the NFL's youngest (26.6 average years of age opening-day starting lineup, 25.3 average years of age opening-day roster) and least experienced (4.9 average years of experience opening-day starting lineup) ranked 12th in the NFL in turnovers with 19 of their 28 takeaways coming in the final eight games of the season. The defense also scored three touchdowns off turnovers.

Kansas City showed significant improvement in several areas under Pendergast. The Chiefs more than doubled their sack total from the previous season by downing the quarterback 22.0 times behind the line of scrimmage after picking up only 10.0 in 2008. Fourth-year player Tamba Hali led the way with a then career-high 8.5 sacks to earn a spot on the USA Today All-Joe team. The Chiefs also allowed seven fewer rushing touchdowns, increased their quarterback hurries from 40 to 53 and were much better on third downs, ranking third in the NFL in allowing conversions on third-down and 10 or more yards to go after being 26th in the category the previous season. The Chiefs moved up to 15th in third-down conversion percentage (38.1%) after being tied for 31st in 2008. In addition, Kansas City improved to tied for fifth in the league in allowing opponents to score in their initial possession after tying for 20th in 2008, as well as eighth in forcing three-and-outs (24.4%) after being 31st the previous season. Kansas City's cornerback duo of second-year players Brandon Flowers (5th-T, 19) and Brandon Carr (10th-T, 16) both ranked among the NFL's top 10 in passes defensed, and were among the youngest starting tandems in the league.

For the five-year period from 2004-08, the Arizona teams Pendergast coached ranked eighth in the NFL by forcing 148 turnovers (77 interceptions, 71 fumbles).

During Arizona's Super Bowl run following the 2008 regular season, the Cardinals led all NFL teams by forcing 13 turnovers in the playoffs. The performance of the Arizona defense played a key role in post-season victories over Atlanta, Carolina and Philadelphia as the Cardinals limited the three highly regarded offenses to an average of 20.7 points per game. During the 2008 regular season, Arizona led the NFL with 17 fumble recoveries and ranked tied for fifth in the league with 30 takeaways. Arizona was also third in the NFL with opponents facing an average of 8.16 yards to go on second down and sixth by permitting 4.97 yards per play on first down.

The 2007 edition of the Cardinals ranked ninth in the NFL in run defense, allowing only 97.9 yards per game. On November 11, 2007, Arizona set a modern-day NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to -18 rushing yards. The 2007 team also set single-season franchise records with six interception returns for touchdowns and 551 interception return yards. The club's 18 total interceptions tied for 10th in the league.

In 2006, Pendergast's defense forced 33 turnovers (16 interceptions, 17 fumbles), the most by the Cardinals since 1998 and tied for fifth in the NFL. The 17 fumble recoveries ranked fourth in the league.

The Cardinals were eighth in the NFL in total defense (295.6 ypg) in 2005, as well as fourth in third-down efficiency (34.2%), seventh in first downs allowed (272) and tied for 10th in fumble recoveries (13).

In Pendergast's first season with Arizona in 2004, the Cardinals improved to 12th in the NFL in both total defense and scoring defense after being ranked 26th and 32nd in those two categories the year before Pendergast arrived. In addition, the team forced 30 turnovers to rank tied for 13th in the NFL, compiling seven more takeaways than the season before his arrival when the Cardinals were 24th in the league with 23 takeaways. The 2004 squad was also second in the NFL in red zone TD percentage (45.0%), fourth in third-down defense (31.6%) and tied for fifth in fumble recoveries (15).

During his tenure in Arizona, Pendergast also worked with the secondary and coached Arizona safety Adrian Wilson to a pair of Pro Bowls in 2006 and 2008. Defensive end Bertrand Berry (2004) and defensive tackle Darnell Dockett (2007) also earned their first Pro Bowl selections playing in Pendergast's defense.

Prior to Pendergast's arrival in Arizona, the Cardinals had been mired as one of the NFL's lowest-ranking defensive clubs. In the five seasons prior to Pendergast joining the team in 2004, Arizona had ranked in the top 10 of a major defensive statistical category on only one occasion when the Cardinals were 10th in passing yards allowed in 1999.

In the five seasons under Pendergast, Arizona was 20th or better in the final NFL rankings in points allowed, total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed, passing yards allowed, yards allowed per play, opponents third-down percentage, sacks, interceptions and fumbles recovered a combined 37 times in 45 opportunities.

Pendergast spent the 2003 season as the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns.

Prior to his one campaign in Cleveland, Pendergast was a member of a Dallas Cowboys' coaching staff that won two NFC East titles (1996, '98) and made three NFC Playoff appearances (1996, '98, '99) during his seven-year tenure from 1996-2002. Pendergast spent his first four seasons in Dallas (1996-99) as a defensive assistant and quality control coach. He oversaw the club's nickel defense packages in 2000 before coaching the defensive backs in his final two campaigns (2001-02) with the Cowboys. Dallas ranked third in the NFL in pass defense in both 2000 (168.3 ypg) and 2001 (180.6 ypg). In 2002, Pendergast tutored safety Roy Williams, who was a consensus all-rookie selection and led Dallas with five interceptions.

Pendergast began his NFL coaching career in 1995 with one season as a defensive assistant/quality control coach for the Houston Oilers.

Prior to his 15 years in the NFL, Pendergast spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. He served as a graduate assistant with Mississippi State in 1991, before working on coaching staffs at USC as a defensive assistant in 1992 and Oklahoma as a graduate assistant and tight ends coach from 1993-94. All four of the teams he worked for qualified for bowl games.

Pendergast graduated from Arizona in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in Agriculture.

Ashley Ambrose is in his first season as the defensive backs coach at Cal in 2011. The 13-year NFL veteran and 1996 AFC Defensive Back of the Year spent the last three seasons on the Colorado football staff, including the 2010 campaign as the defensive backs coach after serving as the receivers coach in 2009 and a defensive technical intern in 2008.

Ashley brings a lot of credibility to the defensive backs coaching position being an NFL player himself for a long time," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "When he talks to the kids about fundamentals, confidence and the way to play that position the players have a great deal of respect for him. He's brought a lot of great energy and I'm looking forward to that group learning a lot from him. He is a bright young and upcoming coach with a tremendous amount of football experience."

During his lone season working with the Colorado defensive backs in 2010, Ambrose coached senior Jimmy Smith to first-team All-Big 12 honors and helped him become a first-round selection of the Baltimore Ravens (27th pick overall) in the 2011 NFL Draft. As a senior in 2010, the cornerback recorded a career-high 70 tackles, including a team-best 52 solo stops. Smith, who also co-led the team with five pass breakups, was the only Colorado defensive player named to the All-Big 12 first or second team, improving his status from an honorable mention All-Big 12 choice the year before Ambrose coached him. Another 2010 Ambrose pupil, senior cornerback Jalil Brown, was an honorable mention selection for the second consecutive season and shared the team lead along with Smith with five pass breakups. Brown was taken in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Ambrose brought a wealth of professional football experience to a coaching career that began in 2006 as an intern coach with the Atlanta Falcons. After being selected by Indianapolis in the second round (29th pick overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft, he went on to play 13 seasons in the league, four with the Colts (1992-95), three with Cincinnati (1996-98), three with New Orleans (1999, 2003-04) and three with Atlanta (2000-02). He earned All-Pro honors with the Bengals in 1996, when he was also the AFC Defensive Back of the Year. Ambrose posted career totals of 42 interceptions (tied for 64th all-time through the 2010 season), returning three for touchdowns, 178 pass deflections and 514 tackles (464 solo).

After 192 games and 141 NFL starts, he retired from professional football following the 2004 season.

Ambrose earned his bachelor's degree in Industrial Technology in 1992 from Mississippi Valley State, where he lettered four years at cornerback. He had 17 interceptions, 40 pass deflections and 110 tackles, as well as seven kick returns for touchdowns (four punt, three kickoff) during his college playing career.

He has long been active in community service, as he developed the "Ashley Ambrose All-A's Club" that rewarded high school football players who excelled academically. He also participated in VH-1's Save the Music program and in the NFL United Way Hometown Huddle campaign among the many things he did as a professional athlete, which included donating hundreds of tickets to scholar-athletes.

A native of New Orleans, Ambrose graduated from Alcee Fortier High School in 1988, where he lettered in football, basketball, and track and field. He is the father of two children, Aisha and A.J.

PROMINENT PUPILS

- John Broussard (San Jose State)
- Austyn Carta-Samuels (Wyoming)
- James Jones (San Jose State)
- Adam Tafralis (San Jose State)

Marcus Arroyo is in his first season as the quarterbacks coach at Cal in 2011. The former San Jose State quarterback has spent the last eight seasons coaching at the collegiate level, spending the past four campaigns as an offensive coordinator or co-offensive coordinator.

"Coach Arroyo does a great job of communicating with our players," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He understands what he's doing and what it takes to be a productive quarterback. He's very detailed and prepared, and I have confidence that we will work great together in preparing our quarterbacks. He's young and enthusiastic but also has more than a decade of experience coaching and playing the position at the collegiate level."

Arroyo's most recent coaching stint came at Wyoming where he served as the Cowboys' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach during the 2009 and 2010 campaigns. During his two seasons at Wyoming, he developed 2009 true freshman quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels into the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and the Offensive MVP of the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. Carta-Samuels completed 59.7 percent of his passes in two campaigns under Arroyo's guidance.

Arroyo made a significant impact in his first season at Wyoming in 2009 when he installed a new spread offense that helped the Cowboys score 30 or more points five times, winning all five of those games. Arroyo's offense displayed an ability to come from behind in his first season, recording five fourth-quarter comebacks. His offensive unit also did an outstanding job of protecting the ball. Wyoming ranked No. 7 in the nation in fewest turnovers lost (14) and was No. 15 in the NCAA in both fewest fumbles lost (7) and fewest interceptions thrown (7).

When Wyoming captured the 2009 New Mexico Bowl title, it marked the second time in four seasons that Arroyo was part of a New Mexico Bowl winning team. His other victory in the game came in 2006 while he was coaching at San Jose State.

Prior to his stint at Wyoming, Arroyo was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach for three seasons at his alma mater San Jose State. He was the quarterbacks' coach and play-caller for the Spartans in 2006, before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator for his final two seasons in 2007 and 2008 under head coach Dick Tomey.

In two of those three campaigns, 2006 and 2008, the Spartans earned bowl-eligible status. In 2006, San Jose State posted a record of 9-4, and earned a berth in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl where they defeated New Mexico by a score of 20-12. SJSU again achieved bowl eligibility status in 2008, with a 6-6 mark, but wasn't invited to a bowl game.

From 2006-07, Arroyo tutored the Spartans' all-time leading passer and total offense leader Adam Tafralis, who set school records for career passing yards (7,548) and career total offense (8,111). Tafralis went on to sign a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts of the NFL in the spring of 2008. He has played the last three seasons (2008-10) with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League.

Arroyo began his college coaching career in 2003, serving as an undergraduate assistant coach at his alma mater for one year. In 2004, he was the offensive coordinator at Prairie View A&M, an NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) team in Prairie View, Texas. He returned to San Jose State in 2005 as a graduate assistant coach on the offensive side of the ball before being elevated to a full-time assistant in 2006.

Arroyo played quarterback at San Jose State in 1998 and from 2000-02. He finished his career among San Jose State's all-time leaders in passing yards (No. 9, 4,603), total offense (No. 9, 4,525) and passing efficiency (No. 10, 115.6 rating).

Arroyo's legacy at San Jose State includes being the quarterback or play-caller each of the last four times the Spartans have been bowl eligible (2000, '02, '06, '08).

Arroyo received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology at SJSU in 2003.

He and his wife, Kelly, were married on July 9, 2010. Kelly began her collegiate athletic career as a volleyball player at Southern Oregon and later was a swimmer at San Jose State.

Jeff Genyk is in his second season as the special teams coordinator/tight ends coach at Cal and his 20th as a collegiate coach in 2011.

"Jeff has a high level of experience, expertise, energy and passion," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He is a versatile and well-rounded coach that has all the qualities we are looking for in members of our coaching staff."

The special teams units improved in all three of the primary team statistical categories in Genyk's first season at Cal in 2010. The Bears improved 11 spots to No. 19 nationally in net punting (38.51 avg.), a single position to No. 23 in punt returns (12.16 ypr) and 24 places to No. 72 in kick returns (21.3 ypr).

In his first season at Cal in 2010, Genyk also helped punter Bryan Anger break a 23-year-old single-season school record with a 45.6 yard punting average (No. 2 Pac-10, No. 6 NCAA) and earn first-team All-Pac-10 recognition for the second consecutive year. A candidate for national honors in 2011, Anger's career 43.3 yard punting average trails only the 44.0 posted by Scott Tabor from 1986-87.

Giorgio Tavecchio put up career high numbers in nearly every category, playing in all 12 games and making 11-of-16 field goal attempts and 37-of-39 extra-point tries to rank second on the team with 70 points. He showed tremendous improvement from his 2009 performance in all areas including his average kickoff distance, which increased dramatically by 6.7 yards to 64.8 yards per kick and resulted in a nearly seven-yard improvement of opponent starting field position after kickoffs, from the 32.9 yardline in 2009 to the 25.7 yardline in 2010.

Before coming to Cal, Genyk served as the head coach at Eastern Michigan from 2004-08. He coached the Eagles to their best conference finish in seven years in 2004 with a third-place showing in the West Division of the Mid-American Athletic Conference. His 2006 squad ranked third nationally in punt return yardage defense and 15th in the nation the following season. Eastern Michigan also set three NCAA passing records as well as multiple MAC and school records during his tenure.

While at Eastern Michigan he coached three players (LB Daniel Holtzclaw, DE Jason Jones, PK Andrew Wellock) who earned All-American recognition. Jones was a second-round selection of the Tennessee Titans in the 2008 NFL Draft and has played 35 NFL games with 18 starts over the past three campaigns. Wellock was a finalist for the 2004 Lou Groza Award given annually to the nation's top placekicker. He also coached OT T.J. Lang, who was selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft and over the last two campaigns has played in 28 regular-season games and five post-season contests for the Packers, including Super Bowl XLV won by Green Bay.

Genyk previously spent 12 seasons at Northwestern (1994-2003), with responsibility for the special teams unit during each of his final eight campaigns with the Wildcats. He was also the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for five seasons (1999-2003) after having worked with the safeties in 1998 and the outside linebackers in 1997. During his first five campaigns, he was the school's Director of Football Operations (1994-96) and a defensive graduate assistant (1992-93).

Genyk was on the Northwestern football staff for three Big Ten championship teams and four bowl appearances. The 1995, 1996 and 2000 teams all won Big Ten titles. The 1995 squad played in the Rose Bowl, the 1996 team was in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl and the 2000 club played in the Alamo Bowl. The 2003 squad participated in the Motor City Bowl.

In 2000, Genyk tutored Damien Anderson to a Northwestern school-record 2,063 rushing yards as the Wildcats' tailback earned All-American honors and finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy. Another one of his Northwestern pupils, Jason Wright, reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark in both 2002 and 2003.

Genyk began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Grand Rapids Community College in Michigan, where he worked with quarterbacks and tight ends from December 1990 through the spring of 1992.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, he worked in private business from 1982-91. He also has experience as a television color analyst, serving in that position for ESPN Regional Television's coverage of Atlantic Coast Conference football during the 2009 campaign.

Genyk was a quarterback and punter at Bowling Green State from 1978-81 and graduated from the school with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1982. He also has two master's degrees with an MBA from Western Michigan in 1989 and a master's in education and social policy from Northwestern in 1994. A native of Milan, Mich., he was an All-State quarterback at Milan High School.

- Rashid Gayle (Boise State)
- Justin Forsett (California)
- Joe Igber (California)

Associate head coach Ron Gould enters his 15th season at Cal in 2011 and his first as the team's run game coordinator after being promoted to the position on February 5, 2011.

"Ron Gould has done a terrific job developing running backs at Cal for a long time," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He is certainly deserving of this promotion and we are fortunate to have a coach with his qualifications, experience and expertise leading our running game."

Gould has coached some of the nation's top performing running backs year-in and year-out for the Bears over his first 14 seasons working with the team's running backs. Cal has produced a 1,000-yard rusher eight times in the last nine seasons, most recently when Shane Vereen surpassed the mark with a career-high 1,167 yards in 2010.

In 2010, Gould was a candidate for the American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year Award.

Cal has been known for a two-tailback system during Gould's tenure, with the Bears' top two rushers combining for at least 1,500 yards each of the last eight campaigns. There are many household NFL names that are former Cal running backs. Eight of his backs in the last seven seasons and 10 overall have gone on to the NFL, most recently with the second-round selection of Vereen by the New England Patriots in the 2011 NFL Draft. Jahvid Best was a first-round choice (30th overall) by the Detroit Lions in 2010. Others throughout his Cal career that have moved on to the NFL include J.J. Arrington, Adimchinobe Echemandu, Justin Forsett, Marshawn Lynch, Chris Manderino, Tarik Smith, Byron Storer and Will Ta'ufo'ou.

Before Vereen reached the 1,000-yard mark in 2010, Best was the most recent Cal running back to surpass the mark when he galloped for 1,580 yards in 2008 to lead the Pac-10 in rushing and rank second on the school's all-time single-season rushing list. Best is one of three Cal tailbacks to have led the Pac-10 in rushing under Gould, with Lynch (2006) and Arrington (2004) the others.

Arrington had the biggest season ever by a Cal running back in 2004 when he rushed for a single-season school-record 2,018 yards during a consensus All-American campaign and finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting. Arrington rushed for over 100 yards in each of his 12 games that season.

Cal has had a 1,000-yard rusher in the backfield in eight of the last nine seasons in Joe Igber (2002), Echemandu (2003), Arrington (2004), Lynch (2005, '06), Forsett (2007), Best (2008) and Vereen (2010).

Three of those backs – Lynch (2006), Forsett (2007) and Best (2008) – were first-team All-Pac-10 choices. Lynch was also the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. Best was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection in 2009, while Vereen was a second-team choice in 2010 after earning honorable mention honors in 2009.

Six of the players listed among Cal's all-time top 10 in rushing have played for Gould, while eight of the school's top 10 rushing seasons have been posted under his guidance.

Cal ranked sixth in the country in rushing offense in 2004 and then ninth in 2005. The Bears led the Pac-10 in both 2003 and '04, while also pacing the conference with 28 rushing touchdowns in 2003.

"Coach Gould has done a great job of producing big-time backs, not just with their talent but with their knowledge and fundamentals of the game," Tedford said. "He always does a really nice job of developing the whole player, not just a runner but a pass protector and a receiver."

Prior to his arrival at Cal in 1997, Gould was the defensive backs coach at Boise State for four seasons (1993-96), with the 1994 Broncos finishing as the NCAA Division I-AA runner-up and ranking among the nation's top five in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense.

During a one-year stint in the same role at Portland State (1992) he helped the Vikings to the 1992 NCAA Division II semifinals.

Gould started his coaching career with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Oregon (1990-91).

He has also served NFL internships with the Atlanta Falcons, Arizona Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco 49ers and St. Louis Rams.

Gould was a standout defensive back at Scottsdale Community College (1984-85) before earning a scholarship from Wichita State. He later went on to become a starter for Oregon in 1987 after WSU dropped its program and signed with the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

- Patrick Williams (Colorado)

Eric Kiesau is in his first season as the passing game coordinator/ wide receivers coach at Cal in 2011 and his fifth season overall in his second stint with the Golden Bears. Kiesau was previously Cal's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator for four seasons (2002-05), before spending the past five campaigns (2006-10) on the Colorado coaching staff.

"We're excited to have Eric rejoin the Cal football family," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He did a tremendous job in all aspects of coaching our wide receivers during his first stint at Cal, and he understands what we expect of both our coaches and players. Eric has a strong work ethic, and is an excellent teacher of the wide receiver position and all aspects of the game of football. He is someone that will do a great job with the receivers, both conceptually and with technique."

Cal compiled a 33-17 overall record, posted four consecutive winning seasons and won three bowl games when Kiesau previously coached the Bears' wide receivers. Cal's receiving core consistently put up strong numbers in the passing game during that time and for two of those seasons (2003-04) provided reliable targets for quarterback Aaron Rodgers, who is now one of the top signal-callers in the NFL, the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLV and the reigning Super Bowl MVP.

In Kiesau's second season at Cal in 2003, the Bears broke a school record with 278 receptions and the passing game posted an average of 264.6 yards per game to rank fourth in school history.

Cal receiver Geoff McArthur earned second-team All-American and first-team All-Pac-10 honors as the nation's second-leading pass catcher under Kiesau in 2003, recording an average of 115.69 receiving yards per game. McArthur set a pair of school records that still stand today during that campaign, breaking the club's mark for receiving yards in a single season with 1,504 on 85 catches (17.7 ypc) and establishing a single-game record with 16 catches for 245 yards in the Big Game at Stanford. The 85 catches in a season and 245 yards receiving in a game are both second on their respective all-time Cal lists, while his 10 touchdown receptions during the same season is tied for third.

Cal's passing game was also strong in the seasons both prior to and following the school-record campaign, with per-game passing averages of 247.6 yards in 2002 and 235.7 yards in 2004. McArthur also posted strong 2002 and 2004 seasons, and finished his collegiate career after the 2004 campaign as Cal's all-time leader in both receptions (202) and receiving yards (3,188), with both marks remaining school records today. McArthur's career average of 15.8 yards per catch is also the best among all Cal receivers on the school's career top-10 list for receptions.

Kiesau was also Cal's wide receivers coach in 2005 during DeSean Jackson's first season with the Bears, when the future NFL All-Pro and Pro Bowler set the school's true freshman single-season record for both receptions (38) and receiving yards (601), with the latter still standing. Jackson also picked up the mark for the most receiving yards in a game by a true freshman at Cal when he totaled 130 at New Mexico State, a record that stood until Keenan Allen broke the record in 2010. Kiesau also tutored a pair of young receivers in Lavelle Hawkins and Robert Jordan in 2005 that along with Jackson formed the core of a solid Cal receiving group that would lead the Bears through the end of their collegiate careers in 2007. Hawkins has joined Jackson in the NFL and is currently a wide receiver for the Tennessee Titans.

Prior to returning to Cal for his second stint, Kiesau served as Colorado's passing game coordinator and receivers coach for three seasons (2006-08) before being promoted to offensive coordinator and assistant head coach, and working with the quarterbacks during his final two campaigns in Boulder (2009-10).

At Colorado, Kiesau was largely responsible for the development of receiver Scotty McKnight from a walk-on as a true freshman in 2006 to the top receiver in school history by the time he finished his collegiate career in 2010. McKnight's final receiving numbers for the Buffs were 219 catches for 2,588 yards with 22 touchdown grabs – all school records. He also caught at least one pass in all 49 of the collegiate games he played in from 2007-10, earning him another school record and giving him the longest string of consecutive games played with a catch among all NCAA players active throughout the 2010 season. In addition, McKnight was the only player in the history of Colorado football to lead his team in receptions for four consecutive campaigns.

Kiesau's first full-time coaching position at the Division I level came in 2000 when he began a two-year stint at Utah State, spending his first season as the school's running backs coach before becoming the receivers coach in his second campaign. He tutored third-team All-American Emmitt White, who led the nation in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 13 nationally in rushing in 2000. In his second season at USU in 2001, he coached wide receiver Kevin Curtis to an All-American season as Curtis led the nation with 100 receptions while ranking third in receiving yards per game (139.2 ypg).

He began his collegiate coaching career at his junior college alma mater Glendale Community College in 1998. He also had a brief stint as the teamwork coordinator at Oregon in the winter and spring of 2000, before moving on to Utah State.

Kiesau earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Portland State in 1996, where he lettered as a quarterback and was his school's starter at the position during his 1995 senior campaign. He was also an All-American junior college quarterback as a sophomore in 1992.

Upon graduation from PSU, Kiesau worked the better part of five years in private business for Corporate America in Portland.

Kiesau graduated in 1991 from Glendale High School, where he lettered in football and baseball.

He and his wife, Wendy, have two children – daughter, Tayler, and son, Blake.

PROMINENT PUPILS

- Tyson Alualu (California)
- Cameron Jordan (California)
- Brandon Mebane (California)

Tosh Lupoi has enjoyed a tremendous amount of success both as a defensive line coach and a recruiter in his first three seasons as a collegiate football coach. The youngest full-time coach in Cal history when he joined the staff at the age of 26 in 2008, Lupoi remained the youngest Pac-10 coach for two additional seasons. But despite his youth he is in his 12th season associated with Cal football in 2011, having spent six campaigns as a Golden Bear player (2000-05) that included an extra season due to the granting of a medical redshirt, two as a graduate assistant (2006-07) and now in his fourth campaign as defensive line coach.

Lupoi has helped develop first-round NFL Draft picks each of the last two seasons in defensive lineman Tyson Alualu and Cameron Jordan, making Cal only the second Pac-10 team to have ever had defensive linemen selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in back-to-back years. Alualu was taken with the 10th overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010, while the New Orleans Saints selected Jordan 24th overall in 2011. Alualu was the ninth-highest draft pick in Cal history and the highest since defensive end Andre Carter was taken seventh overall by the San Francisco 49ers in 2001. Alualu made a strong NFL debut in 2010, being named the AFC Rookie of the Year and earning selections to several All-Rookie teams.

Cal's 2010 defense that featured Jordan led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21). Cal was also first in the Pac-10 in first downs allowed (217) and second in opponents' third down conversion percentage (34.7%). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense, which held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games, were both third in the Pac-10, as well as 31st and 40th nationally.

"Tosh has done a nice job of developing our defensive line," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "He brings a lot of energy, a lot of passion to what we do on defense. I think he has become a very good schematic coach and has done a real nice job fundamentally with preparing our guys to play."

The 2010 Rivals Recruiter of the Year has also been part of a recruiting team that has inked signing classes the last two seasons that have ranked as high as No. 11 and No. 14 nationally.

Lupoi joined the Cal coaching staff after playing on the team's defensive line from 2000-05. Playing alongside three future NFL players, he led the Bears' defensive line in tackles in 2003 when he was the recipient of the Ken Cotton Award as the squad's Most Courageous Player as he played the final four games of the campaign with a broken right thumb. Lupoi wrapped up his career with 40 games played, 68 tackles and 5.0 sacks. He earned Pac-10 All-Academic recognition in 2005. He picked up his bachelor's degree in American studies from Cal in 2005 and his master's in eduation in 2007.

The product of De La Salle High School, one of the most successful programs in the history of prep football, earned All-State honors and won a national title as a prep.

His father, John Lupoi, played collegiately at Brigham Young and later was a part-time assistant coach at Cal.

- Mike Mohamed (California)

Kenwick Thompson is in his fifth season coaching Cal's linebackers and serving as the program's recruiting coordinator in 2011. He has coached a unit that has been greatly responsible for Cal's defensive success in recent years, with linebackers filling out the top two spots on the team's list of leading tacklers each of the past two seasons and the top three positions in 2008.

"Kenwick does a great job of communicating with the players, and gets them to play hard and understand what they're doing," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "I have no doubt that this group of linebackers will play very well under his leadership. He always does a fine job of putting our linebackers in position to be successful and making sure they understand what they're doing so they can play fast."

In 2010, Cal's defense led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21). Cal was also first in the Pac-10 in 2010 in first downs allowed (217) and second in opponents' third-down conversion percentage (34.7%). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense were both third in the Pac-10, as well as 31st and 40th nationally. The defense held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games.

Thompson has been instrumental in the development of several top linebackers, including 2011 NFL Draft sixth-round selection Mike Mohamed now of the Denver Broncos. Mohamed racked up the honors for his performances on and off the field during a stellar football and academic career at Cal that was highlighted by his 2010 senior season when he was selected as a finalist for the prestigious Campbell Trophy often recognized as the "Academic Heisman" and was also a recipient of the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award. Mohamed finished his career ranked fourth on Cal's all-time list with 340 tackles.

Thompson also coached Zack Follett, who will be in his third season with the NFL's Detroit Lions in 2011 after being selected by the club in the seventh round of the 2009 NFL Draft. Follett earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a 2008 senior, leading the Pac-10 in tackles for loss (23.0) and forced fumbles (5), while ranking fourth in sacks (10.5).

Prior to his arrival at Cal in 2007, Thompson spent six seasons at San Jose State and was a versatile member of the school's coaching staff during his tenure. After being hired as the Spartans' linebackers coach and spending three seasons in that role (2001-03), he also worked as the program's recruiting coordinator (2002-03), co-recruiting coordinator (2004), co-special teams coordinator (2004), defensive line coach (2004), strength and conditioning coach (2005) and defensive tackles coach (2006). In 2006, the Spartans posted a nine-win season in his final campaign and defeated host New Mexico in the New Mexico Bowl. San Jose State ranked third in the Western Athletic Conference in both scoring defense and total defense.

Thompson previously coached for seven seasons at Texas Southern from 1994-2000, including the last five campaigns as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. In his first two campaigns at the school, he worked with the team's running backs (1994) and as the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator (1995).

Thompson also coached for two seasons at his alma mater Harding as a graduate assistant (1991-92) and got his coaching start as an assistant coach in the Italian American Football Association for one campaign in 1990.

As a collegiate player at Harding, Thompson was a two-time All-Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference selection and the league's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior when he also served as a team captain. He recorded 30.0 career quarterback sacks, leading the Bison in sacks in each of his last two seasons.

Thompson and his wife, Monica, have two sons, Jaxson and Jacob.

2001-03	Muir Hospital Orthopedic Center
	Director of Outreach
1992-2002	De La Salle HS
	Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Mike Blasquez is in his 20th year as a strength and conditioning coach and his ninth season at Cal in 2011, which marks his first campaign working primarily with the football team. Blasquez worked directly with the Cal men's basketball program from 2003-10 before assuming his current responsibilities with the Golden Bears' football program at the beginning of the 2011 calendar year.

Blasquez began his tenure at Cal in 2003 and has overseen the school's entire strength and conditioning program since 2007. He manages training programs for all athletic teams in that role and has also been instrumental in planning the strength and conditioning elements of the Student-Athlete High Performance Center currently under construction and scheduled to open in the fall of 2011. Blasquez has been directly involved with the strategic planning, operations and design of the facility.

"Coach Blasquez has brought a new mindset to our strength and conditioning," head coach Jeff Tedford said. "His approach has been something different for the guys that they have all really enjoyed. I've seen transformation in their bodies through the workouts that they've done. Our players have really enjoyed the hard work, and I think it's going to pay off for us. I think we're going to be a stronger team than we've ever been this year, while continuing to work on speed and flexibility."

In addition to training current Cal student-athletes, many former players and local professional athletes work out with Blasquez and his staff at Cal during their offseason. Players that have recently completed their collegiate eligibility the previous season are part of the mix as they are afforded the opportunity to stay in the Berkeley area after they graduate, or as they finish up their academics at Cal while also preparing for events such as the NFL Scouting Combine and Cal's Pro Day.

"We want to provide a place for former Cal student-athletes and professional athletes who live in the area to come and train in their offseason," said Blasquez. "It gives our recent players a chance to stay in the area and finish up their academics while getting an opportunity to train with elite athletes at the professional level. It's a great mix."

Among those that have trained recently at Cal are Jahvid Best (Detroit Lions), Chris Conte (Chicago Bears), Justin Forsett (Seattle Seahawks), Matt Gutierrez (Chicago Bears), Lavelle Hawkins (Tennessee Titans), Jason Hill (Jacksonville Jaguars), Maurice Jones-Drew (Jacksonville Jaguars), Cameron Jordan (New Orleans Saints), Mike Mohamed (Denver Broncos), T.J. Ward (Cleveland Browns) and Demetrius Williams (Cleveland Browns) of the NFL. Former Cal basketball players Ryan Anderson (Orlando Magic) and Leon Powe (Memphis Grizzlies) are also in this group.

The Bay Area native arrived at Cal in 2003 after spending 11 seasons from 1992-2002 as the head strength and conditioning coach at De La Salle High School in Concord. During his tenure at the local legendary prep football national powerhouse, Blasquez worked alongside head coach Bob Ladouceur to lead the Spartans to a perfect 138-0 record as part of the team's national-record 151-game win streak from 1992-2004. During Blasquez' 11-year stint the Spartans were named national champions six times (1994, 1998-2002), were honored as the top team in California on 10 occasions (1992, 1994-2002) and won North Coast Section titles in each of his 11 seasons. Blasquez coached several future NFL players while at De La Salle, including current standouts Jones-Drew and D.J. Williams.

During his time with the Spartans, Blasquez was named the Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society in 1998. From 2001-03, he was also the director of outreach at the Muir Hospital Orthopedic Center in Walnut Creek.

Blasquez received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Hayward in 1991, and holds certifications in athletic training (ATC) and strength and conditioning (CSCS). He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters, Makena and Bianca.

Mike McHugh is in his ninth campaign as the Director of Football Operations at Cal in 2011 and his 29th season as a football coach and administrator at the professional, collegiate or high school level. McHugh oversees all day-to-day operations of the Cal football program.

McHugh's comprehensive list of responsibilities is highlighted by the coordination of team travel, the building and maintenance of the budget, the organization of training camp and spearheading the team's community relations efforts, which include student-athlete visits to childrens' hospitals, reading to elementary students, and various food and clothing drives.

He also supervises the operational activities and staff of the weight room and training room, as well as the video, recruiting and academic support departments. In addition, he oversees the training table and player meals, facilities and new construction, and serves as the assistant director of the Cal football summer camps.

McHugh has been Cal's team liaison for appearances in seven bowl games, including the 2003 Insight Bowl, 2004 Holiday Bowl, 2005 Las Vegas Bowl, 2006 Holiday Bowl, 2007 Armed Forces Bowl, 2008 Emerald Bowl and 2009 Poinsettia Bowl.

Prior to coming to Cal in 2003, McHugh spent two seasons as an offensive assistant coach with the Detroit Lions (2001-02) following previous stints as the Director of Football Operations at Oregon (1999-2000) when Cal head coach Jeff Tedford was the Ducks' offensive coordinator and Missouri (1993-98). He was also on the staff for four seasons at Eastern Michigan as a defensive line assistant coach (1992), recruiting coordinator (2001) and offensive line assistant coach (1989-90).

McHugh got his start in the football business at the high school level in 1983 as an assistant coach at Liberty-Benton High School before working for five seasons at Northmor High School as an assistant coach (1984) and head coach (1985-88).

McHugh played two seasons of collegiate football during a three-year stretch from 1979-81 as a tight end and wide receiver at Findlay and was a member of the school's 1979 NAIA national championship team. He was also on the track and field squad. In addition, McHugh spent two seasons (1976-77) as a wide receiver at Potomac State College.

ERNIE CHU

ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR

Ernie Chu is in his fourth season as Cal's assistant video coordinator in 2011. He assists with video evaluation of practices and games while also working to produce recruiting, motivational and instructional videos.

A native of nearby Albany and a graduate of Albany High School, Chu previously worked for three seasons in the UC Davis football video office from 2005-07, including the final two campaigns as the head video coordinator.

Chu is a 2007 graduate of UC Davis, earning a pair of bachelor's degrees in Biological Sciences and Economics. He has been enrolled in the MBA program at UC Davis since the fall of 2010.

MATT FOX

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Matt Fox is in his 10th season as the video coordinator for Cal football in 2011. He assists the football program with its video evaluation from practices and games, in addition to coordinating video projects for recruiting, motivational and instructional tapes, and other electronic needs within the department.

After serving as a student assistant in the video office at Oregon from 1999-2000, Fox spent the 2001 season as the assistant video coordinator at TCU. He joined the Cal staff in his current role in March 2002.

Fox earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Oregon in 2001.

He and his wife, Tove, married in July of 2009 and reside in Oakland.

JULIE GUZMAN

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Julie Guzman is in her second season as Cal's assistant football athletic trainer in 2011 after joining the program just after the beginning of the 2010 campaign. Her responsibilities include supervision of the graduate intern and undergraduate sports medicine intern programs, as well as the long-term rehabilitation of Cal student-athletes. She has previous collegiate athletic training experience as a graduate assistant at Stanford from 2008-10 and as a student trainer at Cal (2008) and Eastern Michigan (2006-08). She was also the Medical Director of Summer Sports Camps at UCLA in 2010 and spent four years as a United States Marines from 1998-2002.

Guzman earned a bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Eastern Michigan in 2008 and a master's in Athletic Training from San Jose State in 2010. She is a certified athletic trainer with the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Guzman lives in Alameda and loves to surf in her spare time. She is currently training to become an amateur boxer.

DENIS HALLIN

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Denis Hallin is in his eighth season with the Cal football program in 2011 after working in the athletic business office from 2000-04. Hallin provides administrative support and is a key player in the behind the scenes operation of the program. In addition to his duties as the team's administrative assistant, he also assists with football operations and advance travel for away games.

A 2000 graduate of UC Santa Barbara with a bachelor's degree in Sociology, the Oakland native now resides with his wife, Keri, and dog, Jena, in Alameda.

CHIDI IWUOMA

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Chidi Iwuoma is in his second season in his role as an assistant director of student-athlete development with the Cal football program in 2011. He is responsible for assisting in the academic performance of Cal football players.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in Social Welfare from Cal in 2001, Iwuoma embarked on an eight-year playing career in the National Football League from 2001-08. During the period, he was a member of NFL rosters in Detroit, New England, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Tennessee, with the Steelers winning Super Bowl XL following the 2005 season with Iwuoma a member of the squad.

Iwuoma was a standout defensive back for the Golden Bears as a four-year letterwinner from 1997-2000 and still ranks second on the school's all-time list for pass breakups with 35.

Prior to returning to the Golden Bears' football prior to the 2010 campaign, Iwuoma spent the 2009-10 academic year working in the Cal Athletic Study Center assisting student-athletes with a wide range of academic topics.

MICHELLE LESLEY JOHNSON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Michelle Lesley Johnson is in her second season with the Cal football program in 2011 as an assistant director of student-athlete development. She is responsible for assisting in the academic performance of Cal football players.

Prior to beginning her current role, Johnson was an assistant tutorial coordinator for the Cal Athletic Study Center during the 2009-10 academic year. In the summer of 2010, Johnson interned as an academic advisor for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's gymnastics, men's crew and softball.

A 2010 graduate of the Berkeley Cultural Studies of Sport in Education master's program, Johnson won Cal's 2009 Heffernan Award and was the 2010 National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) Graduate Student Regional Conference Scholar for the Pacific Region.

Johnson earned a bachelor's degree with distinction in Communications Studies and Afro-American Studies from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and worked previously in the entertainment industry. A produced television writer, she often workshops with players to improve their writing skills.

TAGGART McCURDY

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT, DEFENSE

Former Cal player Taggart McCurdy is in his fifth season on the Cal football staff in 2011. McCurdy returns to an administrative assistant role on the defensive side of the ball in 2011 after serving the previous two campaigns as a graduate assistant on defense. McCurdy assisted a 2010 defensive staff that coached the Bears to Pac-10 leading and national top-20 numbers in sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13 NCAA), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 19 NCAA) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21 NCAA). He was previously an administrative assistant for the defensive coaches in 2007 and 2008.

McCurdy, who played in all 26 games for Cal in 2003 and '04, began his professional career by working in the Cal Athletic Study Center in 2005. He also served as the linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator at Diablo Valley College in 2006.

WES McGAUGH

FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Wes McGaugh is in his fourth season as the football athletic trainer at Cal in 2011. McGaugh oversees the injury prevention, evaluation and management for the Cal football program, as well as player injury rehab.

He previously spent three campaigns as an assistant trainer with the San Francisco 49ers from 2005-07.

McGaugh earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sports Science from Howard Payne University in 2002, and was honored as the school's Outstanding Young Graduate of the Year in 2009. He added a master's in Sports Health Care from the Arizona School of Health Sciences in 2004.

McGaugh is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

He has taken up an interest in running and has recently participated in four marathons.

McGaugh and his wife, Patty, reside in Santa Clara.

ANDREW McGRAW

RECRUITING ASSISTANT

Andrew McGraw is in his 12th season as Cal's primary recruiting assistant in 2011. He has helped the Golden Bears sign several highly-ranked recruiting classes during his tenure at Cal, including a 2010 incoming group that ranked as high as No. 11 in the nation and a 2011 class that posted a No. 14 national ranking. In addition, McGraw serves as Cal's high school football camp director.

He started his tenure at Cal in 1996 as a recruiting assistant before working as a defensive assistant the following two seasons and then moving back into his current role.

McGraw received his bachelor's degree in Geography from Cal in 1995.

He and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Oakland with their son, Zach, and daughter, Ella.

RYAN McKINLEY

GRADUATE ASSISTANT, DEFENSE

Ryan McKinley is in his first season at Cal in 2011 as a graduate assistant on the defensive side of the ball, where he works primarily with the team's linebackers. McKinley manages opponent game file breakdowns, generates opponent scouting reports, facilitates opponent scout teams and assists the defensive staff in game preparation.

McKinley comes to Cal after coaching the linebackers the past two seasons at Fresno City College, where he helped develop two first-team All-State and four first-team All-Central Valley Conference linebackers that led the Rams to a pair of league crowns, winning the outright title in 2010 and a co-championship in 2009. In 2010, Fresno City College was the CVC's top-ranked unit in total defense, rush defense and sacks following a 2009 campaign in which the unit set a California state record with 51.0 sacks.

In his final season at Fresno State, McKinley was a defensive student assistant coach who assisted the defensive staff with weekly game preparation. He was a linebacker for the Bulldogs from 2004-07 and earned Western Athletic Conference All-Academic honors in 2006. McKinley obtained both a master's degree in Kinesiology in May 2010 and a bachelor's in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing in December 2008 from Fresno State.

A native of Reno, McKinley was a member of the Reno High School football team that won the 2003 4A state title.

McKinley is the son of Scott and Susan McKinley, and has two siblings. His sister, Eryn Xavier, M.D., is the Chief Resident of her Family Medicine and Residency Program. His brother, Allen McKinley, is studying Construction Management, at Cal Poly. McKinley's brother-in-law, Gary Xavier, is a Media Marketing Manager for one of the largest radio broadcasting companies in the United States.

McKinley is single and resides in Walnut Creek.

Moosman has two grown children, Lucas and Lindsay, and a newborn granddaughter, Emilee.

KEVIN PARKER

RECRUITING ASSISTANT

Kevin Parker is in his 10th season as a recruiting assistant at Cal in 2011. Parker works on all aspects of on-campus recruiting and is also one of the team's leaders in giving back to the community, regularly speaking and arranging outreach events for Cal players. He received two prestigious honors for his efforts during the 2009 season, being selected as the team's recipient of the Everett Merriman Award for his commitment to community service, as well as being presented with the Wishes-Come-True Inspirational Award at a banquet in San Diego the day before the Poinsettia Bowl.

Parker played tailback and wide receiver at Oregon, twice being named the Ducks' Most Inspirational Player. He spent the 2001 season with the Detroit Fury of the Arena Football League.

Parker earned his bachelor's degree in Sociology from Oregon in 1999.

The Oakland native lives in San Pablo with his wife, Melissa, his three sons, Kevin II, Kevion and Jayden, and stepson, Larry White.

JOSH PHILLIPS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Now in his second season at Cal in 2011, Josh Phillips is an experienced trainer, athlete, coach and competitor. He is a full-time assistant for football and works with the women's gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf programs.

In 2010-11, Cal's men's and women's golf programs qualified for the NCAA Championship.

Prior to arriving at Cal in August of 2010, Phillips spent one year at UC Santa Barbara where he was an assistant sports performance coach during the 2009-10 athletic year. He worked with 20 varsity sports, with a focus on baseball, softball, and track and field. His responsibilities included athlete instruction, training and program development. He also piloted speed development clinics and assisted with nutritional needs assessment and dietary program implementation.

Phillips also had a stint as a performance intern at the Peak Performance Project in Santa Barbara, where he worked with collegiate and professional athletes from the NBA, NFL, MLB, AVP Tour and Olympic sports. P3 is renowned for its application of cutting edge science to athlete performance enhancement.

In addition, Phillips has three seasons as a collegiate football coach and one at the high school level on his resume.

He was the defensive coordinator at Pierce College in Woodland Hills in 2009, leading the two-year school to its first American Pacific Conference crown in 24 years.

Phillips spent the 2007 and 2008 campaigns as the secondary coach and co-special teams coordinator at Wagner College, leading the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) squad to the No. 6 national ranking in total defense in 2007 and a No. 3 ranking against the pass in 2008.

In 2006, Phillips was the defensive backs coach and assisted with special teams at Santa Monica High School.

Before beginning his career in coaching and sports performance, Phillips' played three seasons of professional football from 2002-04 with NFL Europe's Amsterdam Admirals (2002), the NFL's Houston Texans (2002) and the Chicago Rush of the Arena Football League (2003-04).

Phillips played his collegiate football at Yale from 1997-2001.

Phillips earned a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Yale in 1999. He also picked up a master's degree in Business Administration from Wagner in 2008 and in kinesiology with an emphasis in biomechanics from Cal State Northridge in 2011.

BIG GAME HISTORY & RECORDS

BIG GAME HISTORY

On Nov. 19, 2011, California and Stanford will play the 114th Big Game to continue one of the greatest rivalries in college football. The series, which dates back to 1892 is tied for the 10th-longest running series between Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams and has featured some of the most memorable finishes in the history of the sport.

Cal enters this year's match-up at Stanford Stadium trailing the all-time series, 56-46-11, but has won seven of the last nine contests between the teams since Jeff Tedford became the Golden Bear head coach in 2002. Tedford has equaled Pappy Waldorf for the most Big Game victories by a Cal coach with his current total of seven.

The Cal-Stanford series has been a remarkably close rivalry, with the Big Game having been determined by a touchdown or less 51 times.

The status of the rivalry as one of the truly great sporting spectacles across the country was undoubtedly established in the very first game, when Stanford upset Cal, 14-10, on March 19, 1892, in a contest played on a field at the corner of Haight and Stanyan streets in San Francisco. Stanford manager Herbert C. Hoover, later to become the 31st president of the United States, and his Cal counterpart counted the gate receipts and reported a then-staggering sum of $30,000.

The game continued to grow in popularity with capacity crowds becoming the norm. In 1923, Cal opened Memorial Stadium with a 9-0 win to cap an undefeated season. Stanford and Cal also opened Stanford Stadium in 1921 with the Bears winning, 42-7, en route to the Rose Bowl.

Cal achieved great success in the series under Waldorf, who retired with a 7-1-2 record vs. Stanford from 1947-56. The 1949 game was highlighted by Jim Monachino's 84-yard run – still the longest rush by a Cal player in Big Game history

Five Big Games have been won on the final play, starting with the 1972 meeting in Berkeley. Cal faced fourth down from the Stanford seven-yardline with three seconds to go. But Vince Ferragamo completed a touchdown pass to a diving Steve Sweeney, giving the Bears a 24-21 win.

Two years later, Stanford's Mike Langford booted a 50-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Cardinal to a 22-20 decision over the Bears.

In 1982, Cal won on a five-lateral, 57-yard kickoff return that will forever be remembered as "The Play." Trailing 20-19, the Bears received Stanford's kick with just four seconds left. Cal proceeded to travel the length of the field and march through the Stanford Band to produce an improbable 25-20 victory.

The Cardinal prevailed in 1990 by scoring nine points in the final 12 seconds. John Hopkins connected on a 37-yard field goal as time ran out for a 27-25 win.

Finally, in 2000, Cal and Stanford played the first overtime game in the history of the series, with the Cardinal emerging 36-30 winners.

For the 100th renewal of the series, the teams donned uniforms representative of the ones they wore more than a half-century earlier. On the night prior to the Nov. 21, 1997 contest, a gala event dubbed the "Big Auction" raised more than $1 million in scholarship funds for each school.

In last year's Big Game at Memorial Stadium, Stanford was a 48-14 winner, reclaiming the Axe after Cal was victorious in the previous two meetings.

THE AXE

The Stanford Axe, the trophy awarded to the winner of the Big Game every year, actually made its debut on the eve of a baseball game between the rival universities on April 13, 1899. On that afternoon at a pre-game rally, a group of Stanford students introduced the instrument to decapitate a straw man adorned in California blue and gold, much to the delight of the Indian faithful who chanted "Give 'em the axe" while the proceedings continued.

The next day, Stanford rooters taunted their Cal counterparts by cutting pieces of blue and gold ribbon with the Axe and by using it to chop at a designated piece of wood whenever the Indians made a good play.

Cal rallied for an upset over Stanford and the Golden Bear fans were so overcome with emotion that a group of Cal men wrestled The Axe away from the Stanford students and smuggled it across the bay via ferry. The Axe was placed in a safe at a Berkeley bank, to be removed once a year for the Axe Rally.

By 1933, both sides decided that the Axe would make an ideal Big Game trophy. It was mounted on a plaque that lists the scores of each game since 1933.

September 4, 2010 • TV: CSN California • Attendance: 58,040

BERKELEY – Freshman Keenan Allen was brilliant in his collegiate debut, running 18 yards for a second-quarter touchdown, then catching a 48-yard TD pass from Kevin Riley to start Cal's second-half scoring in a 52-3 rout of UC Davis

Riley threw for 258 yards and three touchdowns in just more than a half of work, helping head coach Jeff Tedford become Cal's winningest coach in the modern era as the Bears won for a sixth time in their last seven season openers.

Shane Vereen ran for two scores and caught a touchdown pass, all in the first half. Marvin Jones made a 13-yard TD reception for Cal.

UC Davis avoided being shut out when it got a 43-yard field goal from Sean Kelley at the 10:24 mark of the third quarter. Not much went right for the Aggies, who shocked Stanford 20-17 on The Farm in 2005.

The Bears are 6-0 in openers at home under Tedford, who passed Pappy Waldorf for the most coaching victories at Cal in the modern era with 68. Waldorf went 67-32-4 from 1947-56.

September 11, 2010 • TV: FSN/CSN Bay Area • Attendance: 55,440

BERKELEY – Kevin Riley threw a career-high-tying four touchdown passes and Shane Vereen caught one touchdown pass and ran for another score as the Golden Bears (2-0) broke out to a 31-0 halftime lead en route to a 52-7 win. Colorado had negative total yards after nearly 20 minutes, threw three interceptions, lost two fumbles and committed nine penalties.

Riley threw a 13-yard TD pass to Vereen to cap Cal's second drive and the blowout ensued. Jarred Price stripped Hansen on a sack and Mychal Kendricks recovered at the Colorado 31. Six plays later, Riley found Marvin Jones for a 4-yard score in the closing minute of the first quarter.

On the first play of the second quarter, Bryant Nnabuife came up with the interception that set up Giorgio Tavecchio's 31-yard field goal that made it 17-0. Mike Mohamed returned an interception 41 yards for a touchdown in the closing seconds of the first half.

Riley finished 15 for 24 for 197 yards, adding touchdown passes in the fourth quarter to Keenan Allen and Isi Sofele. Mohamed matched a career high with 14 tackles, while Kendricks finished with 12 stops, 2.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and a fumble recovery. In all, the Bears had 6.0 sacks and force five turnovers on the afternoon.

RENO – Colin Kaepernick ran for 148 yards and three touchdowns and passed for 181 yards and two more scores in Nevada's 52-31 victory over California. Marlon Johnson scored on a 65-yard interception return, and Vai Taua added 151 yards rushing.

Shane Vereen ran for a career-high 198 yards and three touchdowns for the Bears. Cal was without linebacker Mike Mohamed, the Pac-10's leading tackler a year ago who was out with a sprained toe. Cal entered the game leading the nation in fewest yards allowed averaging 161.9 per game. But Nevada had 297 by the half while holding Cal to only 136 as the Wolf Pack scored on four of their six possessions for a 24-14 lead.

On the first series of the second half, Vereen ran 50 yards for a touchdown to pull Cal to 24-21. Nevada went three and out on the next series, but six plays later Johnson stepped in front of Cal quarterback Kevin Riley's quick out intended for Alex Lagemann and raced 65 yards down the sideline for a 31-21 lead.

Marvin Jones had career highs of 12 receptions and 161 receiving yards for Cal.

TUCSON – Nick Foles threw a three-yard pass to Juron Criner with 1:11 to play for the game's only touchdown and No. 14 Arizona escaped with a 10-9 victory over California in the Pac-10 opener for both teams.

The winning seven-play, 77-yard drive came after California's Giorgio Tavecchio missed a 40-yard field goal try with 2:37 to play. The Wildcats clinched the victory when Kevin Riley's pass bounced off the hands of Marvin Jones and was intercepted by Joseph Perkins. Perkins fumbled but Robert Golden recovered for Arizona.

It appeared that Tavecchio's field goals of 25, 40 and 23 yards would be enough for the Bears, who had shut down Arizona's prolific offense a week after giving up 497 yards at Nevada. The Wildcats helped out with 10 penalties for 99 yards. Foles completed 25 of 39 passes for 212 yards but had two critical firsthalf turnovers.

His fumble on a sack by Cal's Cameron Jordan on the final play of the first quarter, which was recovered by Mychal Kendricks, led to the Bears' first field goal. Then, in the final seconds of the half, he was intercepted in the end zone after Arizona had driven to the Cal 13.

Shane Vereen, who had a game-clinching touchdown run in Cal's victory over Arizona a year ago, rushed for 102 yards on 27 carries. He was the workhorse as the Bears drove downfield in the final minutes but Tavecchio's 40-yard field goal try was wide right.

October 9, 2010 • TV: FSN/CSN Bay Area • Attendance: 61,664

BERKELEY – Shane Vereen rushed for 151 yards and two touchdowns, Marvin Jones scored on a 48-yard reverse and California's defense limited UCLA to 144 yards of offense in the Golden Bears' 35-7 victory.

Kevin Riley ran for a score and threw a short TD pass to Keenan Allen for the Bears, who rolled to a 28-0 halftime lead in their first game back from a bye after two straight losses.

Cal smothered UCLA's struggling offense from the opening drive, holding the Bruins to 58 yards in the first half while snapping UCLA's three-game winning streak.

Kevin Prince passed for 99 yards and a score for the Bruins, who haven't won in six trips to Strawberry Canyon since 1998. UCLA's rushing offense, ranked 10th in the nation with 262.4 yards per game heading to Berkeley, managed just 26 yards against the Bears.

Although Riley was just 9 of 16 for 83 yards, coach Jeff Tedford's offense methodically chewed up yardage and time of possession, capping a 304-yard rushing performance on Jones' run through traffic with 8:56 to play.

Isi Sofele rushed for a career-best 80 yards for the Bears, whose defense had much more success against UCLA's version of the Pistol than it did last month against the same offense at Nevada, which dropped 52 points and 497 yards on Cal.

Johnathan Franklin rushed for just 54 yards and committed a key fumble for UCLA. The Bruins never found rhythm in their usually solid running game.

LOS ANGELES – Matt Barkley passed for 352 yards and a school record-tying five touchdowns, and Southern California roared to a 42-point halftime lead while snapping its first losing streak in nine years with a 48-14 victory against California.

Robert Woods and Ronald Johnson caught two scoring passes apiece for the Trojans (5-2, 2-2 Pac-10). Woods had seven catches for 116 yards in the freshman's second straight outstanding game.

USC overwhelmed the Golden Bears from the opening drive. The Trojans held Cal scoreless until late in the third quarter when Shane Vereen scored on a 31-yard pass from Kevin Riley, and the offense racked up 372 of its 604 total yards in the first half.

Kevin Riley passed for 193 yards and threw two interceptions in the Bears' seventh straight loss to USC. Cal hasn't won at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum since 2000.

Shane Vereen and Keenan Allen caught late TD passes for the Golden Bears, who led the Pac-10 in several defensive categories heading into the game.

BERKELEY – Kevin Riley passed for 240 yards and two touchdowns, Shane Vereen continued his march up Cal's career scoring charts and the Bears bounced back from their most lopsided loss of the season to beat Arizona State 50-17.

Vereen rushed for 91 yards and scored his 12th and 13th touchdowns this season while Chris Conte scored on a 6-yard blocked punt return for Cal. Arizona State scored its only touchdowns on a blocked punt return by Oliver Aaron and a 25-yard fumble return by Clint Floyd.

Riley completed 19 of 29 passes and did not throw an interception. Vereen scored on runs of 8 and 5 yards, giving him 26 career rushing touchdowns. That moved him into a fifth-place tie with Justin Forsett on Cal's all-time list. Russell White holds the school record with 35. Giorgio Tavecchio made three field goals, hitting from 23, 26 and 40 yards. The Bears reached 50 points for the third time this season, following back-to-back 52-point games in their season-opening wins over UC Davis and Colorado.

CORVALLIS – Jacquizz Rodgers threw for a touchdown before running for three more and Oregon State defeated California 35-7. Rodgers rushed for 119 yards for the Beavers, who led 28-0 at the half.

California was stung in the first quarter when quarterback Kevin Riley injured his left knee and had to be helped off the field. Riley did not return and was replaced by backup Brock Mansion.

Oregon State quarterback Ryan Katz completed 20 of 27 passes for 184 yards before the Beavers pulled most of its offensive starters midway through the fourth quarter.

Mansion completed 14 of 24 passes for 138 yards, including a 45- yard scoring pass to Anthony Miller with 20 seconds left in the game.

Riley emerged in the second half in sweats and on crutches. He has passed for 1,409 yards this season with 13 touchdowns and six interceptions.

GAME SUMMARIES 9-10

CALIFORNIA 20, at WASHINGTON STATE 13

November 6, 2010 • TV: CSN California/FSN NW • Attendance: 17,648

PULLMAN – Shane Vereen ran for 112 yards and two touchdowns, and California snapped a six-game road losing streak that dated to last season with a 20-13 win over Washington State.

Brock Mansion started in the place of an injured Kevin Riley, completing 12-of-24 passes for 174 yards while throwing two interceptions.

It was a staunch defensive effort by Cal, which had lost its previous four road games this season by a combined score of 145-61, that put the Bears back on a winning track.

Vereen's first score was Cal's first touchdown, a 2-yard rushing score that was the end result of a season-best 95-yard Cal drive early in the second quarter.

Washington State managed a 10-7 lead at halftime thanks to a 51-yard field goal by Andrew Furney. Cal responded early in the third, though, as Jeremy Ross took a fly sweep 27 yards for a touchdown with 11:17 left in the third quarter to give the Bears the lead for good.

Another Furney field goal cut the Cal lead to 14-13 with 1:24 remaining in the third, but the Bears extended the lead to seven with a 10-play, 65-yard scoring drive capped by Vereen's 1-yard touchdown run that gave the Bears a 20-13 lead but the PAT was blocked.

The Cougars went three-and-out in their final two possessions and the Bears were able to run out the clock.

OREGON 15, at CALIFORNIA 13

November 13, 2010 • TV: VERSUS (HD, 3D) • Attendance: 65,963

BERKELEY – Jeff Maehl caught a 29-yard touchdown pass for the Ducks' only offensive touchdown, and Oregon got a huge break on a missed field goal to beat California 15-13.

Cal kicker Giorgio Tavecchio erased his own 24-yard field goal, which would have put the Golden Bears ahead by one early in the fourth quarter, by committing an illegal motion penalty. He then missed a 29-yard try on the next play, marking the first time he has missed from shorter than 30 yards in his career.

Cliff Harris returned a punt 64 yards for the only touchdown in the first half for the Ducks. Darron Thomas passed for 155 yards and led a final drive that chewed up the last 9:25. The Bears held the nation's most potent offense to a season-low 317 yards, but couldn't get the Ducks' offense off the field when they most needed a stop.

Cal defensive lineman Derrick Hill forced a fumble and recovered it in the end zone for the Bears, who lost in Strawberry Canyon for the first time all season – but only after putting a mighty scare into their first top-ranked opponent in five years.

November 20, 2010 • TV: FSN/CSN Bay Area • Attendance: 67,793

BERKELEY – Andrew Luck threw two TD passes as the Cardinal beat Cal 48-14 for its most lopsided win in the Big Game in 80 years. Luck completed 16 of 20 passes for 235 yards and added 72 yards on the ground. Stepfan Taylor ran for three scores as the Cal defense had no answers for Luck and the Cardinal's power game.

Brock Mansion fumbled the first snap from center, threw two interceptions, lost a fumble and finished 19-for-37 for 173 yards.

Shane Vereen ran for 63 yards and Cal got its first score on a 17-yard TD pass from wide receiver Keenan Allen to Marvin Jones early in the fourth quarter to make it 45-7. In the closing seconds, Isi Sofele took a lateral from Allen and scored to help the Bears avoid matching the most one-sided loss in Big Game history.

Stanford reserve receiver Jamal-Rashad Patterson was ejected as each team was hit with a personal foul during the opening coin toss.

WASHINGTON 16, at CALIFORNIA 13

November 27, 2010 • TV: CSN California/FSN Northwest • Attendance: 44,613

BERKELEY – Chris Polk scored on a 1-yard run as time expired, and Washington denied California bowl eligibility while keeping its own postseason hopes alive with a 16-13 victory.

Quarterback Jake Locker, who threw an earlier 80-yard touchdown pass, was stopped on consecutive sneak attempts on second and third down from the 1 before Polk came through for the Huskies.

Cal (5-7, 3-6), playing in a downpour for much of the final game at Memorial Stadium before the 87-year-old venue undergoes a major renovation, lost its third straight.

Locker went 17 for 27 for 237 yards and was sacked three times. He set up the winning score with a 46-yard completion to a diving Jermaine Kearse.

Giorgio Tavecchio kicked a go-ahead 47-yard field goal with 10:53 left for Cal after Cameron Jordan scooped up Locker's fumble and ran it 20 yards for a touchdown late in the third quarter for the Bears, who were hurt by seven penalties for 74 yards.

Cal, which shut out an opponent in a first half for the fifth time this season, has missed the postseason for the first time since 2002, coach Jeff Tedford's first season.

Tavecchio's career-best 53-yard field goal as the first half expired put Cal ahead 3-0. It tied for the seventh-longest in school history and was two yards short of the school record.

The Huskies were limited to 123 yards in the first half. Bears quarterback Brock Mansion was 12 for 23 for 92 yards. Cal junior tailback Shane Vereen ran for 106 yards to extend his career-high season total to 1,167 with his 11th career 100-yard game.

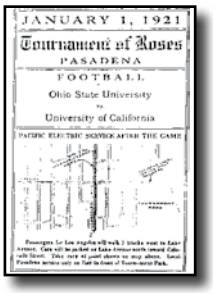
BOWL HISTORY



ROSE BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1921

OHIO STATE 0

College football may never again witness the sheer dominance displayed by California's legendary "Wonder Teams" of the 1920s, and the 1920 football team, in particular, will forever be remembered as one of the sport's all-time great teams. Under the genius of coach Andy Smith, the Golden Bears completely dismantled opponents en route to an 8-0 record and made their first appearance in the Rose Bowl. Despite their record and having outscored opponents by a total margin of 482-14, the Bears entered the contest as an underdog. Possibly because some Easterners had not yet developed much respect for sutdent-athletes on the West Coast, a respected Ohio State team was predicted to beat Cal by six points.

The Bears wasted little time in refuting such predictions, as Pesky Sprott scored a touchdown early in the first quarter to give California a 7-0 lead. Smith's team was able to score two more touchdowns in the second quarter while a ferocious Bear defense held Ohio State scoreless for a 21-0 halftime lead. One of the scores came on a piece of Wonder Team trickery, as Sprott pitched the ball to end Brick Muller on a reverse who heaved the ball over 50 yards to Brodie Stephens for the touchdown. That play helped Cal break the game open and is thought of as one of the most famous plays in the history of the Rose Bowl. The Bears subsequently earned the unofficial national title.

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON 0

California's Wonder Team of 1921 defeated every opponent they faced in the regular season, scoring a total of 167 points against conference opponents while only allowing 10. California took a 9-0 record into its second straight Rose Bowl, and although the Bears were predicted to record an easy victory, steady rains had reduced the field to a quagmire, and coach Andy Smith predicted a 0-0 tie. The Bears were fortunate to escape with that, as they only gained 49 yards in total offense and had two first downs while Washington and Jefferson had a 36-yard touchdown run called back on an offside penalty. The Bears original strategy to use a wide-open passing attack was impossible given the condition of the field, and they instead had to rely entirely on power. The results were almost disastrous for the Bears, but Archie Nisbet averaged 39.7 yards on 13 punts and deserved much credit for keeping the Presidents from the end zone.

Washington and Jefferson had a distinct advantage in maturity as most of the men on its team were older than the average college player, and California originally objected to having to play a team from a school whose scholarship requirements were far below that of California. The relatively unknown school representing the East was able to keep the Bears from scoring in the swamp-like condition of the field and put an end to California's winning streak at 18 games.

GEORGIA TECH 8
CALIFORNIA 7

The Rose Bowl of 1929 will be remembered forever as one of the most amazing and most talked about games played in the history of collegiate football. California faced an undefeated Georgia Tech squad in a very closely contested battle that was made most memorable thanks to a single play by California's Roy Riegels. After a scoreless first quarter, the Bears threatened by moving the ball to Georgia Tech's 25-yard-line. They were unable to get any farther, however, and possession was lost on downs. The next play became one of the most famous (or infamous) of all time. Riegels, California's All-American center, placed his name in the game's lore when Georgia Tech's Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Bears' Benny Lom at the Georgia Tech 30. Riegels scooped up the fumble and started in the right direction, but suddenly he spun around and headed the wrong way. Riegels had reached the Cal one-yard-line before Lom was able to spin him back around, only to be tackled by Georgia Tech. The play led to a safety when the Engineers blocked Lom's subsequent punt.

Georgia Tech had a 2-0 lead at halftime, then scored again in the third quarter for an 8-0 lead going into the fourth quarter. The Bears finally scored late in the fourth quarter when Lom passed to Irv Phillips in the end zone.

ALABAMA 0

California returned to the Rose Bowl with the "Thunder Team" of 1937. With a devastating offensive backfield and a rock-solid defense, the Golden Bears trampled their opponents in the regular season, posting a 9-0-1 record and scoring a total of 201 points while allowing only 33. The Bears, under coach Stub Allison, recorded six shutouts against opponents and utilized a punishing ground game which not only earned the team the nickname "The Thunder Team" but landed the undefeated squad a berth in the Rose Bowl.

In the Rose Bowl of 1938, the Bears recorded an impressive victory over Alabama, 13-0. California relied on its brilliant backfield of Vic Bottari and Sam Chapman to pave the way on offense. And on defense, the Bears rendered the Crimson Tide offense ineffective, holding Alabama scoreless. Following a fumble recovery by Perry Schwartz in the second quarter, the Bears marched 61 yards and scored on a four-yard run by Bottari. The only other score came early in the third quarter, when Bottari added a second touchdown on another four-yard run, making the final margin 13-0. California had completed an undefeated season for the first time since the Wonder Teams of the 1920s, and was rewarded with its most recent national championship.

Pappy Waldorf will always be remembered as one of the greatest coaches ever at California, and his 1948 team was the first of three consecutive squads he would lead to the Rose Bowl. The Bears of 1948 crushed their opponents en route to an undefeated 10-win regular season and a berth in the Rose Bowl of 1949. The Bears scored nearly three times as many total points as they allowed, and proved themselves as the top team on the West Coast.

The Rose Bowl of 1949 was billed as a battle of wits, as it pitted Pappy Waldorf against one of his former players, Northwestern coach Bob Voights. It proved to be an outstanding game, as the Bears matched the running of Jackie Jensen and Jack Swaner against Frank Aschenbrenner, Ed Tunnicliff and Art Murakowski of Northwestern. Aschenbrenner opened the scoring with a 73-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, but Jensen returned the favor with a 67-yard scoring run of his own on the next series. The game may have been decided on a controversial touchdown in the second quarter, when Murakowski scored from one yard out as he fumbled into the end zone. With Jensen sidelined by leg cramps, the Bears took the lead, 14-13, in the third quarter on a run by Swaner. Northwestern came back, however, to score the winning touchdown on a 43-yard run by Tunnicliff with 2:59 left in the game. Although the Bears lost the game, the final Associated Press Poll still ranked California fourth in the nation.

ROSE BOWL

OHIO STATE 17
CALIFORNIA 14

The Golden Bears entered the 1950 Rose Bowl with a perfect 10-0 regular season record and what many considered to be the West Coast's finest post-World War II team. Under coach Pappy Waldorf, the 1949 Bears were an even more dominant team than the previous year's Rose Bowl team. Cal scored an average of over 30 points per contest while only allowing slightly over 11 points per game in the regular season.

The Bears had built a 7-0 halftime lead on a seven-yard run by Jim Monachino, but Ohio State scored 14 unanswered points to open a 14-7 lead at the end of the third quarter. Monachino stunned the Buckeyes early in the final period when his 44-yard touchdown run tied the score at 14-14, but the Bears were to be denied once again. A bad punt by Bob Celeri gave Ohio State the ball deep in California territory late in the game and Ohio State's Jim Hague kicked a 17-yard game-winning field goal with 1:57 left in the contest. The Bears had managed to lose two consecutive Rose Bowls, but if it was any consolation, the final Associated Press Poll ranked the Golden Bears third in the country.

CALIFORNIA 6

Pappy Waldorf took his Golden Bears team of 1950 to a third consecutive Rose Bowl. Again the Bears entered the Rose Bowl as an undefeated team that had laid waste to the Pacific Coast Conference. And once again California's string of hard luck Rose Bowl defeats continued. The Bears appeared ready to give coach Waldorf his first post-season victory, as they entered the game with a 9-0-1 record, having outscored opponents 218-76 during the regular season.

On the third play of the game, Pete Schabarum exploded on a 73-yard touchdown run that was wiped out because of a penalty. The Bears went ahead 6-0 in the second quarter on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Jim Marinos to Bob Cummings, and it looked as if the Bears might get that elusive Rose Bowl victory. After halftime, however, the Wolverines dominated the action and with only 5:37 left in the game, Michigan took its first lead. Moments later they added a second touchdown to secure a 14-6 win.

Although Pappy was never able to lead California to a Rose Bowl victory, the Golden Bears compiled a 53-9-1 record under coach Waldorf from 1947-52. Even after the Bears lost to Michigan in 1951, California was ranked as high as the fourth best team in the nation in the final polls (No. 4 UPI, No. 5 AP), making it three straight seasons that the Bears had finished among the top five teams in the country.

California's last Rose Bowl appearance was one that many Old Blues would like to forget. Behind quarterback Joe Kapp and halfback Jack Hart, the Bears defeated both USC and UCLA en route to a 7-3 regular season record and the Pacific Coast Conference title. Cal was the premier team on the West Coast and on January 1, 1959, the Bears faced Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

Cal wasn't given much of a chance of upending Iowa and that played out true to form as the Hawkeyes recorded a convincing 38-12 victory. The Bears could do little to stop Iowa's powerful rushing game, as the Hawkeyes broke the Rose Bowl record for rushing yardage (429) and total offense (516). Iowa's Bob Jeter erased another Rose Bowl record with an 81-yard touchdown run and finished with 194 yards on only nine carries. Iowa had a commanding 20-0 halftime lead, then increased it to 32-6 after three quarters. Hart was able to score a pair of second half TDs on two runs, but it was hardly enough to turn the tide.

GARDEN STATE BOWL

TEMPLE	28
CALIFORNIA	17

California returned to post-season play for the first time in 20 years at the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Behind quarterback Rich Campbell, Cal featured a good offense and a solid defense that only yielded 15 points per contest in the regular season. The Bears won their first two and last two games of the year, all on the road, including impressive victories over Washington State and Stanford to bring home the Axe.

Facing Temple in the Garden State Bowl was no easy task for the Bears, as California failed to answer the Owls' rushing attack and suffered a 28-17 defeat. The Owls took control of the game early, scoring on their first three possessions to open a 21-0 first quarter lead. Campbell put the Bears back in the game on a pair of second quarter touchdown passes to Matt Bouza and Joe Rose. The scored remained 21-14 Temple until the fourth quarter when Mick Luckhurst's 34-yard field goal pulled California within four at 21-17. That was as close as the Bears were able to come, however, as Temple scored another touchdown late in the game to secure the win.

COPPER BOWL

WYOMING	15

The 1990 Golden Bears surprised the college football world by refuting predictions that they would be a last place team, capturing a 6-4-1 record and finishing in the top half of the conference for the first time since 1979. Perhaps most memorable in the regular season, California put an end to “The Streak” by beating UCLA at Memorial Stadium and making a late rally to tie USC in Los Angeles. Under coach Bruce Snyder, the Bears awakened from their hibernation of the 1980s and were hungry for their first bowl victory in more than half a century.

The Bears offense, which was very potent during the regular season, had its poorest showing of the season, netting only 261 total yards. Fortunately, California’s defense rose to the occasion to yield a season-low 15 points. Quarterback Mike Pawlawski fired a 25-yard touchdown pass to Brian Treggs in the second quarter to give the Bears a lead they would never relinquish. Robbie Keen nailed a 46-yard field goal in the third quarter, and fullback Greg Zomalt bulled into the end zone from four yards out early in the fourth as the Bears built a 17-9 advantage. In the final minutes of the game, the Bears had to hold off a Cowboy rally that included a 70-yard punt return for a touchdown. However, California stuffed the two-point conversion attempt to seal the victory.

CITRUS BOWL

CLEMSON	13

Led by Mike Pawlawski and Russell White, the Golden Bears put more points on the board than any California squad since the Wonder Team of 1920. The Bears brought a 9-2 record into their first Jan. 1 bowl game in 33 years, capping a season in which they scored a modern-day record 86 points against Pacific, won dramatic come-from-behind games at Arizona and UCLA, and scored more points than any team in history against USC, a 52-30 whipping at Memorial Stadium.

California faced a very tough Clemson squad that had one of the strongest defenses in college football. The Bears, however, exploding for 17 first quarter points to leap to open a comfortable lead before the Tigers knew what hit them. Among the first quarter highlights was a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown by Brian Treggs that just about crushed any hope Clemson had of a comeback victory, as a ferocious Bear defense kept the Tigers at bay for the rest of the afternoon. White rushed for a 103 yards on 22 carries against a run defense that had not allowed a 100-yard runner in nearly four years, and the Golden Bears proved to a national television audience that they were indeed one of the elite Top 10 teams in the nation.

ALAMO BOWL

IOWA	3

Riding a roller coaster of a regular season that began with five straight wins only to be followed by four consecutive losses and then three more victories, California received a bid to the inaugural Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. The Bears scored on four of their first five possessions and completely shut down the Iowa offensive attack, limiting the Hawkeyes to just 90 yards of total offense in the 37-3 victory.

After three Doug Brien field goals gave Cal a 9-0 lead 20 minutes into the contest, quarterback Dave Barr hit Mike Caldwell for a six-yard score. Linebacker Jerrott Willard followed by picking off a pass and rumbling 61 yards for the touchdown as time ran out in the first half to give Cal a 23-0 margin heading to the locker room. Barr, who passed for two more scores in the second half to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke and Brian Remington, finished the game 21-of-28 for 266 yards, while Lindsey Chapman led the rushing attack with 89 yards. As a team, the Bears ended the contest with an impressive time of possession advantage of 43:14 to 16:46. The victory lifted Cal into the final national polls (No. 24 Coaches/No. 25 AP).

ALOHA BOWL

NAVY 42
CALIFORNIA 38

In a game that followed a pattern established throughout the season, Cal provided plenty of offensive fireworks, but couldn't hold on in a 42-38 loss to Navy at the Aloha Bowl. Cal seemed to have the game well in hand with a 10-point lead late in the contest, but Navy rallied for a pair of touchdowns in the final eight minutes.

The game got off to a bang when Cal's Deltha O'Neal returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a score. Then the Bears settled into their offense, seeming to score at will in the first half, putting together drives of 81, 73, 35 and 61 yards en route to taking a 35-28 halftime lead. Quarterback Pat Barnes threw for three scores, two to wideout Bobby Shaw and one to tight end Sean Bullard, and O'Neal added a 31-yard TD scamper.

However, Cal could manage only a 41-yard Ryan Longwell field goal in the second half, before Navy put on its late rush that culminated on a 10-yard game-winning TD run by backup QB Ben Fay with 1:41 left in the contest.

INSIGHT BOWL

DECEMBER 26, 2003

CALIFORNIA 52
VIRGINIA TECH 49

After 98 points and 1,081 yards of offense, the Insight Bowl came down to a 35-yard field goal try, and Tyler Fredrickson made the final kick of his Cal career as time expired to give the Bears a 52-49 victory over Virginia Tech.

Cal's Aaron Rodgers flirted with 400 yards passing in an aerial duel that saw both teams rally from 14-point deficits. Rodgers was 27-of-35 passing for 394 yards and two TDs. He also ran for two scores and was named the game's offensive MVP.

Chase Lyman, starting in place of injured wide receiver Geoff McArthur, caught five passes for a Cal bowl-record 149 yards, including a 33-yarder from Rodgers for a touchdown.

Rodgers, who was 15-for-17 for 245 yards in the second half, scored on an eight-yard option play to put Cal ahead 42-28 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Virginia Tech came back as DeAngelo Hall reversed his field for a 52-yard punt return TD that tied the game at 49-49 with 3:11 remaining.

The winning drive came after Virginia Tech's subsequent kickoff went out of bounds, giving Cal the ball on the 35. Rodgers completed three passes to the Hokie 20-yard line, and a five-yard run by J.J. Arrington set up Fredrickson's winning field goal on the game's final play.

HOLIDAY BOWL

TEXAS TECH 45
CALIFORNIA 31

Perhaps pining for a Rose Bowl bid that was snatched away by voters in the final week, Cal came up against the vaunted Texas Tech aerial attack led by Sonny Cumbie and fell, 45-31, in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Cumbie threw for a career-high 520 yards and three touchdowns, as 21st-ranked Texas Tech upended the Golden Bears.

Cal's J.J. Arrington became just the third running back in Pac-10 history and the first for California to rush for 2,000 yards in a season when he reached the milestone against the Red Raiders. The senior carried 25 times for 173 yards against Tech to finish the year with a school-record 2,018 yards. His two-yard run in the first quarter was his 15th rushing touchdown of the year, breaking Cal's season record that has later been tied by Justin Forsett (2007) and Jahvid Best (2008).

Tech had four scoring drives that took under two minutes each. Trailing 14-7 after the first quarter, the Red Raiders scored 24 straight points and held a commanding 31-14 lead by early in the third quarter.

Cal quarterback Aaron Rodgers threw an 11-yard TD pass to Garrett Cross and scored on a 1-yard sneak, both in the final quarter.

LAS VEGAS BOWL

CALIFORNIA 35
BYU 28

Marshawn Lynch rushed for career highs of 194 yards and three touchdowns to win the game's MVP award, and DeSean Jackson caught two scoring passes before Cal's defense held off BYU for a 35-28 victory.

Junior Steve Levy passed for 228 yards in his second career start for the Bears, who held off BYU's fourth-quarter comeback in a high-octane game that featured 915 total yards.

Cal took a 35-14 lead into the final quarter after Lynch's 35-yard scoring run and Jackson's exceptional 22-yard diving TD catch in the third. But BYU quarterback John Beck responded with scoring passes to Jonny Harline and Todd Watkins, whose nine-yard grab with 5:35 left cut Cal's lead to the final seven-point margin.

The Bears missed a 50-yard field goal with 2:20 to play in the fourth, but the Cougars moved just seven yards before Beck's arm was hit by Cal lineman Phillip Mbakogu on the ensuing series. Daymeion Hughes intercepted the wobbling pass to seal the victory.

The Bears' stars were the difference. Jackson scored on a 42-yard romp through the BYU secondary three seconds before halftime, while Lynch had scoring runs of 3, 23 and 35 yards along with a handful of jaw-dropping second-effort rushes. His 194 yards rushing and three touchdowns on the ground also were Cal bowl records.

TEXAS A&M	10

California posted its largest margin of victory in its bowl history with a 45-10 win over Texas A&M.

In his final game in a Golden Bear uniform, Marshawn Lynch rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns to earn the game's co-offensive MVP honors. Justin Forsett was the game's leading rusher with 124 yards, and also found the end zone in the fourth quarter on an eight-yard dash.

Quarterback Nate Longshore completed 19-of-24 passes for 235 yards and a touchdown, en route to co-offensive MVP honors. Longshore also scored a touchdown on the ground in the first quarter to even the score at 7-7.

Not to be overshadowed by the offense, linebacker Desmond Bishop recorded a game-high 12 tackles to earn the game's Defensive MVP honors.

The Cal defensive unit was spectacular, allowing just 10 points, including a shutout in the second half. San Diego native Mickey Pimentel recorded seven tackles, while Eddie Young intercepted a pass (his first career INT) in the fourth quarter to highlight the other defensive notables.

ARMED FORCES BOWL

AIR FORCE	36

California scored its largest comeback victory in a bowl game with a 42-36 win over Air Force.

The Falcons' crisp option offense kept the Golden Bears guessing through the first 20 minutes as Air Force scored on two drives, then pushed in another seven points after a Bear miscue on a kickoff.

However, with Cal backup quarterback Kevin Riley stepping in under center, the Cal offense came to life. The freshman signal-caller connected with DeSean Jackson for a 40-yard score and found fellow standout receivers Lavelle Hawkins and Robert Jordan for touchdowns to pull the Bears within three, 24-21, midway through the third quarter.

Cal ran a relentless ground attack behind tailback Justin Forsett, who scored a pair of TDs before Riley put the game away with a nifty option run for a 42-30 advantage.

Riley earned MVP honors by connecting on 16-of-19 passes for 269 yards and three TDs. Forsett tallied 140 yards rushing and Thomas DeCoud paced the defense with 10 tackles. Jordan caught six catches for 148 yards.

DECEMBER 27, 2008

MIAMI, FLA.	17
CALIFORNIA	24

California played its first bowl game ever in the Bay Area and made its hometown fans happy with a 24-17 victory over Miami, Fla.

Cal jumped out to an early 14-0 first quarter lead on a pair of Jahvid Best touchdown runs but Miami eventually came back to tie the contest at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. The game remained tied until late in regulation when Nate Longshore connected with Anthony Miller on a two-yard scoring strike with 2:37 to go. The winning touchdown was set up moments earlier when Zack Follett forced a fumble deep in Hurricane territory and Cameron Jordan returned it to the Miami two-yard line.

Miami was able to put together eight plays on an ensuing drive but time ran out on the Hurricanes after reaching the Bears' 37-yard line.

Best capped a tremendous season for Cal by rushing for an Emerald Bowl record 186 yards and two touchdowns, marking his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game and eighth of the season.

The Golden Bears also set several other school bowl records, including the team's 10.0 tackles for loss, Follett's bowl-record-tying 4.0 tackles and 2.0 sacks, a 74-yard first quarter passing play between Longshore and Verran Tucker, and Jordan's seven-yard fumble return.

The Golden Bears jumped out to a two-touchdown lead but could not prevail as Utah's Jordan Wynn threw for a career-high 338 yards and three touchdowns to rally the Utes to a 37-27 victory over California in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Bears, in a bowl game for the school-record seventh straight year, had their four-game postseason winning streak snapped. The Utes scored 27 straight points to win their ninth straight bowl game, the longest streak in the country and tied for the second-longest ever following the 2009 season.

Shane Vereen, who scored twice, became the seventh Cal back to gain more than 100 yards in a bowl, finishing with 122 yards on 20 carries. Vereen started the scoring with a 36-yard touchdown run and Eddie Young intercepted Wynn on the first play of Utah's next drive, returning it 31 yards for a score.

But Utah's defense shut down Cal while the Utes offense on its last four possessions of the first half. Cal finally scored again on a 1-yard run by Vereen with 39 seconds left in the third quarter to put the Bears within six at 27-21 before Utah kicked a 25-yard field goal to pull away.

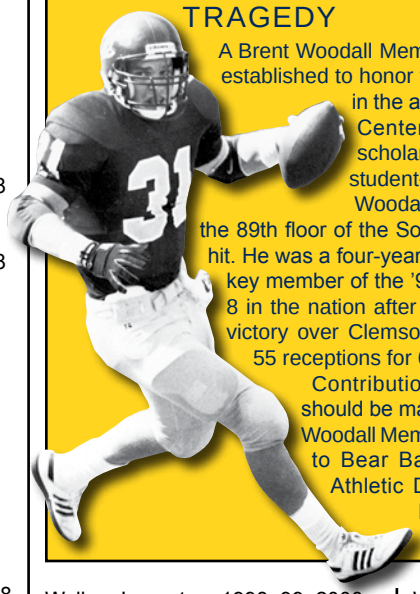
WOODALL SCHOLARSHIP CREATED FOLLOWING WORLD TRADE CENTER TRAGEDY



A Brent Woodall Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established to honor the former Cal tight end who died in the attacks on New York's World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. The scholarship will provide funding for future student-athletes to play Cal football.

Woodall was working as a stock trader on the 89th floor of the South Tower when the building was hit. He was a four-year letterman at Cal (1988-91) and a key member of the '91 squad that finished ranked No. 8 in the nation after a 10-2 record and a Citrus Bowl victory over Clemson. He completed his career with 55 receptions for 646 yards and four touchdowns.

Contributions to the Woodall Scholarship should be made out to the U.C. Regents/Brent Woodall Memorial Scholarship Fund and mailed to Bear Backers, University of California Athletic Department, 195 Haas Pavilion, Berkeley, CA 94720.

HALL OF FAMERS

The California Hall of Fame, which is located in the Hall of Fame Room in Memorial Stadium, honors the greatest Golden Bears in school history. Founded in 1986, the Hall features 234 individuals and six rowing teams. The following pages highlight the careers of all 72 Cal football players who are members of the California Hall of Fame.

TED ALBRECHT (Inducted 2000)

A standout offensive tackle for the Bears from 1974-76, Albrecht earned first team Associated Press All-American honors as a senior and went on to become a first round NFL Draft choice of the Chicago Bears. A two-time first team All-Pac-8 selection, he played alongside Joe Roth, Chuck Muncie and Wesley Walker in 1975 on one of the greatest offensive teams in school history. During that '75 season, he helped the Bears earn a share of the conference title, lead the NCAA in total offense yards and set a Cal modern record for most points in a season.

LEONARD "STUB" ALLISON (1997)

As Cal's head coach from 1935-44, Allison compiled a 10-year record of 58-42-2 and guided the Bears to a 13-0 Rose Bowl victory over Alabama in 1938. He was coach of Cal's "Thunder Teams," and his 1937 squad finished with a 10-0-1 mark and a No. 2 national Associated Press ranking. Among the All-Americans to play under Allison were Bob Herwig, John Meek, Sam Chapman, Jon Baker, Vic Bottari, Larry Lutz, Perry Schwartz, Vard Stockton and Bob Reinhard. Prior to arriving at Cal, Allison saw duty in World War I, where he earned the nickname "Top Sarge."

TROY AUZENNE (2003)

Auzenne, a left tackle for the Bears from 1988-91, earned first team All-American honors by the Football Coaches Association his senior year. Playing on Bear teams that won both the 1990 Copper Bowl (17-15 over Wyoming) and the 1992 Citrus Bowl (37-13 over Clemson), Auzenne earned All-Pac-10 first team recognition in his final season. Drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, he played five years in the NFL with the Bears (1992-95) and Indianapolis Colts (1996).

Also named first team All-Pac-10 and Cal's Most Valuable Player in 1992, Dawkins was chosen by the Indianapolis Colts in the first round of the 1993 NFL Draft. He played 10 seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis (1993-97), New Orleans (1998), Seattle (1999-2000) and Jacksonville (2001).

CHARLEY ERB (1992)

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Erb was a leader of Andy Smith's "Wonder Teams" that won consecutive conference championships in 1920, '21 and '22. He had a combined record of 27-0-1 as a starter, during which the Bears outscored their opponents, 1220-81. Erb directed Cal to its first Rose Bowl appearance and No. 1 ranking in 1920. He teamed with Pesky Sprott, Crip Toomey and Duke Morrison to form the highest scoring backfield at Cal, rolling up 72 touchdowns and 510 points during the 1920 season.

ROD FRANZ (1986)

Cal's only three-time first team All-American in football, Franz was Cal's starting right guard from 1947-49. He helped the Bears to a 29-3 cumulative record during those three seasons and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances in his two campaigns. Also an assistant coach at Cal in 1956 and '57, Franz was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1977.

WALTER GORDON (1986)

Gordon, a standout tackle and guard, was the first Cal player to achieve national recognition when he was chosen to the Walter Camp third team All-America squad in 1918. He earned three letters in football and helped the Bears to the Pacific Coast Conference championship his senior season. Voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1975, he also won the intercollegiate boxing title in 1917.

RUSTY GILL (2006)

A versatile three-year letterman, Gill played both fullback and halfback for Cal's football team. He was a dependable back who gained his greatest fame in his senior year, leading Cal to an 8-2 record and second place in the Pacific Cost Conference in 1931. Gill was tabbed with an assortment of All-American honors, including first team by both the New York Sun and the American Football Players, second team by United Press and honorable mention by the Associated Press. A first team All-Coast selection, Gill came from a very athletic family, as brothers Frank, Harry, Sam and Carol all played football at Cal.

PERCY HALL (1993)

Hall was part of one of the top backfields during the early years of Cal football (1896-99), teaming with Locomotive Smith and Kangaroo Pete Kaarsberg. Cal historian Brick Morse selected him as the first team halfback on his 1937 all-time Golden Bear football squad. In 1898, Hall helped Cal to an 8-0-2 record, including the Bears' first Big Game win over Stanford when he gained 183 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns. In addition, he played three years on Cal's baseball team at both first base and in the outfield.

JIM HANIFAN (2006)

Jim Hanifan started three years at defensive end for the Bears, and in 1953 and 1954 he also started at tight end. The Bears' 1954 team captain led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 569 yards and seven touchdowns. He received the Andy Smith Trophy for most conference minutes, was a unanimous first team All-Coast honoree and was chosen to the Catholic All-American team. After participating in the East-West Shrine Bowl, the Hula Bowl and the College All-Star game, Hanifan was selected by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League and later starred for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. In 1973, he entered the coaching ranks and has been a long-time NFL assistant and is a former NFL head coach.

LOREN HAWLEY (2007)

Loren Hawley played both rugby and football for the Bears from 1961-65 and is known as one of the best American-born rugby players to ever play the game. Tabbed "King of the Lineouts," Hawley helped revolutionize the game with his tremendous aerial skills. Playing for the legendary Miles "Doc" Hudson, he led Cal to an undefeated record vs. U.S. competition in 1965. On the football field, he was an accomplished defensive back and wide receiver.

JACK HART (2010)

A first-team all-conference selection in 1958, Hart served as co-captain the team that won the Pacific Coast Conference and played in the 1959 Rose Bowl. As a running back, he led Cal in rushing (395 yards), receiving (396 yards) and scoring (58 points) his senior season, which was capped with two touchdowns vs. Iowa in the Rose Bowl. He also paced the Bears in scoring as a sophomore (36 points) and junior (36 points). Hart has remained close to Cal and college football since graduating, serving as executive director of the annual East-West Shrine Game and as committee chairman for the Glenn Seaborg Award, which is presented to a distinguished former Cal football player each fall. He is also a past president of Pappy's Boys, an organization of players who played for head coach Pappy Waldorf that continues to support the Golden Bears.

MATT HAZELTINE (1988)

Hazeltine was an All-American center for the Bears in both 1953 and '54, playing under head coach Pappy Waldorf. He also earned Freshman All-America honors in 1951. After graduating from Cal, Hazeltine played 15 years in the NFL, the first 14 with the San Francisco 49ers, and played in a pair of Pro Bowls.

GARY HEIN (1997)

A two-sport star for the Bears, Hein started at cornerback in 1985 and '86. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and accumulated 132 tackles and eight interceptions during his career. Hein, though, gained most of his accolades on the rugby field, where he was a four-time All-American and captured the Woodley Award as the nation's top collegian in both 1987 and '88. He helped Cal to three collegiate titles and also played for the U.S. national team from 1986-94.

BOB HERWIG (1988)

A two-time first team All-Pac-10 selection, he played on Joe Kapp's 7-4 team in 1982, a year that featured "The Play" in the now-famous Big Game. Drafted in the second round by Houston, Salem played 10 seasons in the NFL with the Oilers (1983-85), Detroit Lions (1986-91) and Denver Broncos (1991-92).

PETE SCHABARUM (1998)

A rugged fullback who was a three-year letterman (1948-50) and an all-conference selection on Cal's 1950 team, Schabarum helped the Bears to a 9-1-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth that season. He went on to play three season (1951, '53-54) with the San Francisco 49ers. Schabarum also lettered in baseball at Cal in 1950.

PERRY SCHWARTZ (2002)

Schwartz earned first team All-American honors as a member of Cal's 1937 team that played in the Rose Bowl to start the new year. Perhaps his finest moment came in Pasadena when he forced an Alabama punt returner to fumble, a play that set up a Bear touchdown in Cal's 13-0 victory. Schwartz also displayed his talents on the tennis court, where he lettered for the Bears in 1934 and '35.

BERT SCHWARZ (1996)

Schwarz was a first team All-American for the Bears in 1929 when the club was 7-1-1. A two-year starter at guard, he helped Cal to a 6-2-2 record and a Rose Bowl appearance following the 1928 season.

ANDY SMITH (1986)

One of the finest football coaches in the history of the game, Smith is Cal's all-time winningest coach and led the Golden Bears to a 74-16-7 record from 1916-25. His "Wonder Teams" posted a 50-game unbeaten string (46-0-4) during one stretch, and he guided the Bears to Rose Bowl appearances in 1920 and '21. Smith was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1951.

WARREN "LOCOMOTIVE" SMITH (1995)

Smith lettered in three sports at Cal - football, baseball, track and field - between 1898-1901. He was regarded as the top back on the West Coast at the turn of the century and led Cal to its first two wins over Stanford. Smith served as captain of both the football and baseball teams, and he was a hammer thrower during track season.

PESKY SPROTT (1993)

Sprott was a standout in both football and track and field from 1918-20. He lettered on the gridiron three times as a running back and punter. Also a middle distance runner, Sprott was the PCC champion in the 800 meters in 1920 and earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic team that year, finishing sixth in the 800.

VARD STOCKTON (2005)

Stockton, who died in an auto accident in 1946, earned first team All-American, All-Pacific Coast Conference and All-West Coast honors on Cal's 1937 football team that registered a 10-0-1 record, including a 13-0 win over Alabama in the Rose Bowl. Noted for his blocking ability that opened holes for the likes of Vic Bottari and Sam Chapman, perhaps his most shining moment came in the 1936 Big Game when he stole the ball from Stanford's Jimmy Coffis to set up a touchdown in Cal's 13-0 win over its cross-town rival.

JIM TURNER (1996)

Turner was a first team All-American tackle in both 1948 and '49. He served as captain of the '49 team that finished 10-1 and earned a Rose Bowl date with Ohio State. Turner overcame a knee injury his senior season after having one of his ribs removed prior to his final campaign because of a tumor.

CARL VAN HEUIT (1992)

One of the top safeties in college football, Van Heuit played on Pappy Waldorf's Rose Bowl teams of 1949 and '50, Van Heuit was a 1950 All-American for the Bears. He also earned the team's Vard Stockton Award for being the outstanding defensive player in the two bowl games. Following graduation, Van Heuit served as an assistant coach at Cal for six seasons and as a volunteer freshman coach for another 20 years. He was selected the Bear Backer "Bear of the Year" in 1988.

FRANK "BUD" VAN DEREN (2004)

A 1948 first team all-conference end, Van Deren played on Cal clubs that posted a 19-2 record during his two seasons (1947-48). Also selected to Cal's Centennial Team, he starred on a 1948 squad that registered a 10-1 mark and earned a share of the Pacific Coast Conference championship. Van Deren also coached on Pappy Waldorf's 1950 and '51 Rose Bowl teams, returned to Cal in the 1960s to coach on Ray Willsey's staff, and later served as head coach at Humboldt State for 26 years.

PAPPY WALDORF (1987)

Head coach at Cal from 1947-56, Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record. In his first four seasons, his teams lost only one regular season game and played in three Rose Bowls. Between 1947 and 1951, Waldorf's teams played 38 consecutive regular season games without a defeat. He also has the best record of any Cal coach in the Big Game with a 7-1-2 mark. Waldorf was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966.

WESLEY WALKER (1992)

One of the greatest deep threats in Cal history, Walker was a prolific receiver for the Bears from 1973-76, in addition to starring on the track and field team for four years. He set an NCAA record for highest average gain per catch in a career (minimum 75 catches) at 25.7 ypc. Walker finished his career with 86 receptions for 2,206 yards and 23 touchdowns, with his greatest game coming against San Jose State in 1976 when he had eight grabs for a school record 289 receiving yards. He went on to a 13-year NFL career with the New York Jets (1977-89) and played in a pair of Pro Bowls.

ED WHITE (1993)

White earned first team All-American status at nose guard in 1968, playing on Cal's "Bear Minimum" defense that allowed opponents an average of only 3.6 yards per play. At the NFL level, he switched to the offensive line. White played in four Super Bowls and made four Pro Bowls while playing for the Minnesota Vikings (1969-77) and San Diego Chargers (1978-85) over a 17-year pro career. White returned to Cal to coach the offensive line from 1999-2001.

MIKE WHITE (2007)

A varsity letterman in football, rugby, and track and field at Cal from 1955-57, Mike White also served as the Bears' head football coach from 1972-77, compiling a 35-30-1 record and leading the team to a share of the 1975 Pac-8 title. As an undergraduate, White played wide receiver and was a team captain as a senior in 1957. On the track, he won the high hurdles and high jump competition in the 1957 Big Meet vs. Stanford. In addition to his three varsity sports, White also earned a pair of junior varsity letters for Pete Newell in basketball.

RUSSELL WHITE (2003)

White is Cal's all-time rushing leader with 3,367 yards and averaged 5.1 yards per carry during his three years in Berkeley from 1990-92. He was a key member of the 1991 team that posted a 10-2 record, including a 37-13 victory over Clemson in the Citrus Bowl, and earned a No. 7 final national ranking by USA Today. A first team All-American in 1991 and a two-time first team All-Pac-10 selection, White led the Bears in rushing in both 1991 (1,177 yards, 14 TDs) and 1992 (1,069 yards, 9 TDs). He registered 15 100-yard rushing days during his Cal career, tied for second all-time at Cal.

SHERMAN WHITE (1989)

Sherman White had played little football before coming to Berkeley as a sophomore in 1969. In his second year with the team (1970), he sacked opponent quarterbacks 18 times, including Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett twice in the Big Game. He also knocked down five passes, made 44 unassisted tackles and aided in 31 others. He was named first team All-Coast and All-Pac-8. As a team captain in 1971, he earned All-American honors, as well as All-Pac-8 recognition for the second straight year, when he registered 75 tackles and three pass breakups. White was the second pick overall in the 1972 NFL Draft by Cincinnati and played four seasons for the Bengals (1972-75) before playing eight more campaigns with the Buffalo Bills (1976-83) to round out his career.

ARLEIGH WILLIAMS (2004)

Williams starred in both football and baseball in the 1930s and earned first team All-American notice as a senior halfback in 1934. Williams finished his career with 1,404 yards on 526 carries. Williams lettered on the 1934 and 1935 Cal baseball teams, with both clubs finishing first in the conference and combining for a 45-15-1 record during that period.

JACK YERMAN (1994)

Yerman lettered as a running back in 1957 and 1958, helping Cal to a 1959 Rose Bowl appearance in his senior season. On the track, he was one of the top quarter-milers in the nation, running a best of 46.0 in the 400 meters. Yerman won an Olympic gold medal as part of the U.S. 1600-meter relay team in 1960 and also competed as an individual in the 400. He finished third in the NCAA 440 yards in 1958.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The California Golden Bears depicted on this page have earned the highest honor accorded a collegiate football player - membership into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. California's proud gridiron tradition is showcased by a total of 21 Golden Bears enshrined in this prestigious Hall of Fame, a number which ranks the Blue and Gold among the top schools in the country.

Housed in a $6 million structure in South Bend, Ind., the Hall of Fame first opened its doors in 1978 and is open to the public year-round.

Founded in the wake of the gold rush by leaders of the newly established 31st state, the University of California's flagship campus at Berkeley has become one of the preeminent universities in the world. Its early guiding lights, charged with providing education (both "practical" and "classical") for the state's people, gradually established a distinguished faculty (with 21 Nobel laureates to date), a stellar research library, and 350 academic degree programs.

This California institution became a catalyst of economic growth and social innovation – the place where vitamin E was discovered, a lost Scarlatti opera found, the flu virus identified, and the nation's first no-fault divorce law drafted. Scholars at Cal have conducted ground-breaking research on urban street gangs and on basic human nutritional requirements, identified why wartime supply ships were failing at sea, invented technologies to build faster and cheaper computer chips, and imaged the infant universe.

In recognition of broad and deep excellence, respected sources have repeatedly ranked the University at or near the top in fields ranging from engineering and the "hard" sciences to the social sciences, arts and humanities. The National Research Council, in the most recent version of its highly-regarded report on U.S. public and private universities, ranked Cal No. 1 nationally in the number of campus graduate programs (48 out of

DISCOVERIES AND CONTRIBUTIONS BY UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SCHOLARS

1887 • EARTHQUAKE SCIENCE

Earth Sciences professors set up the Western Hemisphere's first string of seismographic stations, to systematically record seismic activity and publish these earthquake records.

1895 • NUTRITION

M.E. Jaffe becomes the first professor of nutrition in the United States. UC Berkeley quickly moves to the top in this field, making important contributions to the emerging understanding of the positive dietary role of vitamins, minerals and protein, and the negative role of cholesterol and fats.

1907 • CLEANER SMOKESTACKS

Frederick G. Cottrell, professor of chemistry, develops an electrical precipitation device to clean smokestack emissions; it is still in use today.

1922 • VITAMIN E

Anatomy professor Herbert M. Evans and his assistant, Katharine S. Bishop, co-discover vitamin E.

1924 • DEEP-SEA DIVING

Chemist Joel H. Hildebrand formulates a mixture of helium and oxygen for deep-sea diving, enabling divers to explore deeper into the sea than ever before, without experiencing the "bends."

1931 • THE CYCLOTRON

Ernest O. Lawrence designs the first cyclotron, launching the scientific use of particle physics to discover the fundamental structure of matter. The cyclotron has a major impact on the treatment of diseases, making it possible to create in large quantities the radioactive isotopes used in medical treatments. In 1939, Lawrence becomes UC Berkeley's first Nobel laureate.

1940S • CARBON-14 AND PHOTOSYNTHESIS

A team led by chemist Melvin Calvin resolves the riddle of photosynthesis, tracing the pathways by which plants use sunlight to convert carbon dioxide to carbohydrates. As part of this effort, Calvin discovers that Carbon-14 can be used as a molecular tracer, and uses it to reveal the path of carbon as it travels through a plant. In 1961, Calvin is awarded the Nobel Prize in chemistry.

1940S • FLU VACCINE

1941 • TRANSURANIC ELEMENTS

Using the cyclotron, plutonium is produced by professors Glenn T. Seaborg and Edwin McMillan and colleagues. For this work, Seaborg and McMillan share the 1951 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

1943 • THE ATOMIC BOMB

1947-1955 • LIPOPROTEINS AND HEART DISEASE

CAL STUDENT-ATHLETE FACTS

- Half (50%) of Cal's student-athletes earned a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Divided by gender, they break out as follows: 166 men (38%) and 187 women (63%) earned a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Five of the 14 men's teams (36%) and 13 of the 15 women's teams (87%) earned cumulative GPAs of 3.0 or higher.
- Six of the 14 men's teams (42%) and 12 of the 15 women's teams (80%) earned cumulative team GPAs higher than their historical average.
- Nearly 60 percent of the University's student-athletes were honored at halftime of men's basketball and football games for earning a term GPA over 3.0.
- Over 70% of Jeff Tedford's first football recruiting class has graduated.
- Nine teams scored perfect Academic Progress Rates for the 2008-2009 academic year.
- Eight teams received national recognition for their Academic Progress Rates over the last two years.

CAL FACTS

- Berkeley has one of the top university libraries in the nation. With well over 10 million volumes and more than 400 special collections, Berkeley's library holdings are the fourth-largest in North America and have been ranked first in the nation among public libraries.
- There are over 600 clubs on campus from which students may choose.

52) among the top 10 in their fields.

In accordance with the University's "public" character, Cal has long served talented individuals regardless of means. As early as 1897, financial aid was available for "needy and deserving" students. More than a century later, Cal combines outstanding teaching and research programs with broad access for students of all means – educating more federal Pell Grant recipients from low-income families than all eight Ivy League universities combined. Twenty-five percent of freshmen are the first in their families to attend college.

(LDL), today referred to as "bad" cholesterol, and "good" high-density lipoproteins (HDL) – and discover the role of LDL and HDL in heart disease.

1952 • WETSUITS

Hugh Bradner invents first wetsuit. The new protective garment helps to spawn new sports such as board sailing and body boarding; transform commercial, military, and recreational deep-sea diving; and advance understanding of oceans.

1961• GROUND-FAULT INTERRUPTER

Charles Dalziel, a professor of electrical engineering and computer sciences, invents a ground-fault interrupter, a device now found in virtually every home and building to protect people from electrical shocks caused by defects in appliances or grounding systems.

1964 • FREE SPEECH MOVEMENT

Inspired by the Civil Rights movement and fueled by opposition to the war in Vietnam, Cal students organize against rules limiting their political activities on campus. Asserting their Constitutional rights, Free Speech Movement activists hold a series of demonstrations and actions for the right to use Sproul Plaza for political discussion and the dissemination of political literature. The student movement compels the university to drop restrictions on speech, a reform subsequently adopted by most other U.S. campuses.

1971 • BIRTH OF BIOTECH

1978 • BETA-ENDORPHIN

1980 • POET NOBELIST

Poet Czeslaw Milosz receives the Nobel Prize in literature, UC Berkeley's first Nobel outside the sciences. A native of Poland who obtained political asylum in France before becoming a Cal professor in 1961, his work was prohibited by Poland's communist government; the ban falls apart when Milosz is awarded the Nobel and becomes a national hero in his homeland. Later, Milosz's poems are placed on the monument to fallen shipyard workers in Gdańsk.

1992 • REVOLUTION IN TELESCOPE DESIGN

UC astronomers led by Jerry Nelson co-develop the world's largest telescope, the W.M. Keck Telescope, atop Mauna Kea, a dormant volcano on the island of Hawaii. Revolutionary in design, the Keck's primary mirror is composed of 36 hexagonal segments that join to form a single, honeycombed piece of reflective glass.

1995 • U.S. POET LAUREATE

1998 • PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS

2003 • MARK TWAIN ONLINE

2006 • THE "SEEDS" OF THE MODERN UNIVERSE

In 1992, a team led by cosmologist George Smoot obtains the earliest images of the infant universe and observes minute variations in temperature across the sky, revealing the early beginnings of galaxies and clusters of galaxies. These findings confirm the predictions of the Big Bang theory. In 2006, Smoot is awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics, becoming the most recent of Cal's 21 Nobel laureates.

CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION

ROBERT J. BIRGENEAU
UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

Robert J. Birgeneau became the ninth chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley, on September 22, 2004. An internationally distinguished physicist, he is a leader in higher education and is well known for his commitment to diversity and equity in the academic community.

Before coming to Berkeley, Birgeneau served four years as president of the University of Toronto. He previously was Dean of the School of Science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he spent 25 years on the faculty. He is a fellow of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences, the Royal Society of London, the American Philosophical Society and other scholarly societies. He has received many awards for teaching and research and is one of the most cited physicists in the world for his work on the fundamental properties of materials.

In 2006, Birgeneau received a special Founders Award from the American Academy of Arts and Sciences along with President John Hennessy of Stanford University and filmmaker George Lucas. Established in the 225th anniversary year of the Academy, this award honors men, women and institutions that have advanced the ideals and embody the spirit of the Academy founders – a commitment to intellectual inquiry, leadership and active engagement. In 2008, Birgeneau and President Nancy Kantor of Syracuse University received the 2008 Carnegie Corporation Academic Leadership Award as "Champions of Excellence and Equity in Education." Most recently, Birgeneau was one of three recipients of the Shinnyo-en Foundation's 2009 Pathfinders to Peace Prize for his contributions to bringing about a more peaceful world. The foundation singled out Birgeneau for his "commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion and to the integration of public service as an essential component of the academic experience." In 2009, Birgeneau became Chair of the Council of Presidents, Universities Research Association, Inc.

A Toronto native, Birgeneau received his B.Sc. in mathematics from the University of Toronto in 1963 and his Ph.D. in physics from Yale University in 1966. He served on the faculty of Yale for one year, spent one year at Oxford University, and was a member of the technical staff at Bell Laboratories from 1968 to 1975. He joined the physics faculty at MIT in 1975 and was named Chair of the Physics Department in 1988 and Dean of Science in 1991. He became the 14th president of the University of Toronto on July 1, 2000.

At Berkeley, Birgeneau holds faculty appointments in the Departments of Physics and Materials Science and Engineering in addition to serving as Chancellor.

He and his wife, Mary Catherine, have four grown children and nine grandchildren.

JOHN WILTON
VICE CHANCELLOR – ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE

John Wilton, an economist and senior manager with nearly 25 years' experience with the World Bank, was appointed as the University of California's Chief Administrative Officer on January 20, 2011.

Prior to Cal, Wilton served as a managing director and the director of international research for Farallon Capital Management LLC, a global, multi-strategy, U.S.-based investment manager. Before that, he worked from 1982-2006 for the World Bank, which provides financial and technical assistance to developing countries worldwide, in positions including chief financial officer, vice president for strategy, finance and risk management, and senior economist.

As the Vice Chancellor for Administration and Finance, Wilton partners with the Chancellor and the Executive vice chancellor and Provost to set the campus's long-range administrative and financial goals, taking a strong leadership role in management of the campus, the development of campus policies and the distribution and utilization of financial, capital and human resources.

This Vice Chancellor position has broadened to include leadership of increasingly urgent campus priorities: the continuing design and implementation of Operational Excellence, the campus's initiative to reduce costs and improve campus operations; stabilization of the budget; and the establishment of a sustainable financial model for the future.

Wilton manages the University's annual operating budget of more than $1.8 billion, including nearly $700 million in research funding. The divisions he oversees comprise nearly 2,400 employees and campus operations that include financial and human resources, auxiliary and business services, athletics, and environment, health and public safety.

A British national, Wilton received his bachelor's and master's degrees in economics from Sussex University. He left his Ph.D. program at Cambridge University in 1982 to join the World Bank's Young Professionals Program, and remained with the international financial institution until 2006.

While at the World Bank, he worked as an economist in several of the bank's overseas operations, including in Eastern Europe and Central Asia, then became the bank's director and chief credit officer, and ultimately was chief financial officer and vice president for strategy, finance and risk.

The World Bank's financial and technical expertise leads to development projects that improve living standards and reduce poverty worldwide. Last year, it provided $46.9 billion for 303 projects in developing countries.

ROBERT G. JACOBSEN FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

Robert G. Jacobsen, a Professor of Physics, serves as Cal's faculty athletics representative.

Appointed to the position in 2010, Jacobsen provides oversight and advice to the athletics program concerning compliance with NCAA rules and student-athletes academic matters. He is empowered by the NCAA to represent Cal in dealings with both the NCAA and the Pac-12, and advises the chancellor on campus policies relating to student-athletes.

Jacobsen spent 1976 through 1986 working in the computer and data communications industry for a small company that was successively bought out by larger and larger companies before he returned to graduate school. From 1991-94, he was a Scientific Associate and Scientific Staff Member at CERN, the European Laboratory for Nuclear Physics, in Geneva, Switzerland. While there, he was a member of the ALEPH collaboration concentrating on B physics and on the energy calibration of the LEP collider. He joined the faculty at Cal in 1995.

Among Jacobsen's honors at the University are its Distinguished Teaching Award, the Noyce Prize for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching and the Goldman Award for Distinguished Faculty Advising of Undergraduates. He has delivered lectures on his research activities on four continents and taught special classes for graduate students at 11 universities.

Jacobsen's research has studied the basic properties of the Universe using the techniques of particle physics. Upon arrival at Berkeley he joined the BaBar experiment, a worldwide collaboration of more than 500 scientists and engineers who built a device to study the fundamental interactions of matter and antimatter. During its run from 1999-2006, the experiment accumulated the world's largest sample of particles for studying the intrinsic difference between matter and antimatter.

His current project, the LUX collaboration, is installing a detector 4,000 feet underground in the Homestake Mine in South Dakota to study dark matter, which comprises the majority of the Universe yet is largely unknown.

Jacobsen obtained a B.S.E.E. from MIT in 1978 and his Ph.D. in experimental high-energy physics from Stanford in 1991.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SANDY BARBOUR

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

As Director of Athletics, Sandy Barbour oversees an athletic department that ranks as one of the most successful in the country with a mission that seeks to match its level of excellence with that attained by the entire university.

Built upon four pillars – to teach, to serve, to compete and to excel – Cal Athletics strives to combine high athletic achievement with the academic rigors of the No. 1 public university in the country, and to do so with integrity, passion, respect, teamwork, innovation, diversity and professionalism. The department is charged not only to be a campus and community leader, but also to be a place where individuals can grow to their utmost potential.

Under Barbour's leadership, the Golden Bears have developed into a model program that has excelled in academics and increased its revenues in tickets, sponsorship and fundraising while becoming a mainstay among the top 10 in the annual Directors' Cup standings. Cal placed in that elite group for the sixth straight year with its all-time best third-place finish in 2010-11, an historic year with Cup points earned by the national champion men's and women's swimming & diving teams, national runners-up finishes from volleyball and men's and women's water polo, College World Series trips by baseball (T5th) and softball (T5th), and top-five finishes by women's crew (3rd), men's gymnastics (4th) and men's soccer (T5th). Even without rugby's national championship and men's crew's third-place finish, neither of which count toward final Directors' Cup standings, 20 programs contributed to Cal's total.

"Sandy Barbour was my first appointment at Berkeley, and I consider it a privilege to have her as our athletic director," Chancellor Robert J. Birgeneau said. "Under her leadership, our student-athletes are excelling on and off the field, supported by a department committed to excellence, equity and comprehensive compliance with the rules."

Since Barbour began her tenure in Berkeley on Sept. 15, 2004, Cal programs have captured 15 national team championships and 67 individual titles.

In 2009-10, the men's basketball team earned its first Pac-10 conference title in 50 seasons, while the women's basketball program won the Women's National Invitational Tournament.

In addition, the Golden Bear football team appeared in seven straight bowl games from 2003-09, with a four-game bowl win streak from 2005-08 and a share of the Pac-10 championship for the first time in 21 seasons in 2006.

Overall, Cal supports a 29-sport program with more than 900 student-athletes and a budget of approximately $70 million.

On the academic front, more than half of Cal's 29 programs maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher, with 18 of them earning cumulative GPAs higher than their historical average last year. Nine teams scored perfect Academic Progress Rates for the 2008-09 academic year and eight teams received national recognition for their Academic Progress Rates over the last two years. More than 175 student-athletes have earned academic all-conference recognition in each of the last seven years and over 70 percent of head football coach Jeff Tedford's first recruiting class has graduated.

Amid these achievements, Barbour has led the department's efforts to raise funds, design and begin construction on the long-awaited renovation and retrofit of California Memorial Stadium as well as the Student-Athlete High Performance Center, scheduled to open in September of 2011.

One of the "100 Most Influential Women in Business" in the Bay Area according to the San Francisco Business Times, Barbour was named a regional Athletic Director of the Year for 2008-09 by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), and she was a finalist for National AD of the Year at the Sports Business Awards. Barbour was previously chosen a 2006 Woman of Distinction by the East Bay Business Times and the 2006 National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA) Division I-A National Administrator of the Year.

Barbour is an active member of several committees on both the national and conference levels. In July 2010 she was selected as the Pac-10 representative to the NCAA Division I Leadership Council, a four-year appointment. She chairs the Pac-12 Revenue Sharing Committee and serves on the conference's Compliance & Enforcement and Diversity Leadership Initiatives. Barbour is also on the NACDA Executive Committee, the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee, the NCAA Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the WBCA Defensive Player of the Year Selection Committee.

In the past, Barbour has also served as the chair of the Pac-10 Budget and Finance Committee, as a member of the Pac-10 Executive Committee and the Pac-10 Television Committee, and was vice president of the conference in 2007-08.

Prior to moving to Berkeley, Barbour was the deputy director of athletics at Notre Dame, serving as the university's senior athletic administrator from July 2002 to September 2004. She previously held an associate athletic director position there starting in 2000.

Barbour's career in intercollegiate athletic administration spans 30 years, beginning as a field hockey assistant coach and lacrosse administrative assistant at the University of Massachusetts in 1981. She has since served as assistant athletic director at Northwestern and in 1991 was recruited to Tulane as an associate athletic director.

In 1996, Barbour was appointed Tulane's director of athletics at age 36, and during her three years overseeing the program, Green Wave teams won 12 conference championships. In her first year in the position, the school captured four conference titles, a feat never before accomplished in Tulane history. She also hired Tommy Bowden as head football coach during her first year. Bowden proceeded in 1997 to post the Green Wave's first winning season (7-4) in 16 years, and then directed the school to a 12-0 record, a Conference USA championship and a No. 7 national ranking the following season as the 1998 Liberty Bowl champions.

In her position at Notre Dame, Barbour oversaw facilities and event operations for the school's 26-sport program, including football game management and the department's two golf courses. She was also responsible for developing, maintaining and implementing Notre Dame's $127 million athletics facilities master plan.

Additionally, her role at Notre Dame included responsibilities for women's lacrosse, men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, men's and women's swimming and men's golf. She also assisted with the administration of women's basketball.

Born Dec. 2, 1959, in Annapolis, Md., Barbour grew up in a military family. Her father was a career aviator in the U.S. Navy, and her family lived in various U.S. locations as well as in Western Europe during her childhood.

Barbour graduated cum laude in 1981 with a B.S. degree in physical education from Wake Forest, where she was a four-year letterwinner and served as captain of the field hockey team. She also played two varsity seasons of women's basketball.

Barbour earned advanced degrees at both Massachusetts (an M.S. in sports management in 1983) and Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management (an MBA in 1991).

Between master's programs, Barbour served as assistant field hockey and lacrosse coach at Northwestern from 1982-84. She also held the position of director of recruiting services during that period, before being promoted to assistant athletic director for intercollegiate programs in 1984, a position she held until 1989.

Prior to joining Tulane, Barbour worked in programming and production for FOX Sports Net in Chicago during the summer of 1990.

ATHLETICS EXECUTIVES

TERESA K. GOULD

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Teresa K. Gould, who joined the Golden Bear staff in the fall of 2001, serves as Cal's deputy director of athletics as well as the department's Chief of Staff and Senior Woman Administrator.

A member of various NCAA and Pacific-12 Conference committees, including the Pac-12 Council, Gould oversees the budgetary and operational needs of various intercollegiate varsity teams at Cal, including both men's and women's basketball, providing guidance and support to each program's head coach. Gould also oversees several functional units within athletics, including media relations, creative services, summer camps and all Olympic sports operations. She also oversees the University's multi-media agreement with IMG Sports.

Before moving to Berkeley in September of 2001, Gould served as associate commissioner of the West Coast Conference in San Bruno, Calif. In seven years with the WCC, she managed the league's television, marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, as well as administered conference championships and served as staff liaison to various coaches groups. She was a member of the NCAA Division I Management Council for two years during her tenure at the WCC.

From 1992-94, Gould worked for ESPN Regional Television in Charlotte, N.C., as conference relations coordinator. In this role, Gould served as the liaison to several NCAA Division I conferences. In addition, Gould was director of championships and media relations for the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in Indianapolis from 1990-92, public relations/promotions assistant for the Iowa Games Sports Festival (1989-90) and assistant to the coordinator of football recruiting at Iowa State (1987-90).

Gould received her bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications from Iowa State in 1990 and her master's degree in education from Cal in 2009. She and her husband, Cal football associate head coach/run game coordinator Ron Gould, reside in the East Bay, where they raise their sons, Tevin and Trae.

FOTI MELLIS

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Foti Mellis, who has more than 20 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics and has worked at Cal since 2002, serves as the athletic department's senior associate athletic director for intercollegiate services.

In his role, Mellis oversees Cal's compliance services and student services units. In addition, he is the department's liaison to campus for admissions, financial aid and the Center for Student Conduct and Community Standards. He also supervises men's and women's track & field and cross country, women's soccer, softball, field hockey, women's gymnastics and men's crew.

During his tenure at Cal, Mellis has reorganized and enhanced Cal's compliance operations, and implemented a student-athlete database networked to all department staff and various campus units. He has also helped to restructure the student services unit that included additional staff and the development of a new philosophy for the student-athlete experience.

Mellis arrived at Cal after spending four years as assistant athletic director for compliance at Arizona State, where he oversaw all areas of compliance for the department. Prior to his stay in Tempe, he spent two years at Tulsa as Director of Compliance from 1996-98. Mellis began his administrative career at Northwestern in 1994, spending one year as an intern and a second year as a compliance assistant.

A graduate of UC Davis, Mellis held various positions with the Aggies from 1988-94, including assistant men's basketball coach, academic advisor and intern in the athletic department administration. He received his bachelor's degree in managerial economics in 1990 and his master's in education in 1996, both from UC Davis.

KEITH POWER

HIGH PERFORMANCE DIRECTOR

Keith Power joined the University in July of 2009 as the first high performance director for the Cal athletic department, a role in which he focuses on the development of the High Performance Initiative into a vital resource for student-athletes, coaches and staff.

An accredited sport psychologist with the British Association of Sport and Exercises Sciences (BASES), Power has worked as a consultant for a wide range of elite teams and individuals from many sports, including soccer, rugby, track & field, golf, swimming and tennis. Clients in the corporate world have turned to him for guidance in human performance enhancement with coaching, human change systems and processes, creating and sustaining elite teams, and cultural performance analysis and culture change programs.

Previously, he has served as a performance adviser to UK Sport, a senior executive member and chair of the Interdisciplinary Sport Science section of BASES, a member of the British Olympic Association Coaches Advisory Group and a coach educator in several sports. Corporate clients have included Motorola, Hewlett-Packard and Toshiba.

As an athlete, Power competed internationally for Great Britain in track & field and was a World Cup series triple silver medalist in the bobsled. He holds a B.A. in sport studies and history from the West London Institute of Higher Education and a master's of philosophy in education (sports psychology) from Exeter. Keith and his wife, Hazel, have two daughters, Scarlett and Abi.

LAURA HAZLETT

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Laura Hazlett, who joined the Golden Bear staff in 2009, serves as the athletic department's chief financial officer as well as its associate athletic director for business and finance. She oversees a staff of eight that manages the purchasing, payables, budgets, financial reporting and analysis for the department. Hazlett also works on the department's strategic plan and the financial feasibility models for the Student-Athlete High Performance Center and California Memorial Stadium projects. In addition, Hazlett acts as a liaison between the department and campus administration.

Prior to moving to Berkeley, Hazlett created the financial feasibility model for University of Oregon's Matthew Knight Arena. Hazlett earned bachelor's degrees in mathematics and economics from Arizona State and a PhD in finance from UCLA. She lives in North Berkeley with her husband and three-year old daughter.

DARCY HEPPENSTALL

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Darcy Heppenstall, the chief development officer for Cal Athletics, is responsible for creating and implementing a multiyear strategic plan to expand and steward the department's donor base. She also leads all fundraising efforts, including the Bear Backer organization.

Currently in her first year at Cal, Heppenstall was previously at London Business School, where she worked as director of advancement for the Americas after serving as interim co-director of development and interim director of corporate and foundation relations. From 2001-08, she was with the Graduate School of Business at Stanford as associate director and then director of corporate and foundation relations.

Heppenstall has an extensive background in direct fundraising, marketing, public relations and business development. Over her fundraising career, she has engaged with university alumni, friends, corporations and foundations to solicit support for such areas as student scholarships, faculty support and capital projects, and unrestricted giving. She has also been a part of two multimillion-dollar institutional campaigns.

Heppenstall received her bachelor's degree from Philadelphia University and is currently an MBA candidate at the Presidio Graduate School. She also holds a certificate from the strategic marketing management program in Stanford's Graduate School of Business Executive Education.

MATT TERWILLIGER

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Matt Terwilliger serves as the associate athletic director for business development. He oversees a team of 17 staff focused on ticket sales, advertising, database management and fan communication, branding, licensing, merchandising and promotions. Terwilliger also works with IMG College to maximize corporate sponsorship revenue for the department. Moreover, he is the chairperson for the department's Revenue Generation Committee tasked with generating additional ticket sales and annual donation revenues as well as evaluating new revenue opportunities for the department. During his time, Cal has experienced record levels of ticket sales and attendance as well as royalties from licensing and merchandise sales. Terwilliger served as assistant athletic director from 2006-09 and prior to that was the director of ticket sales and advertising from 2003-05. When he first came to Cal in 1999, Terwilliger was assistant director of marketing and promotions.

Terwilliger, who graduated from Florida State in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in marketing, stayed at his alma mater as he completed his master's in 1999 in the field of sports management. While earning his master's, Terwilliger was an associate in marketing and promotions. He resides in the East Bay with his wife, Andrea, and daughter, Hailey.

DAWN HOWARD

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Dawn Howard, who joined the Golden Bear staff in 1991, serves as Cal's associate athletic director for human resources and finance. She oversees a staff of 17 that manages the purchasing, payables, travel, human resources, payroll, business contracts, budgets, financial reporting and risk management, as well as the administration of youth camps, for the department.

During her time at Cal, Howard has filled several roles in the business office, working her way up from an administrative assistant to the business manager to her current role. She has also worked with the information systems unit as a computer programmer, including the Bear Hunt of the 1990s, and she continues to consult on programming projects, most recently automating financial aid processing and developing the department's intranet. In addition, Howard acts as a liaison between the department and IMG College.

Howard graduated Phi Beta Kappa, earning her bachelor's degree in economics, with minors in business and mathematics, from Oregon in 1991. She has long ties to Berkeley, having been born and raised in the city and having graduating from Berkeley High School. Her parents are both Cal graduates, and her 15-year old nephew Garrett yearns to be a Cal graduate.

2010-11 DIRECTORS' CUP

With top-10 finishes in 14 sports, including national championships in rugby and men's and women's swimming & diving, Cal posted its highest finish ever in the Directors' Cup in 2010-11, taking third overall in rankings that measure overall success in intercollegiate athletic programs nationwide. The Bears have rated among the top 10 for the sixth year in a row.

Volleyball and men's and women's water polo were national runners-up last year; in addition, baseball (T5th), men's crew (3rd), women's crew (3rd), men's gymnastics (4th), men's soccer (T5th) and softball (T5th) all earned top-five national finishes. Cal's baseball and softball teams advanced to their respective College World Series, while all six men's and women's programs that compete in or on the water - swimming & diving, water polo and crew - were in the top three nationally.

The Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports - 10 women's and 10 men's. The Bears achieved their lofty Directors' Cup status despite receiving no points from rugby or men's crew because they are not NCAA-sponsored sports.

TRADITIONS

The rich history of the Golden Bears on the gridiron has borne some of the most colorful and time-honored traditions in the sport today. From its dedicated spirit groups and inspirational gameday traditions to its passionate fans, the University of California is proud to carry the color and pageantry of college football into AT&T Park, its home for the 2011 season.

BLUE AND GOLD

Official colors of the University of California were established at Berkeley in 1868. The colors were chosen by the University's founders, who were mostly Yale men who had come West. They selected gold as a color representing the "Golden State" of California. The blue was selected from Yale blue. Cal teams have donned the blue and gold since the beginning of intercollegiate athletic competition in 1882.

GOLDEN BEARS

In 1895, the University of California track and field team was the dominant power on the West Coast and decided to challenge several of the top teams in the Midwest and East on an eight-meet tour that is now credited by many historians as putting Cal Athletics onto the national scene. As a symbol of the University, Regent Arthur Rodgers, class of 1872, commissioned a blue silk banner emblazoned with a golden grizzly bear, the symbol of the state of California. The banner was carried by the team on its successful tour, which saw them win five of the eight competitions. Cal Athletics fans were so ecstatic over the team's performance that Professor Charles Mills Gayley was inspired to write the song "The Golden Bear." Cal's athletic teams have been known as the Golden Bears ever since.

CARD STUNTS

The Cal rooting section is credited with establishing one of the most time-honored traditions in college football – performing card stunts at college football games. Cal began this activity for the 1910 "Big Game," a rugby match between California and Stanford. The original stunts performed that afternoon depicted the Stanford Axe and a big blue "C" formed on a white background.

The tradition has been a crowd favorite at Memorial Stadium as several times each season Cal students perform as many as 10 different stunts, using more than 5,000 cards. The painstaking process of plotting the positions of the cards, which once took days to complete, is now aided by computers that add to the precision of the images produced in the card section.

CAL BAND

The University of California Marching Band has been a tradition for more than 100 years, exemplifying many of the best aspects of student life at one of the nation's most prestigious public universities. It boasts over 200 members, a student-run management and a unique high-step marching style, all of which combine to make it one of the most singular bands of its kind.

Formed as the R.O.T.C. Cadet Band in 1889, the Cal Band adopted its present name in 1923. It has performed across the country and around the world at such events as the Brussels World Fair in 1958, Expo '70 in Japan and a Bicentennial Tour of the United States in 1976. In 1980, the Band took to the stage with the San Francisco Ballet, and it was the official state band for the city's welcome to Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip of Great Britain in 1983.

CALIFORNIA VICTORY CANNON

The California Victory Cannon was presented to the Rally Committee in time for the 1963 Big Game by the class of 1964. In Berkeley, it is shot off at the beginning of each game, after each score and after each Cal victory. Only once, against Pacific on Sept. 7, 1991, did the Bears score too many times, racking up 12 touchdowns before the cannon ran out of ammunition. The cannon, which was originally kept on the sidelines, has been mounted on Tightwad Hill above Memorial Stadium since 1971. In 2011, the cannon is expected to make the trip to AT&T Park but may not be fired due to clearance regulations.

BIG C

The Big C is located on Charter Hill above Memorial Stadium and was constructed in 1905 by the classes of 1907 and '08. The road up to the Big C was built in 1916 by the male members of the Cal student body in three-and-a-half hours, using 2,000 picks and shovels that were donated by the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Rally Committee became the custodians and guardians of the Big C sometime after 1952. Since then, the Committee has been in charge of painting the C and protecting it from vandalism.

MARCH TO VICTORY

Cal began a new "tradition" in the fall of 2002 with the March to Victory, a gameday staple that continues in an updated format at AT&T Park. Approximately two-and-a-half hours before kickoff of each home game, the Spirit Groups form a human tunnel to cheer on the team as it exits the buses to march into the locker room. The Match To Victory will not take place at AT&T Park in 2011 but will return when the Bears come back to Memorial Stadium in 2012.

SONGS OF CAL

While through the years Cal has collected numerous songs that are popular with its alumni and fans alike, two songs are regularly heard on football Saturdays. Those songs include the familiar fight song entitled "Big C," a brisk marching tune composed by N.S. McLaren and H.P. Williams of the class of 1914. The other is the Cal alma mater, "Hail to California," written and composed by Clinton R. "Brick" Morse, class of 1896.

HAIL TO CALIFORNIA

Hail to California, Alma Mater Dear
Sing the joyful chorus, Sound it far and near.
Rallying 'round her banner, We will never fail.
California Alma Mater, Hail! Hail! Hail!

BIG C

California!
On our rugged Eastern foothills, stands our symbol clear and bold.
Big C means to fight and strive and win for Blue and Gold.
Golden Bear is ever watching. Day by day he prowls.
And when he hears the tread of lowly Stanford Red, from his lair he fiercely growls!

CAL SPIRIT GROUPS

The Cal Spirit groups are responsible for promoting all spirit-related activities at the University of California and are active at home events, as well as many away contests. In addition, they act as ambassadors of the University by assisting with alumni functions, fundraising events and other formal occasions promoting Cal spirit. The groups are the Rally Committee, Cal Dance Team, Cal Mic Men and the Cal mascot, Oski.

The Rally Committee, the oldest student group on campus, upholds school spirit and tradition. Above and beyond producing all rallies on campus, Rally Com is responsible for maintaining the Big C, displaying the California banner, the Cal flags, and constructing and executing card stunts at football games. Not to be forgotten is the California Victory Cannon, and when The Axe is in the possession of the Bears, the Committee is the custodian of The Axe.

The Cal Dance Team consists of 20 women who dance to traditional Cal fight songs and Cal Band rock songs. During the football season, they perform on a platform that is elevated off the football field. During the basketball season, the team dances on the sidelines and on the basketball court during timeouts and performs entertaining halftime productions.

Cal Mic Men, are student leaders of the rooting sections at all Cal sporting events. In addition, they emcee at rallies, alumni and community events.

Oski, the official mascot of the University of California, has been a tradition at the school since making his debut during the 1941 football season. Prior to his arrival, live mascots were used at Memorial Stadium with varying degrees of success. It was decided in 1940 that a costumed mascot would make a more suitable alternative to a live bear.

Named after the popular "Oski Wow-Wow" yell, the Cal mascot is selected by the Oski Committee, a governing body that oversees all aspects of caring for the lovable Bear. Oski's identity is unknown to everyone, with the exception of the committee.

CAL BEARENTS

Initiated in the fall of 1986, Cal Bearents has grown from an idea of six people into an organization numbering in the hundreds. Proud moms, dads, siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, in-laws and friends all gather together to share the Cal football experience with the players.

Because no one understands the triumphs and tribulations in a student-athlete's season as thoroughly as family and friends do, all Bearents share a special bond. Regardless of whether their player plays in a starring or supporting role, Bearents consistently provide a network of support for the players and each other. In addition to extending an open invitation for all players to join family and friends for postgame barbecues after each home game, Bearents also participate in and coordinate various other events throughout the year with Cal alumni and Bear Backers.

ESP/BEAR BACKER FOOTBALL HOSPITALITY

Due to the current renovation of California Memorial Stadium, the 2010 pregame and halftime hospitality will be dramatically different for qualified Bear Backers and ESP participants. ESP participants along with Bear Backers at the Athletic Legends, Director's Circle, Athletics Scholarship, Pete Newell, "Pappy" Waldorf and Andy Smith giving levels will be invited to join in the festivities at an exclusive tented area of Maxwell Family Field in 2010 for pregame & halftime hospitality. Doors to the football hospitality will open immediately following March to Victory (approximately two-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff) for every home game and they will reopen again at halftime and close at the beginning of the second half. The hospitality area will be complete with food, beverages and big screen televisions to track other college games in progress.

FOOTBALL ALUMNI TAILGATES

Football alumni from all eras of the Golden Bears history are encouraged to attend an exclusive tailgate prior to every home game. Director of Athletics Sandy Barbour and head football coach Jeff Tedford have endorsed this pregame gathering as the official tailgate for all Cal football alumni and encourage all to join friends, teammates and staff at the School of Optometry courtyard (Minor Hall). Each tailgate begins two hours before kickoff and concludes 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

CALIFORNIA LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Cal's football alumni association, the California Letterman's Club, is an active organization that supports the Golden Bear program. Formerly known as the Sons of California, the group was created several years ago to continue the relationships that were forged on the football field. Each year, the Letterman's Club has a reunion at a home game and holds a fundraising golf tournament in the spring. In addition, they sponsor a reception at the end of the year for graduating football players and honor a deserving alumnus with the Glenn T. Seaborg Award named for the renowned Nobel laureate and former University of California Chancellor. For more information about the California Letterman's Club please contact the Athletic Development Office at (510) 642-2427.

PAPPY'S BOYS

Founded in 1986, Pappy's Boys is an organization of more than 500 former Golden Bears who played under legendary Cal football coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf. Not only does the group get together to relive the success of the Cal teams during the Waldorf era, but it also supports the current program in many ways. Recent efforts include establishing a $400,000 endowment for football scholarships and raising funds for two of the most recent additions to campus statuary: that of Waldorf kneeling near Faculty Glade and the giant grizzly bear by Memorial Stadium. Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record as head coach at Cal from 1947-56. For the 1948, '49 and '50 seasons, Waldorf guided the Bears to a 39-3-1 record and three consecutive Rose Bowls. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966 and into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987. In the late 1990s, Pappy's Boys produced a book, "Pappy's Boys, The Rose Bowl Years: A Legacy of Winning," which was edited by Sports Illustrated writer Ron Fimrite and produced by former Cal quarterback Dick Erickson. The book contains 59 autobiographical essays by players, coaches, and others involved in the Waldorf Rose Bowls, plus a preface by former Cal chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

An integral part of Cal football is the strength and conditioning department. The program's philosophy is geared towards helping each student-athlete achieve the highest level of athletic development and injury prevention.

By teaching how all the components of strength and conditioning fit together, student-athletes understand how to maximize power as it applies to sports. This includes enhancement of speed, strength, agility and flexibility, which results in improved power. Motivating, educating and helping to reach maximum athletic development is the primary focus of the Cal program.

The Cal football weight room includes eight Olympic platforms, more than 15,000 pounds of Olympic bars and bumper plates, and an array of aerobic and anaerobic equipment. Originally opened in Memorial Stadium in 1983 as part of the Cal Sports 80s facility project, the 5,000 square-foot weight room is currently located in a surge facility for Cal's football team and selected Olympic sports teams. The 14,000 foot-surge tensile structure that also houses the athletic training staff is part of a larger development built in Strawberry Canyon that includes four temporary buildings for football's day-to-day operations, as well as two for Olympic sports operations that opened in the spring of 2010 while Memorial Stadium is undergoing renovation.

The training regimen at Cal is a year-round process that emphasizes improving athleticism. With closely monitored workouts that involve a great deal of individual instruction and attention, student-athletes are taught the correct techniques to increase their ability to perform at their peak during competition.

Cal's program stresses comprehensive training in order to improve both strength and speed. Flexibility is a key component because it is essential for developing athleticism and agility. It also improves the running mechanics needed for acceleration and deceleration, both essential for playing football.

Athlete workouts are position-specific and closely monitored by the conditioning staff, who work in collaboration with the entire sports medicine team (doctors, athletic trainers, physical therapists, nutritionists, etc.) to ensure the health and safety of all student-athletes.

In this way, Cal's strength and conditioning program is a vital component linking the "full circle" of a student-athlete's physical development from conditioning through rehabilitation and re-conditioning.

SPORTS MEDICINE/ATHLETIC TRAINING

The mission of the Sports Medicine Program at the University of California, Berkeley, is to provide systematic, multidisciplinary services that utilize advanced scientific and administrative practices to support student-athletes in the pursuit of optimal physiological and psychological health, personal development and high performance.

Golden Bear student-athletes are privileged to be supported by one of the top medical staffs in college athletics, along with some of the most modern training and rehabilitation equipment in the country. The comprehensive program features state-of-the-art facilities, as well as a staff of acclaimed sports medicine practitioners.

Cal's athletic training facilities include more than 6,000-square feet, split between the Witter Complex Sports Medicine Facility and the Paul F. White Sports Medicine Complex at Haas Pavilion. Both facilities include rehabilitation space and equipment, hydrotherapy space and an extensive pre-practice preparation area, as well as physician examination areas. With both facilities operational year round, Cal Sports Medicine is able to serve the student-athletes in close proximity to their practice and competition sites.

In addition, Cal student-athletes also use University Health Services (UHS), which jointly with Intercollegiate Athletics oversees and coordinates sports medicine services to all injured or ailing Golden Bear athletes. UHS, housed in the Tang Center, is recognized as one of the largest and most comprehensive campus health service centers in the country. It provides access to physician clinics, laboratory services, X-ray and other ancillary services such as sports nutrition and counseling.

The expert staff of team physicians is led by Dr. Casey G. Batten. Dr. Batten was named Head Team Physician for Cal's athletic program in 2010, after serving as an Associate Physician since 2006. The staff features specialists from the fields of orthopedic surgery, family medicine, internal medicine, emergency medicine, physiatry and podiatry, among others. The medical staff, with its diverse backgrounds and areas of expertise, has vast experience treating injured athletes at every level of competition, including Olympic and professional athletes.

Cal's athletic training staff, led by Head Athletic Trainer Ryan Cobb and supported by insurance coordinator Dan Westbrook, includes 19 certified athletic trainers and 30 sports medicine interns. The staff tends to the day-to-day health care needs of Cal student-athletes in all sports, including the evaluation and treatment of injuries and illnesses. Rehabilitation of injuries is also the responsibility of the athletic training staff, with additional assistance from two experienced staff physical therapists. The athletic trainers provide coverage at home and away athletic contests, and practices are staffed on a full-time basis.

Whether it's for taping, physical therapy or the prompt recovery from an illness or injury, Golden Bear student-athletes have the full confidence that Cal's medical staff will provide the best care available with one of the most progressive treatment and rehabilitation programs in the country.

SPORTS MEDICINE STAFF

Along with Head Team Physician Dr. Casey G. Batten, Cal's four Associate Team Physicians provide medical care and event coverage for Golden Bear student-athletes. Dr. Brad Buchman is Medical Director of Cal's University Health Services, as well as a Cal alumnus and former Golden Bear on the gridiron from 1979-81. Dr. Jeff Nelson, a Cal grad and fellowship trained in sports medicine, has been a team physician and staff physician at University Health Services since 1998. Dr. Harris Masket, also a Cal alum, was Cal's post-graduate sports medicine intern before becoming the Chief of Urgent Care at UHS in 2006. Dr. Jolie Holschen, a graduate of Washington University, is an emergency medicine and sports medicine specialist and joined Cal sports medicine in 2010.

The staff psychologists who provide and coordinate counseling are Drs. Bill Coysh and Chris McLean.

In addition, the success of the sports medicine program would not be possible without the support and expertise of medical specialists in the community, representing all areas of sports medicine. More detailed information can be found at CalBears.com under Inside Athletics/Sports Medicine.

PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIANS

Dr. Cindy Chang served as Cal's head team physician from 1995-2008. She serves part-time at the University Health Services as a sports medicine consultant/musculoskeletal specialist and volunteers as a team physician. Chang is recognized as one of the leading primary care sports medicine physicians in the country.

Dr. Craig Dennis is board certified in emergency medicine and has a special interest in water polo. His daughter was a Cal water polo goalie.

Dr. Veronica Jow is a fellowship trained sports medicine specialist and is on staff with Kaiser Permanente Oakland/Richmond. Dr. Jow works extensively with California Women's Basketball.

Dr. Tara Shaw is a fellowship trained sports medicine specialist and is on staff with Kaiser Permanente Vallejo.

ORTHOPEDIC PHYSICIANS

Dr. Christina Allen played soccer and earned her biomedical engineering degree at Duke, and is a sports medicine fellowship-trained assistant professor of orthopedics at UCSF.

Dr. Lamont Cardon, a former Cal football player, is a fellowship-trained orthopedic consultant for hand, wrist and upper extremity injuries and practices in Berkeley.

Dr. Robert Eppley, who played collegiate basketball at Swarthmore College, has been one of Cal's primary orthopedic consultants since 1992. fellowship-trained in sports medicine, he is in private practice in Berkeley, and is repeatedly voted one of the "Bay Area's Best Doctors" by fellow physicians.

Dr. Joshua Hatch, who played football at Princeton, was fellowship trained in sports medicine at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City and is in practice at Kaiser-Oakland.

Dr. Clement Jones played football at Merrimack College in Massachusetts, and is Cal's fellowship-trained orthopedic spine consultant in private practice in San Francisco.

Dr. Benjamin Ma is chief of sports medicine at UCSF and did a sports medicine fellowship at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City.

Dr. Jeffrey Mann, a gymnast at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is a fellowship-trained orthopedic foot and ankle consultant in private practice in Oakland.

Dr. Mathias Masem is a fellowship-trained orthopedic consultant for hand, wrist and upper extremity injuries. The Chief of the Division of Hand Surgery at Alta-Bates Summit Medical Center is in private practice in Oakland.

Dr. Will Workman, a member of Cal's 1988 College World Series baseball team, is a fellowship-trained orthopedic sports medicine consultant in private practice in Walnut Creek.

PHYSIATRISTS

Cal's consultants trained in physical medicine and rehabilitation see student-athletes for non-operative injuries of the neck and back, as well as nerve disorders. Dr. Gerry Keane is in private practice in Menlo Park. Dr. Tim Shen completed a physiatry spine and sports medicine fellowship at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City and practices in Oakland and Lafayette.

PODIATRISTS

Dr. Tim Dutra is an assistant professor at the California School of Podiatric Medicine at Samuel Merritt University, a fellow of the American Academy of Podiatric Sports Medicine and holds a master's in Health Care Administration. Dr. Maureen Lee is in private practice in San Francisco and also serves as a consultant for San Francisco State University's athletic program.

DENTISTS

Cal's team of sports dentistry specialists provides emergency dental care, performs oral exams during pre-participation physicals and fabricates protective mouth guards for student-athletes. Dr. James Ho, a Cal grad, is an endodontist (root canal specialist) and practices in Berkeley. Dr. Whitney Johnson practices in Berkeley, is a fellow in the International Academy for Sports Dentistry and a board director on the Berkeley Dental Society. Dr. Eric Yabu, another Cal grad, is on faculty at UCSF and practices in Oakland.

OPTOMETRISTS

The UC Berkeley School of Optometry, under the clinical supervision of Dr. Mika Moy and Dr. Chris Wilmer, provides visual screenings and also serves as a consultant for ocular injuries and ocular medical conditions.

PHYSICAL THERAPISTS

Cal's sports physical therapists offer a variety of skills, including manual therapy techniques, biomechanical evaluations and Pilates, to assist the athletic trainers with both injury and post-operative rehabilitation. Led by staff physical therapists Bryan Templeman and Liz Nguyen, the physical therapists include Amy Fong, Kristy Illg, Deirdre McLoughlin, and Nina Patterson. Also on staff is occupational therapist Caroline D'Angelo, a certified hand therapist.

CHIROPRACTORS

Cal's team of sports chiropractors works alongside the athletic trainers and physical therapists in the training quarters to assist with the treatment of musculoskeletal injuries and dysfunctions. Dr. Sue Bromley, who is also a Physician Assistant, has worked with NASCAR, the Professional Rodeo Association and the San Jose Lasers, and practices in Berkeley. Dr. Jessica Greux, a four-year letterwinner in soccer at Brown, has been with the Cal Sports Medicine team since 1994 and is also in private practice in Berkeley. Dr. Rudy Gutierrez, a member of the Cal sports medicine department since 1998, currently works as a sport chiropractor in his own private practice in Oakland and Walnut Creek. Dr. Paul Walton is in private practice in Orinda and has been on the teaching and clinical faculty of Life Chiropractic West since 1989.

ACUPUNCTURISTS

Glen Oberman, O.M.D., L.Ac., has been involved with Cal Sports Medicine since 2007. He supervises the treatment of Cal student-athletes by acupuncture interns from the Acupuncture and Integrative Medicine College – Berkeley. He is Clinic Dean at the college and has a national board certification in Acupuncture Orthopedics. He also teaches courses in Acupuncture Orthopedics, Research Methodology and Ethics and Law. Dr. Oberman is in private practice in Berkeley.

CASEY BATTEN, M.D.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN, FOOTBALL

Dr. Casey G. Batten has been with Cal Athletics since 2006, and was named Head Team Physician in 2010. Prior to Cal, Batten was an assistant clinical professor of orthopaedics at the University of California, San Francisco. He also has provided medical coverage for NCAA championship events including men's and women's basketball, track & field and FCS football. In addition to his responsibilities with the student-athletes at Cal, Dr. Batten continues as an invited speaker on various sports medicine topics on a local and national level, and also serves as a peer reviewer for two respected sports medicine publications. He has published on topics such as concussion, and physical activity factors in adolescent athletes. As a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine (AMSSM), Dr. Batten is active in committee work dedicated to expanding the quality and availability of sports medicine training for medical students and resident physicians. Batten is also responsible for clinical and academic instruction for the UC Davis/UC Berkeley Sports Medicine Fellowship. Dr. Batten holds a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology-Exercise Science from the University of Wisconsin. After attending medical school at the Medical College of Wisconsin, he completed a residency in Family Medicine at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine-Chattanooga Unit. Batten then earned a fellowship with the UC Davis/UC Berkeley Sports Medicine Program. Born and raised in Madison, Wisc., Dr. Batten currently resides with his wife, Alison, in Berkeley.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

Speed Interviewing

Graduation at the Greek Theater

Apple Conference at Disneyland

There is more to life than wins and losses, and University of California student-athletes have the opportunity to learn that lesson through participation in an NCAA program – CHAMPS/Life Skills – which is designed for athletes to get more out their college years than just what they experience in the athletic arena. By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program not only assists student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but enhances student-athletes' growth in their college years and beyond.

This program helps students by concentrating in four major areas – Academics, Career Development, Community Outreach and Personal Development.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The career development portion of the Life Skills Programs offers student-athletes opportunities to prepare themselves for life after college. Each year a variety of workshops on career development are offered including resume writing, interview skills and networking. In addition, the annual Career Connections event puts student-athletes in direct contact with Bay Area professionals who are looking to hire for both internships and full-time jobs. The program has proven to be a valuable source of contact with successful Cal alumni and has initiated career paths for many Golden Bear student-athletes.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Cal's student-athletes exhibit a strong commitment to the community. Over 3,000 hours of giving back is completed each year by participation in a variety of activities such as College Sports Day where they teach 200 kids about their sport, as well as raising funds for various charitable organizations and making meaningful contributions to the community. In doing so, the student-athletes serve as ambassadors between the University and the community and as role models to children.

Cal Athletics receives requests from local schools and community organizations for student-athletes to speak to kids ranging from kindergarten to high school. The student-athletes address a wide variety of wellness-related topics in addition to emphasizing the importance of education and maintaining self-esteem. The goal is to support young students in finding a path to productive and healthy futures, taking an interest in the children's lives and providing encouragement to do well in school.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Through their involvement in the Life Skills Program, Cal student-athletes are prepared to be productive and successful adults when they graduate from the university and move on to their next challenge in life. Whether it is learning how to make a solid first impression as they represent Cal through etiquette training or participating in leadership roles in the department and campus to shape action plans that enhance the student-athlete experience, our student-athletes are actively engaging in opportunities to develop a well-balanced lifestyle, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

College Sports Day

CAL IN THE COMMUNITY

Many Cal student-athletes have been active participants in various student-mentor programs with low-income and/or minority youth in the East Bay community. Working in conjunction with the Sage Project, Cal athletes have been paired with young students in a mentor/role model project, often growing to be a part of the child's extended family. These student-athletes are a positive force in assisting youth to stay in school, eventually enter college and succeed as members of the community.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

With representatives from all 29 sports at Cal, the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee not only does the group work to improve interaction between student-athletes, coaches and administrators, but it also works with other campus organizations to create positive student-athlete experiences. Among the areas of emphasis are student-athlete welfare, student-athlete image, community service, community building, communication and input on proposed NCAA legislation. The committee recently developed a student-athlete Facebook site and was effective in increasing student-athlete support for each of Cal's teams.

BIG C SOCIETY

The Big C Society is a group of athletes – both men and women – who share a common bond: they have distinguished themselves by their athletic skill and/or unwavering dedication to Cal Athletics. The purpose of the Big C Society is to encourage and support the athletic program through an uncompromising commitment to excellence.

Among the many activities sponsored by the Big C Society are: the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame Dinner, Student-Athlete Career Night, the Honors Celebration Luncheon, first-year varsity letter awards and a beginning-of-the-year picnic for all Cal student-athletes.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushers in a new era with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

The Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions" ®, claiming an incredible 180 NCAA team titles over the past two decades, including nine in 2010-11, averaging nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 27 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led the nation in NCAA titles in 45 of the last 51 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, league teams have captured 442 NCAA titles (302 men's, 140 women's), outdistancing the closest conference by nearly 200.

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Six of the top-25 Division I programs were Pac-12 member institutions, the most of any conference.

The 2010-11 campaign was marked by the 25-year anniversary of women's sports in the Pac-10, with year-long focus on the milestone. And after commissioner Larry Scott made history at the end of his first year with the announcement of the expansion of the Conference to include Colorado and Utah, he put the Conference on the forefront, announcing a landmark television deal, which is set to go into effect in 2012-13, and established a Pac-12 Football Championship game in 2011.

In 2010-11, the then-Pac-10 led the country with nine NCAA titles, with men's and women's programs sharing the wealth as the Conference claimed five NCAA women's titles and four men's crowns.

California, Stanford and USC each won two NCAA crowns, while six different league institutions claimed titles. The Golden Bears swept the men's and women's swimming and diving crowns; the Cardinal hoisted the national championship trophy in men's gymnastics and women's water polo; and the Trojans were tops in men's water polo and men's tennis.

Claiming titles in softball (Arizona State), women's indoor track and field (Oregon), and women's golf (UCLA), the Pac-10 also had runners-up in 10 NCAA Championship events: women's volleyball (California), women's soccer (Stanford), women's gymnastics (UCLA), women's rowing (Stanford), women's tennis (Stanford), and women's track and field (Oregon). It was an all Pac-10 final in men's and women's water polo, as well. Overall, the Conference had 32 teams finish in the top four at 18 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-10 in 2010-11. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 16 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 66 of a possible 91 teams into the postseason (65.9 percent), while the women sent 69 of a possible 99 teams (69.7 percent).

The Conference experienced continued success in football, sending two teams to BCS Bowl games, with Oregon earning a spot in the national championship bout. Overall, four went to bowl games.

Four schools represented the Conference in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, and three others competed in other postseason events.

On the women's hoops side, three teams competed in the NCAA Tournament and three others took part in postseason play.

Without question, the Conference has dominated the softball field, winning 23 national championships in the sport since 1982. Seven Pac-10 teams earned NCAA Tournament bids, with two advancing to the NCAA Women's College World Series, including Pac-10 champion Arizona State and California.

Six Pac-10 baseball teams received NCAA Tournament bids in 2011. Arizona State, California, Oregon State and Stanford reached Super Regionals, with Cal ultimately punching its ticket for the College World Series, its first appearance in the CWS since 1992.

The Conference swept two men's and women's sports, capturing national championships in swimming and diving and water polo.

With the additions of Colorado and Utah, Pac-12 members have won 302 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12, with 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 52 tennis titles, 44 outdoor track and field crowns, and 26 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 42 NCAA titles in women's volleyball, 37 of 42 in water polo, and 22 in swimming and diving.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, boasting 2,019 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 30 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 22 occasions, including 2010-11. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 140 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 77. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 13 of the last 21 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 22 trophies in golf, and 12 in swimming and diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis as well, having captured an unmatched 616 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back over 95 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools – California, Washington, Oregon and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and Idaho. In 1924, Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, Arizona and ASU were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. The Conference expanded by adding Colorado and Utah, agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in Conference history, created two divisions, the North and South, for football only, established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Conference teams claimed 258 NCAA titles, including 130 women's and 128 men's.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.
